JOHN BOULDEN DIES AT HIS HOME NEAR STILL POND

John Covington Boulden, age 59 years, died at his home near Still Pond Thursday morning of this week.

He was born in Kent County but spent part of his life in the Rich Neck section of Queen Anne's County, moving back to Kent County about eight years ago.

He was a prominent farmer of the Still Pond section of the county and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of that town.

He is survived by his wife who before her marriae was Miss Jennie Coleman, and one brother, Spencer Boulden, of Still Pond.

Funeral services will be held from his late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Vaughn Moore officiating.

The bearers will be Messrs. Walter Hurlock, Howard Rasin, William Ford, Woodall Robinson, Ralph Geary and William Clark. B. R. Fellows, undertaker in charge of funeral arrangements.

A. S. TURNER RESIGNS FROM WELFARE BOARD

Mr. A. S. Turner, Jr., recently appointed a member of the Kent County Board of Welfare, has resigned that position. Mr. Turner stated that pressing business matters prevented him giving the necessary time on the Board.

At the organization meeting of the Board Mr. Turner was elected secretary.

The Board of Welfare has received 45 applications for old-age pensions to-date. No applications have been acted on. The regulations governing old-age pension are very rigid and require that a person be destitute and without any means of sppport.
