W. C. T. U. SEEKS LOCAL OPTION LAW RETURN

Group In Session Condemns Tobacco, Beer Gardens And Sunday Sports

The restoration of the Local Option Law for Kent county was favored by the Kent County Women's Christian Temperance Union in the resolutions drawn and adopted at its annual meeting held last Thursday at Millington and the use of tobacco, beer gardens with adjoining dance halls, legalized gambling and lotteries and Sunday baseball and golf drew the fire of the county group.

The resolutions, drawn by Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter, Mrs. Charles Wheatley and Mrs. Frank White also endorsed the peace programs being developed in the churches and especially commended the Washington College Peace Conference held recently. Tribute was also paid to the late Miss Emma Shaffer, long active in the temperance cause and one of the leaders of the Kent W. C. T. U.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

We, the members of the Kent County W. C. T. U. of Maryland in our annual convention assembled in Millington M. E. Church wish to give thanks to our Heaveniy Father for his blessings on our work and to pledge ourselves to renewed activity.

Resolved:

1. That we continue unremittingly the education of our youth concerning the use of alcohol and narcotics which will ruin the morals of our boys and girls.

2. That we begin our agitation and work unceasingly to have the local option law again placed upon our Statute Books.

3. That we urge a continuous campaign against the use of cigarettes and tobacco and against the obnoxious practice of smoking in public places such as restaurants, rest rooms and busses.

4. We deplore the existence of beer gardens with adjoining dance halls that are debauching the youth of our land, and we demand the enforcement of the law which forbids the sale of intoxicants to minors. As there is a law forbidding the sale of intoxicants on the Sabbath day, we demand its strict enforcement.

5. We vigorously protest against commercializing the Sabbath day and urge our people of Kent County to discourage games such as baseball and golf on this day.

6. We endorse the Peace Programs that are being developed in our churches, schools, and colleges and appreciate the splendid program that was arranged and carried out at Washington College. May we resolve to "keep peace and pursue it."

7. That we endorse the League of Decency and believe there is a decided improvement in movies and radio, but we know there is need for further improvement.

8. Realizing the organized effort being made to legalize and collect revenues from gambling and lotteries, we urge our members to work against this movement and to be on guard to prevent its appearance in our county.

9. That we call upon all citizens of our county to protect the high standards that have prevailed and to be watchful of all efforts to break them down, such as places of ill-repute, boxing matches, road houses, etc.

10. That we express our thanks to the members of this church, the pastor and his wife, the singers, Mrs. Mary Haslup (our beloved State President), Miss May B. Macken (National W. C. T. U. representative), to those who furnished the delicious meals, and to all who in any way have contributed toward the success of this convention.

The Convention also approved of Senate Bill 398 and Senate Bill 541, and opposed the passage of House of Representatives bill 3414, House of Representatives Bill 4001. House of Representatives Bill 3419.

The Convention also passed resolutions as follows:

We, the members of Kent County W. C. T. U. wish to pay tribute to Miss Emma Shaffer and desire to have the following resolutions spread on the county minutes and to be printed in our county papers.

Resolved—That in the death of Miss Emma Shaffer, Kent County has sustained a great loss. Her untiring interest and devotion to the cause of temperance, her faithful participation in the work of the W. C. T. U., her high Christian standards, have made an impression on the county that shall be felt for many years.

We give thanks to God for her life and express our sympathy to her family in their great loss.

MRS. ELIZABETH BAXTER,
MRS. CHARLES WHEATLEY,
MRS. FRANK WHITE.

Moose Largest Land Mammal; Naturally Shy

The moose is the largest of our land mammals. His curious head, with its large, odd nose, the broad, palmated antiers, and the pendant "bell" below the throat, all combine to make him seem like a story-book animal. Because of his long legs he is taller than a horse, says Nature Magazine. Though large and heavy, he is able to travel almost noiselessly through his northern home in the thickets of alder, birch, tamarack, along the edges of slow-moving streams, and shallow lakes.

He is fond of water plants, leaf, stem and root. These delicacies he seeks at night during the season when his antlers are growing and the calves are young. He is sometimes completely covered by water when he reaches for food at the bottom. He is naturally a shy creature until he is ready to seek his mate; then his trumpeting call means challenge to all intruders, and, in his conflicts, he uses his strong forefeet as well as his heavy antlers. He is found in the forest areas of northern North America as far south as Maine, Minnesota and Wyoming, and under protection he may continue to occupy these areas for many years in the future.
