The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Easter's come and gone and no more holidays of any consequence until the 4th of July. Seems a long way off doesn't it, but it'll be here in all its heat and glory before you know it. So let's retrospect a minute on this past one before we go plunging into summer. These ideal days and their happenings must not be passed into unconcern a manner. After I wrote you last week, as usual, I heard of a lot more folks who were going to spend Easter here, so in case you dd not see them, I wll run over their names. The town was literally filled with visitors. In addition to those I previously mentoned, the following were here from New York.

Mr. Robert and Miss Margaret Adkinson, who were guests of Capt. Ned and the Misses Emory's at Piney Grove.

Miss Virginia Parks, of Saranac Lake, guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Rufus K. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Andreson guests of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown at Godlington Manor.

Miss Harriette Welch, guest of her aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. H. Skipper.

Miss Cynthia Clendaniel guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Clendaniel.

Philadelphia:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton, guests of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes.

Mr. Peter Andreson guest of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown.

Baltimore:

Mrs. T. Elliott Gilpin and friends from Frederick, guests of the Emorys at Piney Grove.

Miss Lois Mietzsch, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson.

Miss Mary Scott guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire.

Mrs. Rachel Wacker, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Blyman.

Miss Grace Nickerson, guest of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Nicherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jarman and Dr. and Mrs. Lewin Hitchcock, of Westminster, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell.

Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., and sons, Jack and Bill, guests, Friday and Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nicholson, Jack, remaining over the week end, with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clendaniel.

Washington, D. C.

Mr. John Kiskadden, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Miss Helen Simpers, guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirshner, guests of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, on Saturday Front Royal, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Thruston Branham guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers New Albany, Ind.:

Mrs. Wilbur Gill, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers, has remained over this week.

Emmittsburg:

Prof. and Mrs. Charles B. Shaunghessy, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Kratzer. Mrs. Shaunghessy remained with her mother until Tuesday.

Students home included:

Miss Fredrica Metcalfe, student at St. Mary's Seminary, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe.

Mr. Harry Fallowfield, of the University of Maryland, guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fallowfield.

Miss Elizabeth Fontaine, of Hood College, spent Easter with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. Clark Fontaine.

From Louisville, Kentucky, came Mrs. Edward Haysley, to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Benjamin.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon and Miss Josie Dixon came from Savannah, Ga, for Easter, and have reopened Green Point Farm, where they will remain for the summer.

Mrs. Oliver Coursey, is now a guest at the home of Mrs. Thos. G. Wroth where she is also visiting her mother, Mrs. Gurley.

Miss Margaret Jefferson has returned to her home here, and is fast recuperating from her operation.

The Chapman-Gieske wedding in Baltimore on Thursday was of much interest here, and among those attending from Chestertown were:

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard Mrs. H. G. Simpers and her daughter, Mrs. Elias Nuttle, of Denton.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race in Baltimore, Saturday will also attract many from here and elsewhere. Mr. Wilbur Hubbard will remain over to attend it, while Mrs. C .Beck Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowland, will join Mr. John Kiskadden there and attend the race, afterwards attending a party given by Miss Frances Nolting, who frequently visits here. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, III, with Mr. and Mrs. William Wittmer, of New York, will be seen at the race, afterwards coming here to spend the week end at Godlington Manor. Col. Brown and his aunt, Mrs. S. E. Colclazer, of Philadelphia, will be guests at the Manor for the week end also.

The 'tacky party' dance has been causing much interest and enthusiasm and prior to the dance on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend entertained a number of friends at buffet supper.

The By-Kota Club Banquet held on Tuesday evening was most enjoyable. The color scheme of gold and green was beautifully carried out, the tables being decorated with yellow flowers in green bowls and yellow candles held with green candle sticks, hand painted programs and menus of the same scheme, made by Mrs. Robert Moore and Mrs. Thomas Ellason all added to the colorful arrangement. Splendid music, and an interesting talk by Judge Owen Knotts, were interesting features of the occasion.

