The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Last week end was perfect as far as the yachtsmen were concerned. Their dinner at the Country Club came off in fine style, and on Sunday the sailing races drew crowds to the pier where they watched the little white winged ships sail the waters of the good old Chester. At the same time the Golf team from Preston was here playing our boys, and with them, many of the wives of the players. So the porches of the Club were filled and plenty of activity afoot. This Sunday will probably be a sharp contrast, as there are no races and the Chestertown golfers will go to Easton to fight their battle.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, who will return today from Philadelphia, where she has been playing in the tennis tournaments at the Merion Cricket Club, won her match in the doubles on Tuesday.

Little Betty Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, and Jack Kibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler left today to spend the summer at Camp Red Wing and Camp Red Cloud, respectively. These camps are in upper New York State and quite ideal for the young folks vacation.

Alvin E. Coleman, Jr., son of Assistant Postmaster and Mrs. A. E. Coleman who spent first 2 weeks of vacation in Virginia returned home last Monday and left Wednesday for Camp Pike, Pike County, Pa., where his uncle, Prof. A. O. Stone, of Annapolis, Md., and Rutherford, N. J., is camp director.

Dr. Esther M. Dole also leaves today for Alfred University, N. Y., where she will teach at summer school. Dr. Clarke Fontaine left this week for College Park, where he, also, will teach summer school at the University of Maryland.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Harrison Cooke returned to town and on Wednesday she and Mrs. A. T. H. Harper, motored to Elizabeth, N. J. Mrs. Harper's trip last week was deterred due to illness, but fortunately, she is now much improved.

Likewise on Tuesday, Mrs. Herbert Perkins, Mrs. Medford Brooks, and Mrs. Claude Truslow left for Philadelphia where they joined Mrs. Ethel Bodine and with her, went to Mrs. Bodine's cottage at Ocean City, N. J., where they will remain a few days.

Mrs. Mason Morfitt and Miss Louise Morfitt, of Baltimore, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harris. On their return to the city, they were accompanied by Mrs. Harris who will remain a few days there as their guest.

Most all of the school and college crowd have at last come home, and about the last to reach here are Miss Bessie Dixon who has been attending St. Timothy's School, Catonsville, and Miss Dorothy Vickers, a student at Smith. Miss Vickers has been attending the final exercises at Yale and visiting in New York and Philadelphia, since Smith closed, hence, her delay.

Mrs. Charles Comegys has opened her cottage at the Cliffs where she will spend most of the summer.

Little has been going on in the way of entertaining, and outside of a dinner party which Mrs. Frank B. Hines gave on Monday evening in honor of the Doctor's birthday and a luncheon which Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines gave on Wednesday in honor of Mr. Hines's mother, Mrs. Hines, who is their guest this week, all has been 'quiet on the Eastern front.' This week end, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, will be additional guests at Riverside.

Word comes that Miss Ellen Fisher who was expected here for the summer, will not be with us, due to a change of plans. However, Miss Nelie Walker has come, but at present is in Bel Air, having been called there owing to the death of her cousin, Miss Archer, whom she frequently visited while in the East.

Miss Mamie Carroll is spending the summer in Baltimore with her sister, Miss Louise Carroll, and others who have left us for July and August are Miss Nellie Walters who has gone to Pocomoke City, and Mrs. Harry Klinefelter, who has taken a cottage at Rehebeth Beach, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harry Schreiber and son, of Columbus, Onio, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schreiber, here, while Miss Clara Usilton has as her guest her uncle, Mr. S. Murray Frazier, of Philadlephia. Dr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Whiting and their little son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford so all the grand mothers and grandfathers about town are probably telling one another whose baby can do the most unusual things for a child of its age. Have you ever heard fond grand parents get started? Well, I have.

By this time next week, the grand and glorious 4th will be a thing of the past, but before it is, we have a perfectly swell party to anticipate. A beach party with refreshments furnished by the Club, and a dance following at the Club house is the program listed by the entertainment committee of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, for that date. So if my letter is unusually poor next week, pray forgive, and know I am in a state of recuperation from so much unusual excitement.

