Dancing Stars Talk With Their Feet In "Roberta"

One of the sensational dances in 'ROBERTA' is the double tap routine by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers to the 'I'll Be Hard to Handle' number. In this dance they literally talk with their feet, tapping out repartee which is easily undersood. This scene, in the spectacular film version of the Jerome Kern stage success, is supposed to represent a rehearsal spat by cabaret performers. Irene Dunne is co-starred in this RKO-Radio successor to 'The Gay Divorce.'

George Burns, Gracie Allen, Joe Morrison and Dixie Lee head the cast of Paramount's 'Love in Bloom,' the romantic comedy about young lovers who try to find a way and dizzy honeymooners who were always in their way, which comes on Monday and Tuesday, March 25 and 26 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

The central plot of 'Love in Bloom' deals with two romantic youngsters in New York who are madly in love but who haven't even got the price of a marriage license. Joe Morrison is the boy, a shy young composer who left his village to seek fame in the big city, and Dixie Lee is the girl, a 'right' girl who is running away from the cheapness of her father's carnival.

A kindly old music-dealer adopts them and sets them on their feet. Just as they make up their minds to get married, the girl's brother turns up with his wife and the calliope they had taken on their honeymoon.

Burns tells Dixie Lee that the carnival has broken up and their father is in jail. She gives him the money she and Morrison have saved to bail her father out. From that point on, it is a race between the young lovers trying to get to the altar, and the dizzy honeymooners getting in their way. And the solution comes only when Joe Morrison writes a hit song and gets enough money to buy the carnival so he can be near the girl he loves.

Gordon and Revel, composers of 'Did You Ever See a Dream Walking,' and many recent hits, wrote the songs which Joe Morrison and Gracie Allen sing in 'Love in Bloom.' Elliott Nugent directed the film, which also features Richard Carle and J. C. Nugent.

Combining the talents of the three stars said to be most ideally suited to musical comedy, RKO-Radio brings to the screen, 'Roberta,' the Jerome Kern hit which proved a stage sensation. Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers are headlined in the motion picture which comes to the New Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, March 27 and 28.

With Miss Dunne singing, Astaire and Miss Rogers dancing, and a bevy of America's most beautiful girls displaying the latest in feminine style creations, the lavish production is said to move swiftly and tunefully through a most intriguing story. The plot centers, about a double romance in Paris, city of color and gaiety.

The central situation sees an All-American football player as the owner of a feminine style salon, by accident of inheritance, and an American college band leader teamed with the favorite of the Paris music halls as the double attraction of a famous night club.

Among the Kern numbers which Miss Dunne singse is the popular 'Smoke Gets In Your Eyes.' Astaire and Miss Rogers introduce several spectacular dance routines which, it is claimed, outshine even the 'Continental' and the 'Night and Day' of 'The Gay Divorcee.'

Playing the romantic lead opposite Miss Dunne in the role of the football hero is Randolph Scott. Others in the brilliant cast include Helen Westley, Victor Varconi, Claire Dodd, Luis Alberni, Ferdinand Muniohfi, Adrian Rosley and Torben Meyer.

In the band which Astaire leads are such headline entertainers as Johnny 'Candy' Candido, Muzzy Marcellino, Gene Sheldon, Paul McLarind and Howard Lally. William Seiter directed the Pandro S. BeBrman production.

Sixteen million Americans of all types and ages have read from cover to cover the fascinatng Harold Bell Wright classic, 'When A Man's A Man.' From all indications, at least three times this number will enjoy the Fox Film adaptation of this master piece. It comes to the New Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30 as part of a double feature program, with George O'Brien in the starring role.

Universal appeal is what both look and picture posses. The stereotyped version of the West as peopled by desert rats lurking through the sage brush of the dry lands is abandoned; in place is a vibrant story of modern youth involved in a vital romance.

The setting is an Arizona ranch, to which comes a mysterious Easterner, short of money, obviously the gentleman, but silent on his past. He is befriended by a hardened Westerner, changes from playboy to a rugged 'man's man,' and finds himself in the dilemma of his lifetime when he realizes that his best friend and himself are rivals for the hand of the same girl.

Before turning to writing, Harold Bell Wright knew the typical American man and woman as few others knew him. Into 'When A Man's A Man' he poured his rich knowledge of the West and of the conflicts and romance that arise, far from urban artificialities.

Around George O'Brien are featured Dorothy Wilson and Paul Kelly, in a cast composed of Harry Woods, Jimmy Butler, Richard Carlisle, Clarence Wilson and Edgar Norton. It is a Lesser production, directed by Edward F. Cline.

