The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Holy Week, and the due solemnity which it entails, was observed by all this week, and no activity outside of church services was entered into by anyone. Having been shut in for the past few days, I have gathered little news for you for Easter and Easter guests, are few. Mrs. William Beck and her daughter, Miss Ellen Beck, of New York, will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck for the holiday, while Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wood, of Baltimore, will add to the visitors in town. Mrs. H. Clay Brown will have her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brown as Easter holiday guests, although the recent bride and groom will spend part of their time with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard who have been established at the Mayflower Hotel Washington, during the winter, have reopened their residence, Wide Hall, here, where they will spend the spring and summer.

The Harry Russells having taken possession of their new home, the apartment formerly occupied by them, is now the new place of abode of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clendaniel. The apartment is in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lofland.

Palm Sunday week end brought us some home comers, among whom were Mr. W. Lester Baldwin, of Baltimore who spent the week end with his mother here, and attended on Saturday, the meeting of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College, of which he is a member. Mrs. W. Frazier Russell, Jr., was met in Baltimore, by Miss Louise Russell, who accompanied her to Chestertown, where she spent the week end as the guest of Mrs. W. F. Russell. Speaking of Palm Sunday reminds me that my wish came true, and I did get to Longwood Gardens. It was my third visit to that haven of loveliness and peace, and the fusion of gorgeous coloring, the enchanting music of the pipe organ in the distance was too deep a beauty for my poor humble pen to express. Oh, do go, for it is at its height now and you will never rue the day that you acted upon my insistence of that trip. But how I have rambled—I was telling you way up above of last week end's visitors and off I go. Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Bockmiller and their little son and daughter, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Moore. Mr. Bockmiller is principle of one of the largest public schools in Baltimore, the big Westport School.

The Mayor's little daughter, Anne Wilmer, celebrated her seventh birthday on Good Friday, but having come on such a holiday, her little luncheon for her young friends will not take place until Easter Monday. Another celebrant of a birthday this week was little Louis Harris who chalked off eight years of living in this old world of ours.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell left on Tuesday to visit in Baltimore and Washington, and is not expected to return until after Easter.

Baltimore always seems to hold some magnetism for those of our locality, and I, personally, can easily see why, but it is not always for pleasure, alone, that some of our residents seek its shelter; business, specialists, hospitals, all have their place. Among those who have dealt with one or more of these phases in the past week and have had the Oriole colors waving over them were Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Mrs. William B. Usilton and her sister Mrs. Edward Loud, Mrs. Wroth, Miss Anna Wroth and Mrs. Gurley.

News has just come that Mr. James G. Beck was operated on Thursday morning and is doing splendidly. His condition is good, he responded well, and I know you are as glad as I am to hear these good tidings after so many discouraging reports. What a Happy Easter we do wish the entire family.

Chester River Yacht and Country Club will hold its Easter dance on Monday night, April 22nd. Good music is promised and all those steppers of the modern dance will be in full force I'm sure. The affair will be held for Club members and their guests.

Then on Friday night, there will be another dance. Think of it, two in one week. This one will be held at the Armory under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hospital Unit. I understand it is to be a 'tacky' party, so don't worry about having two evening dresses for one week. You can wear anything, (within reason of course, yes, yes) and the funnier, the better. So even if you don't trip the light fantastic, it will be worth your money to go, and get an eye full, and at the same time think to what a worthy cause, your mite will contribute.

But now as the glorious message of Eastertime
Is spreading its gladness far and wide
My happy wishes are joining in
To bless and brighten your Eastertide.

Yours,
THE WANDERER.

The vacancy on the Board of County Commissioners of Kent County, caused by the death of Mr. Samuel C. Loller, will be filled shortly through appointment by Governor Harry Nice. Warm weather is calling attention to the river. Doc Sterling is claiming to clip off 6 knots in his new sail boat. The severist critic can find no fault with the new sail boat Carl Bordley is building.

Mac McCauley is joining the motor boat list this summer with about a thirty foot open boat which will be cabined next year. He reports no previous experience in the boating line.

Truslow brothres are fixing up their railway and soon the smaller boats will be hauling out for their Spring painting and repairs, while the larger boat will seek other shipyards.

The county suffered quite a loss this week in the death of Mr. Loller. His death leaves a vacancy in the office of County Commissioners.

This vacancy is to be filled by the Governor. Although the Commissioners went in by large majorities, it is to be expected that a republican will be picked.

It is reported that Mr. George Williams, of Worton, has the support of Mr. John Bennett. Mr. Williams was a candidate for the position on the Republican ticket last fall.

Mr. Morris Bramble, of Fairlee, is also talked of as he is a close friend of Governor Nice.

The Democrats were put in very embarrassing positions while Gov. Ritchie was at the helm.

Now it is the Republicans turn. If Gov. Nice does not veto the bridge bill it is going to be very embarrassing to his party friends in the lower counties. If he does veto the bill I am anxious to see how the local crowd are going to explain it.

Here goes stealing from a thief—
Life is War—Edward Young.
War is Hell—Gen. Sherman.
Hell is empty—Shakespeare.

The famine in Russia (the Ukraine district) prompted many acid anecdotes, or satorical jokes, about the food situation. Two Russians debated the relative greatness of Stalin and Hoover. 'Hoover taught the Americans not to drink,' says one. 'Thats nothing, Stalin taught the Russians not to eat,' eplied the other. The conundrum was, 'The Russians eat the most because they can eat a week's ration in a day.
