WOULD ESTABLISH AIR TERMINUS

EASTERN SHORE CONSIDERED IDEAL

'Four of the six members of the House of Representatives from Maryland at a conference today decided to wage a fight to bring the Atlantic terminus for the proposed transatlantic air route to Maryland.

'Representative T. Alan Goldsborough, dean of the House delegation, said after the conference that it had been decided to ask the committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to grant a hearing for a delegation from Baltimore and the State which will present arguments in support of the plea.

'Representative Goldsborough expressed the opinion that the disaster whch wrecked the Macon off the California Court early today would have little effect upon the proposed transatlantic service for which Maryland is seeking for the terminus.

'Mr. Goldsborough said that when Dr. Hugo Eckner, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, visited Washington several years ago, he said that a terminus located in the vicinity of Hebron, near Salisbury, was as free from air disturbances as any place he had examined.'

CO. COMMISSIONERS AT ANNAPOLIS

OPPOSE REASSESSMENT THIS YEAR

The County Commissioner's Associations of the Eastern and Western Shores met in joint session at Annapolis on Thursday of this week for the purpose of discussing the proposed postponement of the State-wide assessment scheduled for this year, 1935.

Kent County was represented at the meeting by Messrs. Ellsworth C. Leary, Samuel C. Loller, Andrew W. Wilson and Harrison W. Vickers.

Twenty of the twenty three counties were represented at the meeting and after considerable discussion including a talk by Senator Vesey, of Worcester County who is a strong advocate of the assessment, and other speakers a vote was taken which resulted in a three fourths majority opposing the assessment.

The Kent delegation was among those opposing the assessment this year. Their opposition was based on the argument that while they favored a new assessment the cost this year would be an excessive burden in view of additional expenditures being shouldered on the county at this time.

The assembly, by a large majority advocated the appointment of the county tax assessor by the County Commissioners. At the present time the assessor is appointed by the State Tax Commission from a list submitted by the Commissioners of the various Counties.

The county road system was discussed at length and the Kent County delegation was the only one in the State who favored the maintenance of county roads by the State Roads Commission. The other counties advocated the maintenance of county roads by the County Commissoners with funds supplied from the State gasoline tax.

J. B. M'INTIRE DIES HERE

WAS RETIRED MERCHANT AND OUTSTANDING CITIZEN

Joshua Bruce McIntire, one of Chestertown's oldest citizens died at his home on Kent Street Tuesday night following an illness of several weeks. He suffered a stroke of paralysis last week which hastened his death.

He was 81 years of age and can well be termed one of Kent's grand old men. He was a devout member of the Chestertown M. E. Church for more than fifty years and was also offiliated with the Jr. O. U. A. M., P. O. S. of A. and Daughters of America.

For many years he was engaged in the mercantile business with Harry Hodgins and later his son, J. Webster McIntire in the store building now occupied by the Chestertown Restaurant. Before entering into business he was employed in the mercantile business conducted by the late A. J. Cahall, the late Frank Smith, and Charles Smith.

He was the son of the late Joshua Gills and Sarah Ann McIntire, and is survived by three children, D. W. McIntire, of Washington, Mrs. Rosa O. Howard and J. Webster McIntire, of Chestertown. Also a brother, Samuel T. McIntire, of Hampton, Va.

Funeral servces will be held from his late home tomorrow, Sunday, at 2 P. M. to be conducted by Rev. Frank White and the Rev. J. Harry Wright. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery.

The bearers will be Messrs. John W. Barnes, Earle A. Barnes, John E. Barnes, Harry C. Coleman, Virgil W. Kendall and Rufus E. Collins. R. Ellis Clark, undertaker.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN BALTIMORE

Miss Lottie Collins, daughter of the late oJhn W. Collins, and Charlotte A. Collns, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. Eugene Woodward, Baltimore, on Sunday. Funeral services will be held from the sister's home today.

She was a daughter of the late John W. Collins who was postmaster at Chestertown about sixty years ago, when the post office was located in a small room in the Cahall building. At that time there were no rural routes and very little mail passed in and out of Chestertown. He was a devout member of Christ M. P. Church here and after moving to Baltimore he was one of the founders of Christ Church in that city.

MRS. ELIZABETH PIPPIN DIES SUDDENLY

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Hurlock Pippin, who deid suddenly at her home in Millington early Saturday morning of last week. Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday of this week with interment at Smyrna, Delaware.

Besides her mother, Mrs. Margaret L. Hurlock, of Millington she is survived by two sons, William and James ages 15 and 9 years.

WASHINGTON TRIMS DELAWARE

POOREST GAME PLAYED THIS YEAR IN LOCAL COURT

Starting off in high gear Washington ran up a score of 24 to 13 at half time. Near the end of the half the reserves went in for Washington.

The second half started with the first string line up in but Deleware resorted to the fouling game and Washington followed suit. Delaware outscored Washington in the second half 10-7 making the final score 31-23. It was the poorest game played here this year to date.

Salters led the scoring for Washington with 4 goals and 2 fouls out of 3. Horowitz was second 3 goals and 2 fouls out 4. Huffman scored 2 goals and 2 fouls out of 2. Skipp accounted for 1 goal and 1 foul out of 2. Wilmont scored one goal. Altogether Washington scord 9 fouls out of 14 tries.

That is rather good foul shooting and is encouraging as poor foul shooting has cost Washington several games this season.

BORN—JOHN N. BENNETT, 3RD

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a ten pound baby boy, born at the Sheriff's home riday morning, George Washington's birthday.

After considering the names of Harry Nice Bennett and George Washington Bennett, the paternal name of John N. Bennett, 3rd, finally won out. Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

The Curbstone Diplomat

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Appointments in Kent County went just about the way they were predicted last week with the exception of one magistrate. It was understood that Mr. Robert Moffett would be held over, but when the appointments were made, Mr. J. W. Kirby was named to that position. From a reliable source we hear that he did not want the magistrate position and that it was forced upon him.

