Keeping Green The Memory Of Our Worthies

Even the spiritual-minded sometime become cynical because the selfish impulses of men as expressed in life all about us would seem to be supreme. Sometime we are tempted to conclude that evil is on the throne; that the love men once had for the ethical, the esthetic and the beautiful is dead, and that all the potent forces in the world about us are crass and materialistic.

In the light of recent happenings in connection with the activities of some of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Chestertown we are glad to be able to express a contrary opinion. During the past week the already attractive grounds of the Church have been made even more attractive by the planting of trees and evergreens all of which are in strict keeping with the colonial beauty of the church building itself.

Several years ago two handsome English Boxwood trees, now standing in front of the Church, were graciously donated by Miss Addie Glasscock.

Last week Mr. Cordray Loud, another loyal member of the Church, gave several beautiful specimens of this rare evergreen. But the climax of these plantings was reached on Monday of this week when Mrs. Nettie Thompson came forward with the announcement that she desired to donate to the Church in honor of her mother, Mrs. Virginia Moody, the large English Boxwood which has grown on her property on Mill street, in the rear of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for nearly three-quarters of a century. This tree was originally planted in Chester Cemetery on the Thomas H. Hynson lot in 1873. But in 1879 it was transplanted by Mrs. Moody to her home on Mill street where it had flourished ever since. Now, under the direction of Mrs. Thompson, it takes its place in a conspicuous location on the church grounds just outside the Mill street entrance to the Sunday School building. This bush or tree is one of the handsomest specimens of Old English Boxwood to be found anywhere in Kent county. In donating this bush Mrs. Thompson has imposed a debt of gratitude upon the entire community. Where it now stands it may be a feast to the eye of every passerby.

In addition to this it is a very noble sentiment for her to make this valuable donation in honor of her mother, Mrs. Moody, who has been a devoted member of the Chestertown M. E. Church since early girlhood. Her faithful attendance upon this place of prayer has been an inspiration to us all. And to donate this appropriate planting to the Church she loves so well even while she still lives is indeed a very tender sentiment.

In writing this sketch may we express the prayer that this bush or tree may live a long time to keep green the memory of this worthy member of our Zion.

I would not forget to state that much credit for the skillful manner in which this work was done is due Mr. Sudler Baxter, another very faithful member of this communion, who had complete charge of this transplanting.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and ¾ of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomcat, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. ©1934, C.M.Co.
