The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

August, the last month of summer, and everyone crowding his days with the season's activities to the fullest extent before the approach of Autumn. Crowd while you may, your swimming, sailing, fishing, horse show, regattas, your sea-side trips, garden exhibits and parties, because it won't be long now. All of these sports are holding their own right now, and Time and Tide who wait for no man will soon be wafting them away no matter how hard we try to hold them back.

Vacations are naturally the thing of the moment, and all who are so lucky as to earn such, are on the way. So let's turn our attention to those fortunate people. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harris have returned from a two weeks' tour of the west, and have glowing accounts to relate of the Grand Canyon, the Yellow Stone and other points of interest.

Mrs. Louise Dutcher and Miss Anne Pippin will seek a northern clime, heading toward the New England district, and leave Sunday for a two weeks motor trip, making Lake George as one of their headquarters.

Still others heading north are Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, who left Friday to spend about ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Stone at their home in Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Stone are well known to Chestertown residents, frequently having visited Mr. and Mrs. Perkins.

Others however prefer seashore entertainment and the propinquity of Rehoboth as well at Ocean City is the answer to this desire.

Among those who have taken cottages at Rehoboth or are spending sometime there include:

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Groves.
Mrs. Howard Pennington.
Mrs. Audrey Kauffman
Mrs. Burton Vansant
Mrs. Robert Hatcherson
Mrs. Helen LeCates
Miss Barbara LeCates
Mr. Owen Anderson
Mr. Harry Bates Nicholson
Mr. Sewell Phillips
Mrs. Henry Gill and children
Mrs. Phil Sewell and daughter
Mrs. William E. Goss and daughters
Miss Martha Crossley

Mrs. R. G. Beachley is spending several weeks there while Mrs. Raymond Humphreys and family have returned to Chestertown after spending sometime at the Roe Cottage.

Atlantic City claims a few of our residents, however, and those who spent a few days there isclude:

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Vickers
Misses Edna and Miriam Kirby
Mr. Ross Kirby

Mrs. Lewin N. Hitchcock and son, Bobby, of Westminster, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell after a week at Atlantic City, N. J. and Ocean City, Md.

Toward Ocean City, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Massey and family have hied themselves, where they have taken a cottage by the sea for two weeks or more.

Miss Virginia Foley also has gone to that resort, where she will visit friends at a cottage.

Now that we've been West, North and at the Shore, let's turn to who's in town and about.

Last week-end, Misses Miriam and Virginia Jones came over from Baltimore and entertained a house-party of their friends at the home of their father, Dr. J. S. W. Jones. Their guests included Miss Anne Jaber, of Baltimore, Mrs. Mary Knox Willett, of Washington, Mr. Krissinger, of Montana, Mr. Ford Collison, of Baltimore, and Mr. Richard Biggs, of Baltimore. Mr. Biggs, a member of the party, was the house guest of Mr. William Medders at Still Pond.

Coming from Pennsylvania to spend a two week's vacation, Mr. Frank Beck will arrive Sunday to be a guest of his father, Mr. Horace Beck.

Miss Anne Welch and her roommate, Miss Lynn Cooper, of New York, came yesterday to spend the week-end as guests of their aunt, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper.

Mrs. Albert H. Welker and son, of Fort Worth, Texas, are also guests of Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Skipper; Mrs. Welker is their sister.

Mrs. Spencer Harris, of Baltimore, arrived on Wednesday to spend two weeks in Chestertown. While here, Mrs. Harris will stay at the home of the Misses Welch, on Maple Avenue.

Captain and Mrs. Carl Lieber, of Long Island, are guests at Piney Grove, the home of Capt. and the Misses Emory.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown, and Miss Elizabeth Brown left Wednesday for Philadelphia to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Irving King.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery L. Wright and Miss Dorothy Wright will arrive today for a visit at the home of Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell at Worton Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crisfield, of Waynesboro, Va., have been guests of Mr. Crisfield's sister, Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon, at Green Point Farm, this past week.

Edgar Massey, of Washington, is home for his vacation and is a guest of his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Massey.

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton is home for a few days on a leave of absence from her position in Washington .

Last night, another of the Cinderalla Cotillions was held at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. Miss Francis Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, entertained at a buffett supper previous to the dance.

But as the news begins to lag, my poor hand starts to drag. So with a fond fare ye well.

I remain yours,
The Wanderer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smythe Wallis, of Cherrydale, Va., near Washington, D. C., and Miss Anne MacDonald Hawley, of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting relatives in Kent and Queen Anne's Counties. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Baker, at their home on Comegys' Bight, at luncheon. This old place is the home of the ancestor, Cornelius Comegys, of these three cousins.

The Curbstone Diplomat

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Congratulations to Betty Beck, who took honors in archery at Camp Red Cloud this summer. Congratulations also, to Jack, son of Coach and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, who took second honors at Camp Red Cloud in diving and also too third place in a 50 yard free style swim.

And speaking about congratulotions, what about Bunky Bringman who came through for first prize in amateur night at the Betterton Casino on Thursday evening.

Bunky dressed in swallow tails did some peppy crooning and for a man of his tender years at the gamfle he layed his audience low.

The entertainment was opened by the O'Brien team of four fast steppers. They were not in the contest however. The O'Hara family also did some stepping and the orchestra did some specialties, but neither were these in the contest.

Clarence Sutton, Frank Sutton and Jimmy Fitlds turned loose some religous harmony.

Mr. Freeman, of Galena, sang some mountain songs accompanied by Mr. Plummer o nthe banjo.

Mr. Rodney, of Rock Hall, gave the crowd a treat with the song Dinah and he was a peppy singer.

Miss Mary Jo Wheatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley, of Chestertown, crooned and scored a bi ghit winning third place in the contest.

Donald McDorman, of Betterton. was another crooner and his efforts were awarded with second place.

Mr. Leroy Barnes, of Fairlee, also crooned and drtw a good applause from the audience.

The management called for more talent and it was at this moment that Tom Gales fans yelled and stormed for his appearance, but showing a brute heart Tom failed to strut his stuff by not putting in appearance.

Mr. Walter Clantenoff of the Standard Auto Supply Co., is at Camp Meade training with the Reserve Officer's Training Corps of which he is a member. Hearing such things as these always gives me such a sense of security as I know the country is well protected.

A lot of counterfeit money has been turned loose at the Harrington Fair. That's pretty bad but our guess is that it is better than no money at all.
