STOLEN HARMONY

Ben Bernie and Grace Bradley get together in a scene from Paramount's 'Stolen Harmony,' coming on Wednesday and Thursday, May 22 and 23 to the New Lyceum Theatre. George Raft is the dancing star of the film.

'Clive of India,' Darryl F. Zanuck's first million-dollar production for 20th Century Pictures, comes to the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, May 20 and 21 with Ronald Colman starred in the title role.

Richard Boleslawski was borrowed from M-G-M to direct this powerful drama, which W. P. Lipscomb and R. J. Minney came all the way from England to Hollywood to adapt for the screen from their stage hit of the same name which ran over a year in London.

The story, which traces the rise of Robert Clive from a $25 a year clerk in the East India Company to the conqueror of a nation, stresses the private life of England's greatest hero and the part his lovely wife played in his triumphs and defeats.

Loretta Young is cast as the wife, Lady Clive, while Colin Clive, Francis Lister, C. Aubrey Smith and Cesar Romero are prominent among the seventy-two principals in this Joseph M. Schenck presentation. Others who play important roles are Montague Love, Lumsden Hare, Ferdinand Munier, Gilbert Emery, Etienne Girardot, Robert Greig, Ian Wolf, Mischa Auer, Ferdinand Gottschalk, Wyndham Standing and Doris Lloyd. 'Clive of India' is released through United Artists.

Ben Bernie, cigar, fiddle, salutation and all together with his ubiquitous ads returns to the films to share starring honors with George Rafte in Paramount's 'Stolen Harmony,' coming on Wednesday and Thursday, May 22 and 23 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

In the picture, Bernie acts a character much like himself in real life. He is a band leader who takes his lads and lassies on a show tour of the country in a large and commodious bus.

George Raft, an ex-convict who is trying to go straight via a saxaphone and dancing turn, is in his company. Money is stolen during the tour and all evidence points to Raft as the guilty party.

But Raft ignores their suspicious because he has fallen in love with his dancing partner, Grace Bradley, and is determined to see it through for her sake.

Raft's big chance comes when the entire troupe is kidnapped by a desperate gang of outlaws. Raft, at the risk of his life, saves the troupe, vindicates himself and wins the girl, bringing the picture to its dramatic close.

'Stolen Harmony' was directed by Alfred Werker and features a musical score by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel.

Spring's balmy breezes make balmy the characters of 'Spring Tonic', the farcical Fox Film comedy coming to the New Lyceum a part of a double feature show on Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25.

The elements of this merry piling up of escapades are a tiger on the loose, a goofy newspaper reporter, a guitar-playing Romeo, a bored heiress who bolts her wedding rehearsal, and a conventional gilded youth ignorant of the first principles of love-making.

Lew Ayres plays the inexpert sweetheart who accidentally gets a post-graduate course in courtship while watching Walter King, as the torrid troubadour, croon himself into a girl's heart.

Claire Trevor is the heiress hot-footing it for romance. ZaSu Pitts is her maid-in-waiting—and trouble. Jack Haley, eccentric funster, enacts the scandal-sniffing reporter; exotic Tala Birell the tiger tamer, Siegfried Rumann a hotel guard, and the comedy team of Mitchell and Durant, a couple of moonshiners never still.

From all accounts, 'Spring Tonic' is rollicking. It features, besides its excitement and fun, a song, 'Tonight There's A Spell On The Moon,' sung by Walter King.

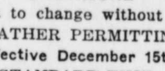

It is reported that Claire Trevor, after a series of serious pictures, cuts loose in 'Spring Tonic,' blows off steam, and romps blithely through the laughable comedy.

This Robert T. Kane production, which Clyde Bruckman directed, is based on the successful stage farce by Ben Hecht and Rose Caylor.

With ilts eight famous funmakers, 'Spring Tonic' has been caleld 'the season's merriest frolic.'

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

Do you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination; backache, headache, dizziness, swollen feet and ankles? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly, for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.
