

COING TO TOWN

It's an exciting contest between Paul Cavanagh and Ivan Lebedeff for Mae West's love in Paramount's 'Goin' to Town.' The picture comes on Monday and Tuesday, June 10 and 11 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

Now that Mae West has an idea of what film marriages are like, she's going for them in whole-sale quantities.

Mae West's recent picture, 'Belle of the Nineties,' closed with her marriage to Roger Pryor. But her new picture, 'Goin' to Town,' opens with a marriage and provides for two more before she gets the man she wanted all the time.

In 'Goin' to Town,' which comes on Monday and Tuesday, June 10 and 11 to the New Lyceum Theatre, Fred Kohler, Sr., is Mae West's first victim. Owner of cattle millions, he marries her, meets a quick demise and leaves the millions to her to spend.

But the lovely cattle widow has her eyes on a handsome young Englishman whom she determined to land, and she follows him to Buenos Aires where the big races are being held.

Her luck with the horses is good, but her luck with the Englishman, Paul Cavanagh, not so good. In order to acquire the social poise he seems to demand, she marries again. This time to an impoverished young society man, Monroe Owsley, who takes her home to his mansion at Southampton.

Her second husband is a wastrel, and there are any number of fortune hunters hanging around. So it's a merry, merry chase until Paul Cavanagh turns up to claim the girl he had loved all the time.

Ivan Iebedeff, Tito Coral, Gilbert Emery and Grant Withers are the other men in Mae West's life in 'Goin' to Town,' which was directed by Alexander Hall.

For the first time in her sensational career on the screen, Katharine Hepburn, dynamic film star, comes to audiences in a throbbing love story that parallels the great romances of history and fiction. 'Break of Hearts' has a powerful, inspiring story of love and self-sacrificing devotion.

Set to an exciting tempo, reflecting all the color and smartness of New York and Continental Europe, the story is primarily a great romantic saga that grips one with its poignancy and beauty.

'Break of Hearts' is said to give the star a role that thoroughly fits her complex personality. It has the witchery o flight comedy that won her the Academy award in 'Morning Glory.' It has the humanness that characterized her portrayal of Jo in 'Little Women.' To hese have been added the glamorous beauty that was revealed in 'The Little Minister,' only this time it is clothed in ultra-smart gowns instead of Romany costume.

Charles Boyer is co-starred with Miss Hepburn in this RKO Radio Picture, his role being that of an eminent symphony orchestra conductor whose romance with an aspiring girl musician provides the plot.

'Break of Hearts,' will play at the New Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, June 12 and 13.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

When the shadows of misunderstanding fall over the lives of her parents, Shirley Temple turns, in her new Fox Film Production, "Our Little Girl," to her pet Scottie for comfort. Shirley sings and dances as well as acts in this emotional story. 2 PA.

Everybody's happy in the Shirley Temple home, or rather in the home where Shirley's the sensational but unspoiled baby.

The six-year old child star, whose next picture, 'Our Little Girl' comes on Friday and Saturday, June 14 and 15 to the New Lyceum Theatre, is having a grand time at the Fox Movietone lot, and considers work as play.

The whole family is happy—who wouldn't be under the circumstances?

Mrs. Temple still belongs to the same organizations she did before Shirley became noted. She has the same good friends and neighbors.

Daddy Temple stil holds hs job at the bank, where business is booming because of Shirley.

Mrs. Temple receives a nice big salary for looking after Shirley at the Fox studio, and the child's money is being put aside in a trust fund, so she will be rich when she grows up.

'Our Little Girl,' an Edward Butcher production directed by John Robertson, is based on Florence Leighton Pfalzgraf's story, selected from hundreds. In this appealing picture, well heralded in advance reports from other other cities, Shirley acts and sings.

The supporting cast is made up of Rosemary Ames, Joel McCrea, Lyle Talbot, Erin O'Brien-Moore, Jack Donohue, Poodles Hanneford, Gus Van, Margaret Armstrong, Rita Owin, Leonard Carey, J. Farrell Macdonald and Jack Baxley.

McCormick-Deering New 4

World'a Most Popular Riding Cultivator

A SLIGHT pressure on one of the pedals of the New 4 pivots the wheels and shifts the gangs at the same time—giving double-quick action in dodging plants or hills out of line.

The New 4 is a "balance frame" cultivator. When the gangs are raised by the master lever which is provided, the frame moves forward, balancing the cultivator and the driver nicely.

The thorough success of the McCormick-Deeaing New 4 has undoubtedly made the largest selling riding cultivator in the world. We will be glad to show it to you. We also have McCormick-Deering Cultivators in 2-row sizes and in types for use with the Farmall tractor.