Quite a crowd heard a very interesting talk given by Miss Dorothy Biddle, editor of 'Garden Digest' out at the Maxwells on Friday. This was followed by a barbecue supper, for the benefit of the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. All lovers of barbecued lamb, suckling pig, baked beans, etc., had their full share.

And now lastly, to weddings I turn once more. Today, I shall tell you of one of the romances I had in mind some weeks ago. On Tuesday afternoon at St. James Parsonage, Miss I. Blanche Smyth, of Fairlee, and Mr. C. Romie Skirven were married by the Rev. J. Lee Marker. Mr. and Ms. Skirven will reside at the Skirven home, Fairlee.

Announcements were received this week of the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Brice, daughter of State Senator and Mrs. Arthur H. Brice and Mr. Richard M. Gamber, of Baltimore. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gamber are graduates of Washington College where they were immensely popular. They will make their home in Baltimore where Mr. Gamber is employed in a Federal capacity.

But there, that's two weddings, so hold on a little longer, and you may soon have all of my secret, on that subject anyway. Of course I have to have a few more surprises in the bag, but I'll save them for cold weather.

Yours for the Present,
THE WANDERER

The Yacht Club banquet held last Saturday night by the Chester River Yacht and Country Club was a grand, and glorious affair. Ladies of the club served the banquet and the aprons were decorated with the club pennant.

The races on Sunday also went off in fine style. Thursday night of this week Doc. Sterling was presented with the Crowing Cock pennant. It is a red cock on a white back ground. Doc will fly this on his boat until somebody trims him and then they have the honors.

Doc's boat last Sunday seemed to have just the right amount of sail. The race was a dead beat from start to finish and while the others were spilling wind out of their sails Doc with Capt. Bland at the helm was sailing along. Some of the boys are hoping that with a different wind they can trim Doc in the Rexall.

The Rexall is a Crisfield skip-jack and is more or less a mongrel dog in the boat racing game. Sunday she showed the pure-breds, the Barnegats, Scrips, etc., how to go to town. Handicapped on time she came through without any danger in both races.

He should get a medal. Joe Evans, of Kent Island has found out that Gov. Nice played politics in appointing the Conservation Commission. Yes sir, the fellow found out politicians play politics. Harry Nice has been at the game a long while.

Attendance at the Betterton Casino dances have been a great surprise. Usually the early season attendance is not quite up to the mark. This year however the early season business has been very good.

David McMenamin is hoping that the boys who broke three front window panes in his Washington Avenue home Thursday, receive due parental attention.

Billy Usilton, Young Scott Beck and Walter Morris represented Kent County at a young Democrats meeting at Easton last night. Some body is evidently getting things lined up for the fall of 1936. It was understood that Mayor Jackson, of Baltimore, was to speak.

HOLD CRAB CONFERENCE ON SHORE

The first crab conference to be held in Maryland was held at Salisbury Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The entire industry along the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia was invited to attend.

'We are meeting,' said Mr. Harris, 'to save the crab industry. The decreasing supply of crabs threatens to destroy this important industry and cause unemployment among thousands of people. It will wipe out an annual income to Marylanders which amounted to $701,784 in 1931 when there was an abundant supply of crabs.'

Senator Tydings has a bill before Congress which will prohibit the taking of sponge crabs and place the regulation and enforcement of this bill in the hands of the U. S. Department of Commerce. If this bill is passed by Congress it will restore the supply of crabs in the Chesapeake Bay and save the industry.

The purpose of the Crab Conference was to make a determined fight for this measure and to organize the entire seafood industry to conserve and develop the fisheries of the bay.

DEAR YOU:

I just had to write you. I at last got one of those Genuine Frederick Permanents I've heard you talk so much about and I'm simply delighted. So many Permanents look straggly in the summer but mine seems to get softer and lovelier. Another reason I'm so enthusiastic is because my Frederick Wave is so easy to set after every swim. I can never thank you enough for suggesting it.

Love,
LOU
