The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

My. thermometer, at this present moment registers 91 degrees and yet out of sheer love for you, I take my pen in hand to endeavor to write an interesting letter. Should I fail, and such is likely to be the case, just read this paragraph before laying down the paper, and giving a grunt, sparing the words. "Not much this week."

Now with a good alibi prefaced, I'll proceed, and call the topic of the day, "Guests in town." Chestertown is apparently a grand place to visit, especially in summer and to give a Q. E.D. to this, just glance at the little items I've gathered here and there.

Mr. Baker Shelton, of New York, is visiting Mr. Walter T. Morris, Jr.

Mr. Eric Wood, also of New York, is spending his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, 3rd.

Mrs. William T. Matthews and daughter, Miss Lillian Matthews, of Baltmore, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Jr., of Kennedyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. D. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilkinson and Mrs. Higgins, of Baltimore, have been guests this past week of Mr. John W. Barnes, who celebrated his 79th birthday on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson and daughter, of Blackfoot, Idaho, are guests of Messrs. Fred and Argus Robinson. This is Mr. Robinson's first trip back to Chestertown since he left for Idaho 16 years ago. They were accompanied by Mr. Frank S. Robinson on their motor trip here.

Lieut. and Mrs. Reybold, of Memphis, Tenn. are guests of Mr. John Lord, at the Voshell House.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins and little daughter, Jacqueline, of Cincinatti, Ohio, and Miss Josephine Cockley, of Peru, Ind., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Nora Maxwell, at Worton Manor.

Miss Helen Looney, of Birmingham, Ala., has been the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mead.

Another southern visitor is little Billy Russell, of Birmingham, Ala. who is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, Sr.

Mrs. J. Price and little daughter, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend for a few days.

Mrs. Holmes, of Detroit, Michigan, and her two children are visiting Mrs. Holmes mother, Mrs. Ivers Leonard, at the home of her uncle, Mr. Herbert Hartman.

Miss "Skippy" Anderson, of Short Hills, New Jersey, came yesterday to visit Miss Dorothy Vickers. Miss Anderson, who was a room-mate of Miss Vickers at Smith College this past winter., will have a gay week as quite a few entertainments are being planned for next week in her honor.

Mrs. Will Beck and her daughter, Miss Ellen Beck, of New York, motored here Thursday and will spend most of the summer in Chestertown. They will have an apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck. Mrs. Hal Curry accompanied them and on arrival gave her daughter, Charlotte Jane, quite a happy surprise, as she was not expecting her mother's visit. Mrs. Curry will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, while here. Charlotte Jane is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Massey Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner, of New York, come to-day to spend their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos. Kibler. Mrs. Skinner is Mrs. Kibler's sister.

The younger set who are wide awake, and having a gay summer, attended the first of a series of five dances to be held every two weeks at the Country Club for the Junior members, last Friday evening. Mrs. R. Norris Harrison was hostess. These dances, known as the Cinderella Cotillion, promise to be quite popular and will be quite an attraction, as well as an entertainment for the visiting guests of the young people.

Miss Mary Joe Wheatley, who is visiting in Ithaca, N. Y., mailed her letter home under difficulties, saying that she had to wade through mud and water up to her knees to get to the box to post it.

Miss Lilliam Brown, likewise, wrote of the terrible experiences she is having, due to the flood, at Watkins Glenn, N. Y.

To-day, Mr. and Mrs. Alan A. Harris will leave for a two week's tour of the West, visiting Yellow Stone Park and other places of interest. They will be accompanied by Miss Isabelle Beck of Baltimore, and will visit with Mrs. Alan B. Harris and her two sons in Chicago, both enroute and on return from the Rockies. While Mr. and Mrs. Harris are away, Mrs. Mary B. Roberts will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emory on Lankford Bay.

Hot days to be in the hospital, but some of our friends are there. Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers was rushed to the Easton Hospital last Sunday morning from Camp Wright, where she was a counsellor, and operated on immediately for appendicitis. Miss Rogers is fast improving and we hope to have her with us before long.

At the local hospital, the new surgeon, Dr. Dick, was busy on Thursday with four operations in one morning. Mr. Joseph Walters was one of the patients, Mrs. William Faulkner another, and the other two, I didn't learn their names.

Miss Alice Wilmer has returned to her home here somewhat improved.

But I am sure it must be up to 100 degrees by now, so pray let me go fan, and try to cool off.

Yours for cold weather,
The Wanderer.

Stop! Read! Heed!

YOU KNOW---that there are all grades of beer just as there are all grades of other foods. Realizing this, we have directed our efforts toward finding the beers that are up to the old time standard and WE KNOW that we have found them.

GUNTHER---In this we give you the best that Baltimore has produced—Fine Malt, Hops and the flavor that only comes with proper aging.

BUDWEISER---The same old friend today that it was before prohibition.

HORNUNG---It is with great satisfaction that we are now able to bring to you, through your dealer, HORNUNG [White Bock] Beer, the fine Pennsylvania product which was a Prize Winner in Paris in 1912 and in Atlantic City in 1934.

WE COULD give you an inferior product on which we could make more profit, but the brewers we represent will not tolerate "cut quality," and as nothing but perfection has satisfied us, let nothing less satisfy you. When you ask your dealer for "a bottle of beer" say "GUNTHER," "BUDWDISER," "HORNUNG" and know that you have the best that money can buy.
