The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Even though it is hot, let's start off with a punch and talk about the brand new wedding of the week. If you haven't heard by this time, here goes: Dr. . S. William Jones, dean of Washington College, and Mrs. Ethel Fox, librarian at the college, were married in Baltimore on Wednesday, by Rev. Leonard B. Smith, an alumnus of Washington. Miss Louise Russell, of this town, was the only attendant. Following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Jones left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City, where they will remain for about ten days. The bride was attired in a gray gown, with gray hat to match and carried a purple hand bag. The wedding came as a great surprise to many of the town folks as many rumors circulated of budding romances often come to naught, but here's one that just about knocked us off our feet. However, we congratulate them both, and extend our heartiest good wishes for much happiness. While still in a romantic frame of mind you might be interested in knowing of Tom Keating's approaching marriage. Mr. Keating, a native of Centreville, and son of Judge and Mrs. Thos. J. Keating, is well known to all of us here and the fact that he is going over to Glascow, Scotland, to wed a Scottish lassie intrigues this part of the shore. The young lady is Miss Eileen Hope Prosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prosser, of Glascow. The marriage will take place there September 24th, and they will make their home at Green Lots Farm, near Centreville.

Now let's come down to earth and Chestertown. Last week-end Mrs S. Scott Beck entertained as house guests Mrs. Rodney Wilson, of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan, of Baltimore.

Miss Ellen Beck, of New York, who expected to remain the rest of the summer here, changed her plans rather suddenly, and has gone to visit a friend on a ranch in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler and Mr. William B. Usilton, III, will visit Camp Red Cloud, in Northern Pennsylvania, over the week-nd, where young Jack Kibler is attending camp. Mr. Usilton is a former counsellor at Red Cloud.

Mrs. Laurence P. Strong and daughter, Miss Mary Jean, and Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne left Sunday for a visit of two weeks with relatives in Howard County. Mr. Strong will join them over the week-ends.

Mr. Edward Hines has been the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines at Riverside, for the past week.

Mrs. Annie H. Stam, of Washington, D. C. has ben the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr. up until Friday, when she left to spend the rest of the week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Stam.

Rev. and Mrs. Hobart H. Barber, of Augusta, Georgia, came Friday to spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr.

Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Merrill Hildebrandt at Rivera Beach, her summer home, near Baltimore.

Miss Nellie Lockwood, of Philadelphia, has been visiting Miss Minnie Massey at her home on Maple Ave. for the past week.

Mrs. Charles Lowrie, Miss Louise Lowrie, of Evanston, Illinois, and Miss Browne Telfoid, of Richmond, Kentucky, while en route to Vermont have been guests of Mrs. D. W. Ingersol.

Little folks are not to be out done by the grown ups in their talk of operations, for such is now an important topic in their conversations. Little Mollie Hines and Jane Kibler had been informing Dr. Dick for a week that they were "coming up to the hospital to see him." So on Monday, the great day dawned, and both small girls had their adenoids and tonsils removed, much to the admiration of the neighborhood youngsters. No debutante at her first ball could have enjoyed anything more than this looked-forward visit "to the hospital." Both Jane and Mollie are out now, and seemingly better for the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers left Philadelphia yesterday for a visit of two weeks at Atlantic City. Mr. Vickers was ordered a two weeks rest at the sea-shore by his physician, in place of a precontemplated trip to the hospital. However, Mr. Harry Russell was not so fortunate, and left yesterday for a Baltimore hospital to undergo an examination.

So with recovering wishes for all the sick, I am yours,

The Wanderer.
