The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Spring wrapped in an overcoat and with galoshes on her feet is the attire we think of her in, these damp cold days, and if you are with me, the sooner she sheds them, the happier we'll all be.

Now for news which is scarce, but here goes what little I know. First I'll start with our friends who are still ill in hospitals. Mrs. G. H. Dana who has been at the Easton Hospital for treatment and observation is improving rapidly, as is Mrs. Albert Kenly, who has been at the South Baltimore Hospital in Baltimore. Mrs. Kenly is having a complete rest and is thus recovering from being on the verge of a nervous break down. Mr. James Beck, at this writing, has not been operated on yet, and is still very sick, although due to an improvement in his physical condition the operation is expected in a short time now.

Among the few who are enjoying little trips from home these days are Mrs. J. Browne Metcalfe and little Peggy, who visited relatives in Washington, D. C., little Maude Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sutton who visited in Virginia last week end; Mr. Thomas W. Trew who travelled up to Gettysburg to be in on a family reunion and while there was a guest of his son, J. Wilkins Trew, and Mrs. Allan Harris, Jr., who has been spending a few days in Baltimore this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, Mr. William S. Collins, 2nd and Mr. Irvig Brown will be visitors in Baltimore this week end, while guests from that city coming to be with us are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Springer who will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, and Miss Leonore Harris Springer who will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Foley.

Additional guests in town who were here last week end, that I didn't mention before because I knew it too late were Miss Leonore Harris Springer, of Baltimore, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nicholson, and Miss Virginia Jones, who was the guest of Dr. J. W. Micou and Mr. John Kiskadden, of Washington, D. C.

And now up the hill to the college. Romance is in the air up that way too, and I thought I was going to have a nice engagement to announce to you this week but I was told to hold on a while, so you'll probably have to wait a bit longer, although if your ears are open and your eyes are keen, you might not have much trouble in finding out before I break it into print.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler entertained at dinner on Wednesday night at their home the members of the Washington College basket ball squad, while down the hill, a little way, the Chestertown High School faculty entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. J. W. Comegys, Jr., aat the home of Mrs. Ella P. Robinson. Mrs. Comegy's return t othe faculty after an absence of four months due to illness was a pleasure to that body.

The little folks continue to celebrate their birthdays, and on Sunday last, little David Massey son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Massey, tolled the score of 5 years. Moving time is on us again and I hear of several change of residences that are about to occur. Some are not yet definite enough to tell you yet, although one that is settled is, that Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clendaniel will within a short time occupy the apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lofland, in which Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell are now residing.

Many from here motored over to Centreville Thursday evening to view the automobile show and fashion show in which some of our young ladies took part. On Friday evening all of the brides of former years displayed their wedding dresses at the armory and so Lady Fashion is holding her own this week.

But now, I must go and see if any of my last year's can be made to resemble these creations by some hook or crook. Maybe Miss Spring herself, might take the hint and dress up.

Yours renovating
THE WANDERER.

STARKEY—IVEY

The Wedding of Miss Eunice Starkey daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Starkey, of Sudlersville, and Mr. Robert Ivey son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Ivey, Augusta, Georgia, took place at 4.30 Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Stoops, Jr., Fairlee, Md.

They were attended by Miss Elizabeth Starkey maid of honor and Mr. Howard Pennington best man.

The officiating minister was Rev. S. T. Hamblin pastor of Fairlee M. E. Church.

After the wedding the party left for Dundalk, Baltimore, where Mr. and Mrs. Ivey will make their home. Mr. Ivey, U. S. Army, is stationed at Camp Holibird.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Hollins, of the Millington Department Store, are in New York buying their spring and Easter Coats, Dresses and Suits.

Mr. John (Toots) Hadaway underwent an operation at Easton hospital on Friday of last week and is improving rapidly at this writing.

Mr. Ernest Leaverage returned to his home here on Saturday of last week following an operation for appendicitis at Easton hospital.

Mr. Arthur L. Greenwood has rented from Mr. W. R. Strong the home on Queen Street formerly owned by the late Mrs. Herbert Strong. Mr. Greenwood will move from the Knight house April 1st.

ACCEPTS POSITION AT CAMBRIDGE

Mr. Charles A. Blizzard, jeweler and clocksmith at the store of J. S. Kreeger will leave tomorrow for Cambridge where he has accepted a position. His wife and baby will accompany him.

Mr. Germain, of Del-Mar, will succeed him at Kreeger's store here.

The Chestertown Transcript:

Sirs:

Please publish the following letter in this weeks issue of your paper:

Hon W. R. Hubbard:

Dear Sir:

I see by the Transcript, that the Milk Producers have you to thank for the defeat of the Milk Control Board bill in Committee.

If this is a fact I am taking the liberty of asking you a few questions.

1. Did you know at the time, that in the seventeen principal milk markets of the U. S. A., six of the seventeen under Milk Control Boards average 25 cents per hundred pounds more to the Producer, than the eleven not under Milk Control Boards?

2. Did you know that the Governor of New Jersey, and Mr. Taylor, Secretary of the Farm Bureau, are urging the continuance of the Control Board, after working under one for several years?

You probably knew that some of the Interstate Directors were actively working before the Maryland Legislature against the passage of a Control Board Bill, but did you know that at the same time their Presicent, Mr. Welty was holding meeting through Pennsylvania telling the farmers they needed a continuance of the Control Board.

3. Did you know it was testified before the Federal Trade Commission by Mr. Standford, Ex-Pres. of the Control Board, that they had found the Big Milk Companies had short paid the farmers $200,000 in a short time without any pretext for a reduction, and that none of our Milk Producers Organizations have ever been able to ferret this out?

Did you stop to consider the twenty-five cents per hundred lbs. amounts to around $200.00 a day to Kent County Shippers?

6. Do you think the above facts are evidence in favor of a control Board, along with the fact that many other states are turning to Control Boards after finding farmers' Organizations such as our Interstate, regardless of how hard they try, cannot cope with the gigantic Milk Concerns, from the very simple fact of not having any power, other than a bargaining power of a persuasive nature?

I am not asking thes questions in any spirit of antogonism, but as a loyal supporter of yours in both campaigns, a Milk Producer and member of the Interstate I feel we need a Milk Control Board.

Signed:—MILK PRODUCER
