The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

My mind is whirling between horse-shows and regattas, for all attention is centered on the two this week. At this writing, neither have come off, but the preparations and anticipations are aplenty, and really I am expecting to be much entertained by watching the horses and their riders aspire for their trophies as well as see some of the Regatta at Betterton. The horse-show on Friday will be quite a social event in itself. Previous to the show Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard and Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard will entertain a number of out-of-town guests at luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Morris and daughter, Patricia, of Washington, will be among those present and spend the remainder of the week-end at Wide Hall.

Then the Regatta at Betterton Friday and Saturday will draw crowds from Chestertown and around to either participate in or observe the races, to say nothing of the evenings which follow such events.

Mrs. James G. Metcalfe entertained at dinner on Friday night in honor of her two nieces, Miss Anna Bayden, of Upper Marlboro, and Miss Ellen Skinner before the Cinderalla Cotillion at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club.

Although many of our residents are away at this time, an equal number of visitors are in our midst, and it's always helpful when having guests to have events of interest on hand.

So let's put on our glasses and take a peek around to see who's with us, or has been here this week. On Monday, Miss Margaret Smith, of Baltimore, came to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck. On the same day, Dr. Esther M. Dole returned to her home in the Wickes apartments from Alfred University, where she taught at summer school. On Tuesday, Miss Helen Hutchins, of New York, arrived to be a guest, for the week, of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus and Mrs. Karl Melamet. Mrs. Olive Gilpin, of Baltimore, came Tuesday also, to visit Mrs. H. Clay Brown, her sister-in-law, for several days. Wednesday brought Miss Rebecca Wickes from Baltimore to visit Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes for a few days. Then came Thursday bringing Miss Trilla Gohene, of Pittsburgh, who will remain until Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson at Fox Point Farm. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas, of Hartford Connecticut are expected. Mrs. Thomas you'll remember was Miss Merritt Page Beck, daughter of Mrs. Will Beck who is spending the summer in Chestertown.

Mr. Charles Hopper, of Baltimore, who has been visiting an old friend in Centreville, spent two nights enroute home as a guest at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow and Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr.

Mrs. Charles T. Inglee and Miss Jean Inglee, of Plainfield, N. J. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Baker at their home in Quaker Neck. Mrs. Inglee is a sister of Mr. Baker.

Miles Kirkpatrick, of Easton, son of Judge Kirkpatrick, of Philadelphia, came Friday to be the guest of Lewin Wickes. Lewin and Charles Chester Atwater have rturned from a visit to Ocean City, Md., and Beach Haven, N. J. where they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Atwater and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton, respectively.

Mr. Harry Kershaw, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has returned to his home there, having been a guest at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Strong.

Mrs. Bartus Trew, of Baltimore, has been a guest this week of Miss Katie Trew.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Frohme and son, Donald, of Canton, Ohio, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith, parents of Mrs. Frohme. Mrs. John Walters and two children, of Washington, D. C., and two children, of Washington, L. C. are guests of Mrs. Walter's aunt, Mrs. Vernon Barnett on Kent Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and daughter, Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown left on Thursday for a motor trip to Cape Cod, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crosby at their home there. Mrs. Crosby was here last winter, attending the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in February.

Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr., returned last Sunday with the Misses Stam to Washington and will remain there until this Sunday as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Stam.

Mrs. Will Beck and Mr. Frank Beck motored to New York last week and while there, Mrs. Beck told me of having dined at the famous Jack Dempsey resturant. Her description was most interesting for she tells me the place is just attractive as can be, done in red and silver in exquisite taste. Jack Dempsey is, of course, owner of the place, and I hear is most interested in guests from the smaller towns, college towns, etc., and the athletics of these locales.

The older two of the little Claude Truslow girls are on a vacation, little Betty having left for Camp Wright on Thursday, while Peggy will return with her uncle Jack Collins, who has been in Centreville, to Montclair, N. J., on Sunday for a week's visit.

Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley and family her nephew, Milton Harris, Jr., of Gloucester Point, N. J., who has been spending the past month with his aunt, Mrs. Rollison Baxter and family, Miss Lucille Parr, Miss Laura Thomas and Mrs. Harry Lewis spent last week at Rehobeth, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Massey have returned after two weeks at Ocean City, Md., Mrs. Lawrence P. Strong and daughter, Mary Jean, and Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne left Thursday for that resort and will occupy the Massey apartment, the Massey boys remaining there with them for the rest of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton have been spending the past week at Atlantic City, N. J., so as usual the ocean resorts are holding their own these summer months.

Gladden Coleman son of Assistant Postmaster and Mrs. Alvin E. Coleman, had his tonsils and adenoids removed on Wednesday at the Easton Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Billy Legg, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Legg, of near town, was operated on for tonsils and adenoids this morning by Drs. Copeland and Bowers.

But, I haven't expounded on the heat, and as the arms of Morpheus are beckoning strongly, I better stop right here.

Yours reposing,
THE WANDERER.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Moffett are receiving congratulations on the birth of a 7 pound baby girl born at the local hospital on Wednesday of this week.

ROYAL BLUE INTRODUCES BUFFET LOUNGE

PASSENGERS PRAISE MODERN EQUIPMENT

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Officials announce a new Buffet-Lounge Car as additional equipment on the high-powered streamliner 'The Royal Blue,' now in service between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

One end of the new car is equipped with a buffet and tables, where light lunch and beverages are served. At the other end are large, comfortable, easy-chairs, and settees; card table, floor and table lamps, writing desk and the latest magazines and newspapers. This new Buffet-Lounge Car is in addition to the B & O drawing-room parlor cars, dining car with tavern-counter service, observation-parlor car and individual reclining seat coaches.

Hundreds of passengers on 'The Royal Blue' have written to the Baltimore & Ohio, commending the equipment and unusual conveniences on what is conceded to be 'the world's most modern train.' Particularly, are these passengers impressed with the smooth, easy-riding comforts of the new train, its gliding motion.

The cars are wider inside than standard equipment, made possible by the use of stronger and lighter material.

Inside, all cars carry the same general color scheme, ivory, tan and brown. Cork-lined floors and walls and ceilings insulated against heat, cold and noise, add to quiet comfort. Wider and lower windows give greater vision. Broad, soft cushioned seats with adjustable backs invite relaxation. The furnishings restful and colorful.

The individual reclining seat coaches are wide and roomy, having seats with adjustable backs and foot-rests. Each pair of seats may be turned around to face the rear. Seats are upholstered in plush, with linen head rests that appeal especially to women passengers.

TO GRADE HOSPITAL GROUNDS

ASSISTANCE OF VOLUNTEERS IS ASKED

Work will start next Wednesday on grading the grounds surrounding the Kent and Queen Anne's hospital by volunteers who will donate their services to the cause.

Mr. George Hendrickson was the first volunteer and any one who is willing to offer his labor or donate to the cause is requested to notify Messrs. W. G. Smyth, L. G. Brown or Oliver Wright.

There were 33 cases cared for at the local hospital during July of which 25 were surgical, 5 obstetrical and 3 medical.

During August to date there have been 18 cases, 14 surgical, 2 obstetrical and 2 medical.
