GARDEN CLUB HOLDS FLOWER EXHIBIT

ENTERTAINED BY MRS. WM. T. DIXON

The Chestertown Garden Club had a combination program arranged when it held its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon at Green Point Farm. During the first half of the meeting members were entertained by a talk on the Conservation of Trees given by Mrs. Alice Dorsey, who spoke the night before at the Rotary Club. Following the talk, tea and cakes were served after which, the club proceeded to the lawn in the rear of the house overlooking Worton Creek where the classes of flowers which each member had brought, and viewed the display to find out whose exhibits had been awarded prizes. The flowers were judged, while the ladies were indoors, by Mrs. Edward Wright and Mrs. Ridgely Simpson, of Baltimore. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Simpson are qualified judges of the Federated Garden Clubs of Maryland.

The classes were as follows:

Class I Specimen rose.

Class II Specimen delphinium.

Class III Artistic Arrangement of Perennials.

Class IV Artistic arrangement of Annuals.

There were twenty-five entries and a prize was given to the one having the greatest number of points, commonly known as the Sweepstake prize, which Mrs. J. D. Maxwell won, as well prizes for those receiving the blue ribbon in each class.

Class I Specimen rose.

Mrs. John Speicher, blue ribbon.

Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, red ribbon.

Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, yellow ribbon.

Mrs. H. C. Brown, honorable mention.

Class II Specimen Delphinium.

Wm. T. Elliott, blue ribbon.

Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines, red ribbon.

Mrs. Thomas Kibler, yellow ribbon.

Class III Arrangement of Perennials.

Mrs. T. D. Maxwell, blue ribbon.

Mrs. Thos. Kibler, red ribbon.

Mrs. Simon Westcott, yellow ribbon.

Mrs. Chas. Atwater, Honorable mention.

Class IV Arrangement of Annuals.

Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, blue ribbon.

Mrs. Howard Strong, red ribbon.

Each member of the Garden Club who entertains its members is responsible for the program of the day, and Mrs. Dixon is to be congratulated in not only securing Mrs. Dorsey to speak but in the novel idea of this miniature flower show which naturally encourages interest and enthusiasm among its group. The day was voted a huge success.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
