The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

All one has heard this week is the daily question, "Are you going to the St. Michaels' Regatta?" No, I am not, but there are plenty of Chestertown's and its suburban residents who are, and from past years' descriptions I am sure a "good time will be had by all." I have no idea how many may be accounted for in that social list of among those present at the Miles River Yacht Club, but among the enthusiasts who are anticipating a huge time include William S. Collins, S. Scott Beck, Jr., David McMenamin, Irving Brown who with about thirty others will board a schooner which has been chartered and make it their headquarters for the two-day session of the Regatta. Other yachtsmen with their boats attending will be Commodore Philip G. Wilmer, E. Massey Hines and Colonel and Mrs. I. Price Ewing. Mr. Howard B. Strong with his log canoe, "Mayflower" will take part in the races for boats of that class.

Then on Friday, August 16th, our minds turn from boats to horses for on that date is the Kent County Horse Show of which Wilbur Ross Hubbard is president. Bonsal Brooks, Baltimore sportsman, will be a judge. So let's hope for a bright cool afternoon when we can all turn out and witness this interesting event.

I learned yesterday of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Fontaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark Fontaine, to Mr. Robert Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison, of Rydal, Pa., and Land's End Farm, near Chestertown. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. E. Clark Fontaine returned to his home here on Tuesday after conducting classes at the University of Maryland Summer School for the past five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Schreiber are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl, Anna May, born on Sunday morning at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Much informal entertainment in the way of luncheons and bridge parties has been under way in honor of Mrs. Ella Lyon, of Philadelphia, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos. Kibler this week.

From afar as Toronto, Canada, have come Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell Wheatley and daughter, who are guests of Mr. Wheatley's mother, Mrs. Fannie Wheatley.

And from still farther away has come Mrs. Robert Wood, of New York, but who has spent the past year in Porto Rico, where she accompanied Mr. Wood on business. Mrs. Wood, whose cheerful and sunny disposition is a real treat to encounter, is the guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer. She expects to remain here until about September 1st.

Last week-end Dr. Eldridge Eliason, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Mrs. H. Clay Brown and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brown.

Misses Lillian and Susan Stam, of Washington, will come Saturday, today, to spend the week-end with relatives. Miss Lillian Stam will stay with Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., while Miss Susan Stam will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow.

Miss Bessie Dixon, daughter of Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon, has returned to her home at Green Point Farm, from Smithtown, N. Y., where she visited a school chum, Miss Fairle Nichodemus, who previously had been Miss Dixon's guest at the closing of St. Timothy's, Catonsville, where both young ladies are students. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Conrat, of Savannah, Ga., have returned there, having spent a few days here with Mrs. Conrat's sister, Mrs. Dixon. On Sunday, Miss Mary Moore, of Greensboro, Md., will go to Green Point Farm, where she will tutor Miss Josephine Dixon for a few weeks.

Miss Clare Beirne, of Baltimore, will visit Miss Margaret Spencer Barroll at Knox's Folly this week.

Miss Harriett Welch, who has been taking a summer course at Duke University, is now the guest of her aunts, before returning to New York in September where Miss Welch teaches on Long Island.

Miss Helen Simpers, of Washington, was the guest of her father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers, last week-end.

Mrs. John D. Urie opened her home on Front Street this week after visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Gould at Cambridge for several months. She has as her guest, her daughter, Mrs. Albert Lefenwell and two children.

Now for those among us who are away, or are planning to go shortly. The seashore still beckons, and on Tuesday, Mrs. Brown Metcalfe and her two daughters, Miss Fredrica and little Peggy Metcalfe, accompanied by Miss Ellen Skinner, left for Rehoboth, Del., where they will spend about two weeks at the Roe Cottage. Miss Charlotte Jane Curry will join them on Monday.

Mrs. Roland Corey and son, Reese, andMrs. Howard Strong and son, Howard, Jr., are enjoying two weeks at Ocean City.

Mrs. Florence C. Wilmer and two children are visiting Mrs. Wilmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Conrath, at Mahaffey, Pa.

Mr. Ringgold Strong will leave by motor for Utica, N. Y. to return with Mrs. Strong and two daughters to Chestertown.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend and son are visiting relatives in Howard County. They left Chestertown on Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Townshend's sister, Miss Ruth Nichols, of Baltimore, who had spent the week-end here.

Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers, who has fully recuperated from her operation some weeks ago, is planning to visit her cousin, Miss Polly Gill at New Albany, Indiana. Miss Rogers will leave Tuesday and expects to remain three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones and two children will leave Saturday for their home in Atlanta, Ga., after visiting at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell.

If true to my name, I might be telling you of some of my trips, but alas, my nomadic urge is confined to the streets and by-roads of Chestertown, so content that I have at least such a delightful locale in which to traverse,

Yours bona fide,
The Wanderer.

Mrs. B. F. Thompson, of Jacksonville, Florida, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Hopkins.

The Betterton Casino seems to be growing more popular each Saturday night. It reminds me of church. At church it is the same person in the same pew. There, it is the same person at the same table.

Women do not consider man much of an animal. However, when you pick up a ladies' magazine most of the articles are about women that are imitating men. The women seem to look with admiration on the girls that do the things expected of the male.

How different the men are. Men despise the men that curl their hair and have soprano voices. A man winning a sewing contest or anything like that has no place in a magazine catering to men.

On public matters the women value the opinion of the above mentioned females. How far do you think the opinion of the above mentioned males goes with the males?

Mrs. Evelyn Harris like a lot of other people are complaining about the scarcity of labor.

She writes:

"Due to the fact that persons have received relief, I can get no pickers. They say 'We don't have to work.' Thus berries worth $4.00 a bushel (32 quarts) are going to waste. The same thing happened with the younger berries.

I promise to do all in my power to prevent aid being given, paid for out of the sweat of myself and children picking these berries."

The sailors from down around Deep Point cleaned up the Chestertown sailors, when they got them on their home water last Sunday afternoon. The honors went to the down river sailors.

Off for Miles River Regatta. The Harrisons, Col. Ewing, Barber Bartley, Commodore Wilmer, Yours Truly and gang, Massey Hines, John Truslow, the Woods and the Wilmers, Bill Baker, Dick Young, Griebs and Kellogg-Smiths are all taking boats to St. Michaels this week end.

Besides that a schooner has been chartered and many from town are planning to see the races from it.

All these will make a fine turnout from here. Besides the races at St. Michaels, the regatta is looked on as a big boat carnival. The affair is always well attended and has always been considered a big success.

Chestertown newspapers are treating the Ellis case like the city papers are treating the Hauptman case. No news at all.

At the Betterton Regatta next week they certainly have some fine trophies. It would pay some of the local boats to get over there and grab some.

Again we have the Sewage Disposal Plant question with us. This reminds me, how is the postoffice coming along? And I had better sign off by asking how is the dredging of Rock Hall harbor coming along?

An elderly German and his wefe were given to quarreiling. One day, after a particularly unpleasant scene, the old woman remarked with a sigh, "Vell, I vish I vas in heafen."

"I vish I vas in a beer garden!" shouted her husband.

"Ach, ja!" cried the old wife, "always you try to pick out the best for yourself."
