Betterton Planning Major Improvements for This Summer

Chamber of Commerce Planning Board Walk, Picnic Grounds, Advertising Campaign and Better Traveling Facilities

The town of Betterton is planning on four major projects this coming summer.

Plans are on to have an excursion steamer run a regular schedule to Betterton.

Up to date picnic grounds are also on the program. Plans for this are not complete but an active committee is at work and hope to have the grounds ready by the opening of the season. These grounds are expected to draw many excursionists to the bayside resort.

Another big project under way is the building of an up to date board walk. This would extend from the Grove's property well up the bay front. Funds for this project they hope to obtain from P. W. A. funds.

A sign board advertising campaign is also on, coupled with a campaign of advertising in the Philadelphia and Baltimore papers and they hope to draw more tourists than ever before.

The Chamber of Commerce is one hundred per cent backing the bay bridge project.

Betterton's location makes it one of the most attractive resorts on the Chesapeake Bay. By making a strong effort to get vacationists they are planning for the biggest season in the history of the town.

DAIRYMEN TO MEET TUESDAY NIGHT

LOCAL DAIRYMEN SHOW INTEREST IN HERD IMPROVEMENT

County Agent McVean announces that a meeting of dairymen will be held in the Elementary School auditorium, on Tuesday night, April 16th at 8 p. m.

There is much interest in increasing the efficiency in dairying along three lines; economical feeding, the culling of the herds to remove the unprofitable cows, and improved breeding methods.

The time seems opportune for the Dairy Herd Improvement Association to resume its functioning and to put its slogan 'FEED, WEED AND BREED,' back into action.

Speakers from College Park and Philadelphia, will take part in the meeting, as well as interested farmers. Pictures and charts will be shown to illustrate the working of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association, as the former Cow Testing Association, is now more appropriately called.

During the last six months some sixty head of registered males and females, backed by strong pedigrees and high production records, have been purchased by Kent County Farmers. The Guernsey breeders has a local organization as do the Holstein breeders. Some of the men have already started herd testing in connection with their Breed Associations. This work will tie in nicely with the Dairy Herd Improvement Association. Quite a number of farmers who were in the former association, desire to continue the testing of their herds.

The Federal Plan for eliminating Bangs Disease, and advanced cases of mastitis or garget, with an indemnity for reacting cows along with the increased salvage value of discards from the herds, gives the dairymen plenty of incentive to rid his herd of undesirable and unprofitable animals. In addition to this of course, is the greater incentive of more economical and efficient feeding and the increased production and profit that goes with the use of the herd improvement program.

All dairymen in the county interested in this approved constructive dairy program are invited to attend the Tuesday night meeting.

NICE MAY VETO BRIDGE BILL

HEARING HELD AT ANNAPOLIS WEDNESDAY

A large delegation from all parts of Kent County jointed delegations from other parts of the State at Annapolis on Wednesday and appeared before Governor Nice requesting that he sign the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Bill, at the time the bill was before the Legislature there was little question but that the Governor would sign the bill but since its passage the Governor has intimated that he will veto it. The Governor's veto would again put the prospect of a bridge across Chesapeake Bay on the shelf at a time when it was nearer its goal than any time since it was first proposed.

It is understood that the money is available at Washington for the construction of the bridge and if this be true it would become a reality by the stroke of the pen of Governor Nice favoring the project.

Local advocates of the bridge are leaving no stones unturned in bringing influence and pressure to bear but at the time of going to press the Governor's attitude was against the project.

A revised check of distances from the various towns on the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula to Baltimore via the three present routes as compared to the bridge route is as follows:

MILEAGE FROM PENINSULA POINTS TO BALTIMORE

TOWN	VIA ELKTON	VIA MAT'PK	VIA CLAIB'NE	VIA BAY BRIDGE
ELKTON	53	107	122	70
CHESTERTOWN	92	68	102	32

The bridge will afford transportation across Chesapeake Bay 24 hours a day regardless of weather conditions. (Kent County Chamber of Commerce)

MERCHANTS TO CONTEST SALES TAX LAW

PLAN COURT RULING ON RECENTLY PASSED LEGISLATION

MEETING HELD AT COURT HOUSE FRIDAY

Merchants of Kent County will join with merchants from all parts or the State in a test of the constitutionality of the gross sales tax bill which was recently passed by the Maryland Legislature for the purpose of raising funds for relief purposes in this State.

The bill, when it was before the Legislature, was bitterly fought by merchants and business men and an effort was made to care for the relief burden by special taxation on certain luxuries. The gross sales tax bill was passed in the closing days of the Legislature after all other means of raising funds met sufficient opposition to be eliminated.

The present plans of the merchants are to carry the case, if necessary, to the highest Court but in the meantime it will be necessary to comply with the existing law by reporting gross sales each month and paying a tax of one per cent of gross receipts from sales made during the preceeding month.

MERCHANTS MET HERE FRIDAY

A meeting was called for all merchants in Kent County at the Court House yesterday at 10.00 a. m. for the purpose of discussing the question of contesting the law an effort is being made to have the cooperation of the merchants and mercantile organizations in all parts of the State in the effort to undo the existing gross sales tax law. It is understood that the sales tax has been proven unconstitutional in other States.
