The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Whew! Well, it's over, that grand and glorious 4th of July and it came off with a bang, both literally and figuratively speaking. Of course there were small family parties here and there everywhere, all during the day, to celebrate our independance, if we have any left, but the topping of the day was the picnic (to be stylish I should say beach party) at the Country Club followed by the informal dance. Of course you saw everybody, and everybody was as happy and gay as the day demanded. The quantities of fried chicken, ham, rolls, cake and other good things that make my mouth still water at the thought, that were consumed, certainly were in most plentiful evidence. The dance was enjoyed by old and young, and so Amen to the nationally proclaimed Day.

Due to the fact that I was away I missed a delightful party on Wednesday at the new Lotus Inn which is to be run by Mrs. Isaac Dixon and Mrs. Sophie Fisher. Cards were issued for luncheon to quite a few ladies in town, and I've heard the place as well as the luncheon was most attractive and inviting. There are simply lovely lily ponds about the grounds, and each guest on leaving was presented with a number of water lillies. I went to go down soon for luncheon or supper and then I can tell you still more about this new addition to the County.

The younger folks are fast leaving for camp. Quite a crowd have gone to Camp Wright where Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers will be one of the counsellors. Among the little girls who have gone are: Jane Brooks, Helen Culver, Mary Ellen Chairs, Jean Cooper and Helen Westcott. Attractive Lucille Rasin has gone farther away, to the mountains of North Carolina, to be a counsellor at a camp until September.

Harriett Louisa had three young ladies from Baltimore last week end as her guests the Misses Frances, Adrienne and Natalie Webb. You'll remember, Adrienne was a debutante in that city last winter, and Frances came out the winter before.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Derringer, of Yorktown, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine son, born last Saturday night. Harry and Mabel have visited here frequently in the last year, as the guest of Harry's mother, Mrs. Alice Derringer.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Alice Wilmer is at the Bon Secour Hospital in Baltimore, but hope that she will soon be much improved, and her return to her home here be in the near future. Her niece, Mrs. Donald Stam has been with her in Baltimore, frequently.

Now, let me turn to visitors in town, and there's long list of them, so prepare. Here goes:

Mr. James Bacchus, of New York, has come to spend the month of July with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Miss Mary Woodland Westcott is entertaining a house party of young people who were here for the 4th and are remaining over the week end. The party includes Miss Betty Wysong, of Port Washington, L. I., and Miss Elizabeth McGeorge, of Gettysburg, Pa., Miss Sophie Schaeffer, of Westfield, N. J., of the Fair Sex, while, Messrs. Tom Dukehart, John Shure, of Baltimore, and Charles Schaffer, of Westfield, N. J., lend the masculine interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer and family, of Westfield, N. J., have come to Woodlawn Hall, near Kennedyville, to spend the summer.

Mrs. S. E. Comegys and Mr. and Morton Dukehart, of Baltimore, are holiday and week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey.

Mr. John Alrichs, of Harrisburg, Pa., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Derringer.

Little Peggy Lane, of Newbern, N. C., is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jack Stenger.

Mr. and Mrs. James Springer and their daughter, Miss Leonora Harris Springer, of Baltimore, came last week end and remained over the 4th at guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoovens, of Lansdowne, Pa., are week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarman, of Baltimore, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell.

Miss Elizabeth Perkins and Miss Marjorie Wills, of Baltimore, are week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Miss Charlotte Jane Curry, of New York, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Massey Hines.

So that about winds up the long string of visitors and the only one at the moment whom I can remember who has gone a tripping is Mrs. Charles Humphreys, Mrs. Humphreys has gone to Boston by boat, and will be away three weeks.

But I apologized last week for today, so au revoir.

Merely yours,
THE WANDERER.

Miss Myrtle F. Townsend daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Townsend, of Kent County, was married Saturday, June 22 at 6 p. m. in the Church Around the Corner, New York City, to Mr. Wendal V. Rsos from Stanford Connecticut, they are now living at 166 E. 73rd St. New York City.

MURDER SUSPECT STILL AT LARGE

nothing except saw the crowd gather.

Pauline Lint. Heard the music stop, saw the crowd gather. Heard Mrs. Terry yell 'oh Terry, oh Terry.' Heard Tom Hickman yell 'Catch Him.' Screen to back door has been ripped.

Frank Hogans talked to Terry that night. According to his testimony Kelley and his wife were dancing when the man asked Mrs. Terry to dance. Mrs. Terry said, 'I am dancing with my husband.' The man said, 'Oaky Doak,' and went to the bar. The Terrys went on dancing and when they stopped they were about 4 feet from the man. Two went together Tom Hickman knocked the man down that did the stabbing.

Lee Townshend, Kelley was perfectly sober. Heard Tom Hickman yell, 'Keep him down, the man stabbed a man. Saw Kelley laying on the floor and left immediately.