It has been reported that Morris Bramble, of Fairlee, would be appointed game warden. Recently he has landed a job with a farm implement company in Baltimore and now does not want the job. Mr. George Williams, of Worton will get that position according to inside dope.

Mr. Theodore Jewell, who was much talked of for the job of Police Magistrate will be a big contender for one of the appointments which will come later.

Stealing a little news from the Chestertown High School.

Athletics are not going so hot. Ray Krby the star basketer is sick and the team booked the same way against Middletown, losing 31 to 8. Against Tome however they put up a better fight and only lost 15 to 10.

Benjamin Bros., Gordon, Bibbs and Mead are the team.

My but how times have changed, dancing and card playing at a high school party. If Athletics are not successful the reverse is true when it comes to the social season. As chronicled by Mary Lil Knotts, the senior class dance, held at the Country Club, was enjoyed by a gay crowd dancing to the music of the College orchestra. Those not dancing played cards. Refreshments consisted of cake and punch. Admission was fifty cents and this included a guest. Such prices as this is an advantage of living on the Eastern Shore.

Outstanding in poetry are: Nellie Bexely, Harold Churchill, [illegible]-Dermott, Emory Hines, Ch[illegible]s-sell, Lewin Usilton, Neal Truslow, Harry Hendrickson, Anne Turner and Gerson Bonnett. Keep on, Chestertown can stand a few poets.

In the mechonical line this week we have Mr. Leonard Zfezel returning from Lincoln, Nebraska where he just finished a two month course in aviation mechanism.

Also we have the Ford Motor Company of Cnester, Pa., securing the services of Bill Capel, Bard Sutton, Jr. and Ed Keyser.

The first candidate in the town election to come out in the open so far is Philip G. Wilmer.

At every election there is always a request for capable citizens to come out and run. Phil Wilmer should certainly be capable enough.

Indications are that there will be a rather bitter election.

The bitterness will not be among the candidates but by their followers.

The Queen Annes County Commissioners have asked the P. W. A. for $1,700,000. Included in this sum is sewerage systems for such small towns as Sudlersville, Church Hill, StevensviHlle and Queenstown. Centreville already has an up to date system.

Chestertown is doing nothing about theirs. It belongs to the ox-cart days. Such towns as Worton have it all over us on street lghts and now it looks like we will play second fiddle to those little Queen Annes burgs in methods of sanitation.

IF Washington College should win the two remaining games in the league race and tie for the lead, we could have a mighty nice trip playing the tie off in Baltimore.

Remember if your town taxes are not paid by February 25th, you cannot vote in the coming election.

Mr. R. Hynson Rogers and P. Medford Brooks are back from a Merchants and Miners tour to Miami, Florida. They had a big time, in fact, they say 'it could not have been better.' This makes several they have taken. They always go on the S. S. Chatham as they have made many friends with the crew on that boat.

Mr. Brooks rated his old nic-name of Ticker while the girls called Mr. Rogers 'Oscar'

The trip made them shake off many years and like boys they played many tricks. But after getting back their age has crept up on them again.

We looked at this thing about moving the State Roads headquarters from Chestertown to Centreville as a joke. But now we learn that there might really be something to it. Also we hear every effort is going to be made to get some of the job holders out.

HOSPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS ASKED

The Hospital Board, in an appeal to the public, have listed the following articles which are needed, many of which will probably be found among unused articles in homes. They are as follows:

FARM BUREAU OPPOSES SALARY CUTS

The Maryland Farm Bureau Federaton, through its secretary C. E. Wise, Jr., is protesting vigorously Governor Nices' proposal to cut the appropriations for the University of Maryland's Extension Service and stands ready to throw its influence against all pay cuts affecting the personnel of the extension department and other allied activities at the University, it was learned today.

Mr. Wise called attention to the huge slash made in these appropriations in 1933 which, together with the proposed cut of Governor Nice, would total over $102,000. 'It is not generally appreciated,' Mr. Wise stated, 'that in addition to thir regular work, the extension department also carries on the work of the State Board of Agricul ture, including fruit and vegetable inspection, insect pest and plant disease control. Furthermore,' Mr. Wise continued, 'the extension service in 1933 was assigned the duty of putting over the AAA program n Maryland—a duty which doubled the work of the county agents. That they have been efficient in that performance is amply demonstrated by the results,' Mr. iWise declared. To date, more than $2,000,000 of AAA funds have been distributed in Maryland. This is more than two-fifths of all the AAA money received in the twelve Northeastern states.

X-RAY EQUIPMENT FOR HOSPITAL

AUXILIARY TO SUPPLY ASSISTANT NURSE

The new X-Ray equipment for the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital has arrived and is being installed and with additional equipment arriving the local institution will soon be a modern equipped hospital.

The woman's Auxiliary of the hospital, of which Mrs. Clark Grieb is president, decided at a meeting held on Tuesday of this week to supply an assistant nurse for one year. They will raise the money for this purpose through benefits to be held throughout the year. The first of these benefits will be in the form of a Wedding Dress review to be held March 15th at the Chestertown Armory. The review will consist of exhibits of old and modern wedding dresses which should present and in contrast in styles during the different periods.

Any having old wedding gowns are requested to get in touch with Mrs. William Belt Townshend in Chestertown or Mrs. Clark Grieb in Quaker Neck Other officers of the Auxiliary are Mrs. Frank B. Hines, vice president and Mrs. W. T. Brice, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer.

The Hospital Board has announced the following rates will be charged at the hospital per day:

Part of the money the Women's Auxiliary is to raise for the assistant nurse is to come from individual pledges by some of its members.
