NOT NUMEROUS

"What's the definition for thoroughbred?"

"Well raised, with plenty of dough."

EMPHASIS

"What is Todd indignant about?"

"He isn't really indignant about anything. The only way he can make what he says seem important is to act as if he were angry about it."

DRIED UP, EH?

Mr. Bore—I have saved that rose you gave me last month, Miss Wrinkles, and although it is withered it still reminds me of you.

Miss Wrinkles—Sir!

WITH VITAMIN "D"

Waiter—What will you have, sir?

Diner—Oh, bring me an assortment of proteins, fats and carbohydrates—I leave it to you—say about eight hundred calories.

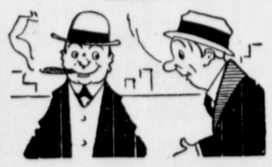

WILD ALRIGHT

"Don't you enjoy listening to the honk of the wild goose?"

"Not when he's driving an automobile."

GOING AND COMING

"For a pessimist, you are quite cheerful."

"I'm what is known as an optimistic pessimist."

GENEROSITY

"Tightwad told his wife to select her own birthday present."

"That was very generous of him."

"And then, he gave her half a dollar to pay for it."

Copenhagen . . . Telephones in Denmark showed a substantial increase last year over 1933, there have been 303,332 in service in 1934 as compared with 297,235 the previous year. Conversations also showed an increase, there having been 571,400,000 as compared with 545,142,000 the previous year. Long distance and inter-island telephone service is supplied by the Danish government. The service in the provincial cities is supplied by private concerns on a concession basis, according to Assistant U. S. Trade Commissioner Paul H. Pearson.
