IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Daisy Watson, who departed this life one year ago April 11, 1934.

The month of April again is here.
To me the saddest of the year.
It was one year ago this day
That my dear mother passed away.
In memory of one who passed away.
Gone but not forgotten.

Whose thoughts were never for herself
But others her whole life through
My heart still aches with sadness.
My eyes shed many tears.

God only knows how I miss you
As it dawns another year.
Peacefully sleeping resting at last,
The Worlds Weary troubles trials are past,

In silence she suffered in patience she bore
Till God called her home to suffer no more.
Too far away for sight and speed,
But not too far for thought to reach.

To remember them who once were here
Who, though absent are just as dear.
The fairest flowers are the first to fall
The sweetest first to fade.
The fondest dearest best of all
At peaceful rest is laid.

Deep in my heart lies a picture,
Of a loved one laid at rest,
In memory's frame I shall keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
By her loving daughter and son in law.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boulter.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Daisy Watson, who passed away one year ago April 11, 1934.

What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when we lost our darling mother
We lost our dearest friend.

A wonderful mother, woman and aid,
One who was better God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million that, mother, was you.

Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all whom you knew,
Our wonderful mother—That mother was you.

The face I loved is now laid low,
Her loving voice is still,
The hand so often I have clasped,
Lies now in deaths cold chill.

I often sit and think of her,
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only thing;
That grief can call its own.

Oh what would I give to clasp her hand
Her dear kind face to see,
To hear her voice to see her smile;
That mean so much to me.

Her Spirit has gone to realms above,
To rest in Jesus precious Love.
So I'll try my best my Cross to bear,
Until I meet her over there.
By her husband and children.