But stop, have I run over my column? Yes, so here's a hasty farwell.

Yours,

THE WANDERER.

HOLDS BRIDGE LUNCHEON FOR OUT OF TOWN GUESTS

On Tuesday, April 16th, a very attractive Easter Party in the form of a Luncheon Bridge was given by Mrs. Joseph B. Vinyard at her home on Queen street.

Included in the party were two out-of town guests, Mrs. Joseph Harrington and Mrs. Henry Vineyard, of Denton. Mrs. Henry Vinyard will be remembered by her many friends in Chestertown as Miss Velma Argoe.

Mrs. Notley O. Willson, who has been in Houston, Texas, since New Years, visiting relatives, returned to her home in Rock Hall, during Easter week.

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Doctor Titsworth taught Chestertown something about publicity.

The Cross Street Association has followed one of his publicity schemes. They have invited Huey Long to be the speaker at their Decoration Day celebration. They wrote Huey that Roosevelt drew 10,000, so he ought to be able to draw 20,000.

B. Fox, president of the association says the association believes in Huey's, 'Share the Wealth Plan,' as long as they do not give anything to anybody else.

You win! pick up the marbles. Doctor Beachley and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce will journey to Washington on Monday and receive a plaque for winning the health contest. The Kent County Chamber of Commerce entered the contest and th Health Dept. came through.

The Kent County Health Dept. has won several prizes. This does not mean that Kent County is such a healthy place to live or that the health of the people is any better here than inany other county. It means that the work done by the County Health Dept. outstands that of other counties.

Even your best friend hesitates to te ll you when you need Listerine. Maybe your best friend hesitates to tell you that if your taxes are not paid your property will be advertised. Over in Queen Anne's it took 8 newspaper pages to take care of the tax sales.

Question? Where is T. Alan Goldsborough on the Chesapeake Bay Bridge propostion. We will tell you next week.

Dr. Wolf, the surgeon from Philadelphia has been considering locating at the Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital, will not locate here. Another doctor is being considered for the position.

A rather unusual case was tried in Court here this week. It was a civil suit from Cecil County. It takes two sides to make an argument but this argument had three.

A party of girls were riding in car and at an intersection collided with another car. One of the girls was killed. Her parents entered a combination suit against the owner of the car in which she was riding and the owner of the car which collided with them. The plaintiff was represented and each car owner was represented making three sides. The lawyers really made a three sided argument out of it as the two defendants were placing the blame on each other.

U. S. P. S. TREASURER HERE

Mr. E. A. Jimenis, national treasurer of the United States Power Squadrons, Inc., was in Chestertown Thursday and met with members of the local Squadron. Members of the Squadron here are a branch of the Susquehanna Squadron at Havre de Grace. Local members are planning to resign from the Susquehanna Squadron and organize a Chester River squadron with headquarters at Chestertown. This organization has proved very interesting to people, who like boating.

While here Mr. Jimenis, paid a visit to the Chester River Yacht and Country Club.

Fish Need Food

The fish production of a body of water depends chiefly upon the quantity of suitable food, and this food supply, in turn, depends upon the fertility of the water, Professor Juday of the University of Wisconsin writes. That is, all aquatic animals, like all land animals, depend upon plants for the ultimate source of their food, and aquatic plants also require phosphates, potash, nitrogen compounds and other raw materials that are dissolved in the water for their growth.

Roughest Two-Man Sport

The jiu-jitsu bout of Japan is the roughest two-man sport. All kinds of fouls are permitted and broken necks and ankles, dislocated hips and shoulders and torn tendons are not uncommon. When a combatant is in a painful grip and about to receive a disabling injury he is supposed to give in and end the round. Rather than face this humiliation, however, he sometimes allows himself to be punished to the point of insensibility.—Frelong Foster in Collier's Weekly.
