The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

May time and visitors to town a plenty, the same as some of us are becoming guests elsewhere. From North, East, South and West they arrive at times, but lately, the majority of our out of town guests come from the northern direction. So let's start as far North as we can, and work South. Mrs. James W. Chapman, 3rd, of Sandy Point, Maine motored, from there with a friend as far as Baltimore this week, and is now the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Simpers. Mrs. Chapman, expects to remain until the latter part of next week. And as most guests to town, she has been frequently entertained during her visit, so far. Then from Leonia, New Jersey last week end, came Mrs. John A. Trope, and her daughter, Miss Florence Trope with Rev. Mr. De Priest, who were guests of Mrs. Joseph Archbell at the home of Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr. Misses Elizabeth Brown and Dorothy Quarles, of Bryn Mawr were week end guests of Mrs. H. Clay Brown. That brings us down to Baltimore, and for the week end, Miss Leonora Harris Springer was a guest of friends and relatives here. Miss Helen Link, of Baltimore is now the guest of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper.

From Washington came Mr. and Mrs. E. Dumont Lambert who visited relatives in town over the week end, while from Clarendon, Va., Mrs. John Bateman, and Mrs. H. K. Morrison, of Baltimore, came as guests of Mrs. Chaplain Willis.

Mrs. James G. Beck was in town Monday and Tuesday, and is expected to return either today or Monday with Mr. Beck, and once again the long darkened home, will be re-lighted extending its cordial hospitality as of yore.

Mrs. Mary B. Roberts is at the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia, where she is under-going treatment. The length of her stay there is so far undetermined, but we hope to see her with us soon again, much improved. We are glad to welcome Mr. Foster S. Brown, who has been under treatment in a Baltimore hospital, back to our community.

Now let me see who's been running away from home. Mr. Thomas Kibler attended the reunion of officers of the 2nd division in New York last Friday, and to Philadelphia or suburbs, went Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barroll, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, Jr., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire as a week end guest of friends. Enroute to the wedding of Mr. Westcott's niece in Stamford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Westcott and daughter, Helen, spent several days in Mountain Lakes, New Jersey, and New Rochelle, New York, visiting friends.

Mrs. Wilbur Gill, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, left with Mrs. Rogers, on Wednesday, visiting relatives and friends for several days in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter U. Lusby left this week for a two weeks visit to Salisbury wher they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis. The little Davis boy will go to the hospital for an operation while his grandparents are there.

Mrs. Carolene Ellett has returned after spending two weeks at the home of her brother in law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. E. H. Bowers, of West Point, New York.

But I have saved the best till last. You probably have noted many times in my letter among our out of town visitors was the name of Mr. John Kiskadden. Well that gentleman was here on business. And this was his business: Mr. Horace Beck has announced the approaching marriage of his daughter, Catherine, to Mr. John McCauley Kiskadden, who is living in Washington, but whose home is in Tiffin, Ohio. The wedding will take place on Thursday, May 30th. I will tell you more definitely later of detailed plans. The future Mr. and Mrs. Kiskadden will make their home in Alexandria, as Mr. Kiskadden is with The Securities and Exchange Commission. Kitty, as she is known to her friends, will be a great loss to our community, as her home has always been a center of much entertainment, and many have enjoyed its hospitality. However we extend our heartiest congratulations and best wishes to them both.

Now hold on just a minute more. There will be two weddings that week. On Saturday, June first at 4 o'clock, Miss Mary Meigs Ingersoll will become the bride of Mr. Eben Clarke Jenkins at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church. Only a few formal invitations will be issued, although I heard Mary say that everyone was welcome to attend. The bride will wear her mother s wedding dress and have a veil. Her only attendant will be her sister in law, Mrs. Stanley Jenkins, while the groom's brother, Mr. Jenkins, will be the best man. After the wedding just a few close friends of the young couple will attend a small reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll. The future bride and groom will make their home in Hyattsville.

So now, with wedding bells in the air once more, I better go look at my penny box.

Yours counting,
THE WANDERER.

AKERS—THOMAS

Miss Clarice E. Akers ,daughter of Mrs. Pearl Akers and the late Clarence Akers, and Joshua Thomas, son of Charles Thomas, were married Saturday evening, May fourth, 1935, by the Rev. Conrad Hamer at his home, the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Rock Hall. They were accompanied by the bride's cousin, Miss Lorraine Coleman, and the groom's brother, Walter Thomas.

MAYOR AND COUNGIL MEET

STREETS TO BE OILED, HUCKSTER MARKET NEAR COURT HOUSE AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS

Mayor Philip G. Wilmer budget was adopted at the meeting of Mayor and Council on Monday night. Estimated receipts for the coming year were put at $19,500.

One much needed thing the town has needed is a huskster market. This was approved and it was decided to locate it near the Court House on Cross street.

The rent for stalls in this market was put at $5.00 annually or $1.00 daily.

10,000 gallons of oil will be bought for oiling the streets.

A drain pipe will be placed in front of the colored High School.

A new street light will be placed on Kent Street near Washington Ave.

John S. Vandegrift was refused permission to erect a news stand on High Street near the First National Bank.

Matters discussed but on which no action was taken was the town erecting wooden steps for the houses on Philosopher's Terrace and the purchase of time clocks for the policemen.

ADDRESSES ROTARIANS MONDAY

The need of service organizations during these times of depression and the danger of Commission growing by the country unless stopped by cooperation of American citizens, were the principal topics of the address before the Rotary Club Monday night by Dr. Lester Merritt. Rotarians from five clubs attended the meeting.

LARGE TOMATO ACREAGE PREDICTED

Present indications point to a large tomato acreage in Kent County if present plans materalize.

Farmers started this week setting out southern grown plants for the early tomato market and in the vicinity of Rock Hall contracts have been signed which expire the latter part of August. The contract price is reported to be 20 cents a basket.

Present indications are that there will be a large acreage grown for the open market. The predicted large acreage is based on the shortage of the tomatos packed now on hand.

TRACK MEET HERE FRIDAY

Washington College held its first track meet for a number of years on Kibler Field Friday afternoon. Susquehanna was the opponents.

Gibby Young who made such a record at Delaware two weeks ago is expected to star for Washington.

PRO FOR COUNTRY CLUB

David Sandrow, Philadelphia golf professional, has arranged to be at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club two days each week for the purpose of giving golf instruction.

WILL DISCUSS WATER POLLUTION

ANNUAL DELAWARE AND MARYLAND MEETING

Prevention of water pollution, comprehensive planning for water supply and sewerage systems, and other engineering problems of special concern to state, city and county departments of health, will be discussed at the Ninth Annual Conference of the Maryland-Delaware Water and Sewerage Association, which will be held at the State House, Annapolis, Thursday and Friday, May 16 and 17. Governor Nice will be the guest of honor at the annual banquet which will be held at Carvel Hall, Thursday evening.

In addition to hae conference sessions, visits of inspection will be made to the U. S. Naval Experiment Station; to the natatoria at the Naval Academy for the purpose of observing the operation of the methods of filtration, the violet ray and chlorine equipment; to the power plant and the Marine Engineering Department of the Academy. Visits will also be made to the Annapolis garbage incinerator, the water filtration plant and to the construction projects of the Annapolis Metropolitan Sewerage Commission.

Plans are practically complete for the Spring Flower Mart and Garden Party which is to be held at the Chestertown Armory, May 16 and 17.

30 boothes have been rented to nursery men, Garden Clubs, Auxilliaries, Manufacturers, etc., Everything will be sold at these booths for house and gardens.