Fred MacMurray, Claudette Colbert's handsome leading man in 'The Gilded Lily,' makes his second appearance for Paramount in the principal featured role of 'Car 99,' which comes to the New Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30 at part of a double feature program.

Assisted by Sir Guy Standing, Ann Sheridan, William Frawley and Marina Schubert, MacMurray is cast as one of the gallant uniformed heroes of the famous Michigan State Police whose true story is told in 'Car 99.'

The picture shows how this great anti-crime force is able to patrol an entire state efficiently through the use of radio control. The system faces its greatest test when a band of desperadoes, assisted by a man who has spied on the police and has intimate knowledge of the force's workings, begin a series of defiant bank robberies.

The gangsters cripple the radio communication in order to carry out a particularly daring robbery, but MacMurray, the rookie trooper, traps the gangsters and saves the life of his girl whom they have kidnapped.

Charles Barton directed 'Car 99,' which was adapted from the series of short stories by Karl Detzer recently printed in The Saturday Evening Post.

ANNOUNCE CARD OF BALL GAMES FOR SHO' TOSSERS

Outstanding Teams To Visit Here

Unable to do outdoor work to any extent as yet candidates for the Washington College baseball team are nevertheless going through daily exercises, tossing the ball back and forth and making preparations in general for the first opportunity for a regular practice session.

An attractive schedule has been arranged for the Shore tossers this year, a card that will likely contain twenty games when it is completed. Several games are still hanging fire, two with Loyola, in particular, being assured if dates can be arranged.

The schedule calls for the appearance at Chestertown of such outstanding teams as the University of Maryland, Long Island University, Penn State and Washington and Lee, not to mention old rivals like Delaware, Mt. St. Mary's and Loyola.

The card as tentatively set by Graduate Manager Fred W. Dumschoot is as follows:

Apr. 8—George Washington	Away
Apr. 11—Georgetown	Away
Apr. 13—Maryland	Away
Apr. 16—Long Island U.	Home
Apr. 20—Penn State	Home
Apr. 24—George Washington	Home
Apr. 27—Delaware	Away
May 1J—West Chester T.	Home
May 4—St. John's	Home
Fay 8—St. John's	Away
May 9—West Chester T.	Away
May 11—Washington-Lee	Home
May 15—Maryland	Away
May 18—Delaware	Home
May 25—Mt. St. Mary's	Away
May 28—Mt. St. Mary's	Home

'Darling will you be my wife?'

'Will you always let me do just what I like?'

'Certainly.'

'Can mother live with us?'

'Of course, dear.'

'Will you give up the club and always give me money when I ask for it?'

'Willingly, my pet.'

'I'm sorry. I could never marry such a boob.'

"It's big and powerful and it has what it takes to handle the tough jobs. Henry Ford builds 'em right and he's put a lot of extra power and strength in this truck. It will take a beating day after day and always be ready for more.

"It's a real truck all the way through. That's why it stays on the job and out of the repair shop. It does a truck's work because every part is full truck size.

"That V-8 engine has all the tough jobs licked. It will get you through a hard day and do it at low cost. No guessing about that. I've got the records on gas and oil and repairs to prove it.

"That's why we bought the Ford V-8 Truck. We put it to every test and it came out on top."

Constipated?

The doctors say . . .
Use liquid treatment

Here is the soundest advice anyone can give on the subject of laxatives. It is based on medical opinion. We want you to have the benefit of this information no matter what laxative you may buy:

The secret of real relief from constipation is reduced dosage. You can't regulate the bowels unless you can regulate the help you give them. That is why doctors use a liquid laxative; the dose can be measured to a drop.

Avoid laxatives that you can't cut down in dosage; especially those that seem to require larger doses than when you began their use.

Under the doctor's care, you usually get a liquid laxative. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help, and the right amount of help. Smaller and smaller doses—until you don't need any.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—natural laxatives that form no habit.

FORD SALESMEN AT SALES SCHOOL

IT'S school time at the Chester Branch of the Ford Motor Company. Above is pictured a portion of one of the sales-training classes being conducted at the plant. Over a period of about six weeks every salesman in the territory, which includes Eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, Eastern Shore of Maryland and Southern New Jersey, will attend a two-day session during which they will receive intensive training in approved methods of presenting the 1935 V-8 to prospective buyers. The schools, conducted in all Ford branches, are part of a nation-wide educational system inaugurated to assist in the attainment of Mr. Henry Ford's 1935 objective—1,000,000 V-8 units.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR KIDNEYS!
