CIRCUS COMING

MIGHTY RINGLING BROS. AND BARNUM & BAILEY COMBINED ORGANIZATIONS OFFER AMONG VAST HOSTS OF NEW FEATURES COL. TIM McCOY, SCREEN'S GREAT WESTERN STAR, HIS INDIAN VILLAGE AND MARY, THE TARZAN RHINOCEROS.

With one hundred double-length, silver-hued railroad cars, bearing 1600 people, seven herds of elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses, the Ringling Bros., and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus will arrive in Baltimore, May 22 and 23, for afternoon and night exhibitions.

The big top, seating 16,000 persons, covers seven rings and stages, a huge hippodrome track and incircling grandstands, and is one of 31 great tents, among them the menagerie, sheltering the world's largest traveling zoo. In its center this season will be seen Col. Tim McCoy's Indian Village, with Sioux, Crow, Shawnee and Araphoe warriors encamped. Col. McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, will himself lead his congress of rough riders of the world in the main performances and in the wild west.

The Greatest Show on Earth offers scores of foreign features new to America this year, including a Saharan racing caravan of acrobatic liberty camels and Touregs; a Moroccan sixty-horse liberty act; the largest aerial ballet ever produced, headed by the Annetta and Nelleta troupes of revolving flyers, the ennies and the Lydies. Fresh from Europe are the Walkmirs, the Antaleks, the Buemrangs, the Romeos, the Maschinos, the Demenatis, the Willos, the Torrence-Dolores, Lauries, the Polis, the Rooneys, aerial novelty sensations. The Loyal-Repenskis, the Rieffenachs, the Walters, famous bareback riding troupes; the two Guice aerial comedy troupes on the lofty bars; the two renowned Wallenda troupes of high wire thrillers; the Otaris, who fly in mass somersaults from an aerial cross; the Flying Concellos, with Antoinette, only girl to accomplish a two and a half mid air somersault to a hand to hand catch; the Flying Comets; the great Con Colleano, only artist ever to achieve a forward somersault on the tight wire; Dorothy Herbert, madcap rider of reinless jumping horses over fire hurdles, and Hugo and Marlo, human projectiles, who are fired at the same instant from the mouth of a giant cannon across the upper reaches of the big top—these are some of the most prominent features of the superb 1935 Ringling Bros., and Barnum & Bailey program, to say nothing of Mary, the famed rhinoceros of the Tarzan Motion picture, which is a newcomer to the rhino colony in the vast menagerie.