Olin Burroughs. (This was the first witness that seemed to have a clear idea of what happened.) Mr. Burroughs has known Terry for 3 years and saw him for the first time that night around 9 o'clock. Terry was perfectly sober and had been dancing with Mrs. Terry. He saw the man walk over to Mrs. Terry who was sitting between her brother, Dudley Everett and her husband. Saw Dudley jump up and saw Tom Hickman grab him and make him sit down. The man backed up to the bar about 8 feet away. Saw Terry walk over to man and said, 'Fellow, be careful how you insult another man's wife.' Terry made no threatening move. The man struck Terry. Terry turned opened his coat and said, 'Tom that man stabbed me and stabbed me bad.' Tom Hickman knocked the man down. Another man hit at Hickman and he Burroughs) struck the man that hit at Hickman. (Testimony was interrupted at this point by the arrival of the police with Pruitt, suspected of the crime.) Burroughs saw no knife and did not see how the man got out.

Thomas Hickman. Interest was around when he saw Dudley Everett and the man having argument. He made Dudley sit down turned around and saw man hit Terry. Terry opened coat and showed the wound saying, 'That man stabbed me.' Terry's wife was fighting with the man and he (Hickman) knocked the man down but could not hold him as someone was pulling him off.

This was the last witness called.

The Coroners jury brought in a verdict Terry came to his death by stabbing at the hands of Charles Pruitt.

According to reports the story of Mrs. Terry and her brother who were not at the inquest is as follows:

The stranger walked over to Mrs. Terry and asked her to dance. She refused and the man said, 'Well, what in the hell are you up here for then.' man stepped in between Mrs. Terry The brother Dudley said, 'you ought to be carefully in assaulting other men's wife's' then the man slapped Dudley on the side of the face then Dudley jumed up and hit him and the man was put out. Mrs. Terry at that wanted to go home. Kelley walked over to the bar to get a beer when the man came in and stabbed him and Kelley turned to his wife and said, 'That man stabbed me,' and Mrs. Terry grabbed him by the neck tie and he through up his hand and she saw the knife then Tom Hickman struck him and knocked him down and Mrs. Terry jumped on top of him and stomped him. Mrs. Terry looked around just in time to see her husband fall to the floor dead, then she went to his side and the rest of the people flocked to Kelly and the man got away.

Sheriff Bennett with the assistance of the State Police arrested Luther, Alvin, Newton and Woodrow Downs, of Burrisville, Queen Anne's County, whom Ellis was visiting. Questioning them authorities found that the Downs boys found Ellis hiding in a hay field on the farm of Mr. McMahan at 1 a. m. Sunday morning, took him to their home and then to his home in Chester. Spencer Warner, or Sudlersville, who was with the Downs boys is also in jail.

Local authorities, with the cooperation of the State Police and Chester Police have been combing Chester for Ellis without much success. His father and mother were arrested and are in the Chester jail held as witnesses.

Further developments following the verdict of the Coroner's Jury, have practically exonerated William Pruitt although he is being held for the Magistrate's hearing. Pruitt is out on bail on a liquor charge resulting from the recent raid on a still near Massey.

Friday morning Ellis's automobile was found at Marcus Hook which gave additional clues as to his where abouts but at the time of going to press he had not been found.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD

Funeral services for Kelley C. Terry aged 30 were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Litsinger of the M. P. Church preached the funeral. Interment was in Chester cemetery.

Besides his widow, formerly Miss Glayd's Everett of this town he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Walter Terry, of Aulander, N. C. Four brothers, Richard C., Jake, James, Walter McCoy all of Aulander. Five sisters, Mrs. Annie Minton, Mrs. Mary Rogers, Miss Hazel Terry, of Aulander, Mrs. Bertie Register and Mrs. Nora Godfrey, of Rock ounty, N. C.

Bearers for the deceased were: Augustus Register and Wm. Terry, of North Carolina, Wm. Bennett, Harry Patrick, Wm. Goodman and J. S. McKinzie, of Chestertown.

Mr. Terry was for 3 years with the James Adams Floating Theatre. Coming to Chestertown about 6 years ago he married Miss Gladys Everett, daughter of Mr. James Everett, of Chestertown. Since living here he had employment with the C. & P. Telephone Co., the Spencer, Prentis, White Construction Co. when the Chester River Bridge was built and had employment with Mr. Pyle, contractor at the time of his death.

DEAR YOU:

I just had to write you. I at last got one of those Genuine Frederick Permanents I've heard you talk so much about and I'm simply delighted. So many Permanents look straggly in the summer but mine seems to get softer and lovelier. Another reason I'm so enthusiastic is because my Frederick Wave is so easy to set after every swim. I can never thank you enough for suggesting it.

Love,
LOU
