The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

I am walking, eating, thinking, talking and sleeping Regatta this week. I have heard of nothing else, nor has there been any concentration on any other lines. It seems as if we've just been living with that end in view and that is to make the Regatta a larger success than ever before and incidentally to have the best time in the bargain thereof. So if it isn't the accomplished termination intended, it certainly won't be the fault of the township. Of course slews of out of town guests will be on hand, and visiting yachtsmen will be in port. I can't pretend to tell you who all will be here, but I shall mention just a few names of guests that in passing by I've heard of who will be in the ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewellyn Parker, of Baltimore, will be week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Mr. James Bacchus and Mr. Robert Maddox, of New York, came yesterday for the week end and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, will arrive Saturday night in time for the big dance at the Club, even though she will be forced to miss the races.

Miss Katherine Aldridge, of Baltimore, will be the guest for the week end of Miss Betty Anthony.

Miss Ruth Riepe, of Baltimore, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, Jr., for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, of Baltimore, have been guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Alan A. Harris and will remain over the Regatta before returning to Baltimore.

Before the dance Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll will entertain a number of friends at supper.

Last night, the members of the board of the Club and a few others were entertained at a stag dinner aboard the beautiful yacht, the Marian, by Mr. G. Hooper, of Philadelphia. This palatial vessel has been off the Club pier all week and last Sunday afternoon Mr. Hooper entertained a number of the town's residents aboard, during the sailing races. I was fortunate enough to be among those present and I can say that boat is a fulfillment of anyone's dream.

Now let's retrospect awhile longer into the dim past week and see what's been afoot. Miss Mary Louise Dicken of Pittsburgh, Pa., returned to her home on Sunday, having been a guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hagy, of Lansdowne, Pa., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rogers were week end guests of friends at Rehoboth.

Miss Martha Speicher, has returned to her home after a visit to Hollidaysburg, and Pittsburgh, Pa.

Misses Hallie and Mable Toulson left on Tuesday for Richmond, Vermont where they will visit Dr. Houston Toulson for two weeks.

Others who will miss the Regatta will be Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler who left on Thursday for Camp Red Cloud in Pennsylvania where their son, Jack, has been all summer. On Sunday they will return, with Jack accompanying them.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred G. Livingood and sons are spending several days at Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Inez Russell and Miss Rose Duyer have returned to Chestertown after attending summer school at Columbia University, New York.

Thoughts of study remind me that Miss Betty Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Barnes, will leave September 1st for Easton, Maryland, where she will enter Emergency Hospital for training.

Mrs. Frederica Albee, of Laurel, is the guest of Mrs. Walter B. Strong.

Mr. Lee Clark, Jr., of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Russell.

On Monday night, Miss Nelle Walker entertained a group of friends at a bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan A. Harris.

Novel in its devices for prizes many came home with a small trophy, in addition to the two highest at the completion of the evening, and the guests of honor.

On rainy Tuesday afternoon, of this week, Mrs. Will Beck had invited a number of friends in to meet her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas. It was a delightful day to get together and one saw all of his friends from here as well as many from Centreville. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck. Mrs. Beck will return Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas to Hartford, Conn., before opening her home in New York for the fall and winter season.

So with parties behind us, parties in the offing, and parties ashore, I'll close to become

Nautically yours,
THE WANDERER.

STEINER—FOX

Miss Ruth Fox, the popular daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Baurice Fox, was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander W. Steiner, of Washington, D. C., on last Sunday evening at the Alcazar in Baltimore City.

They were married by the Rabbi Shudofsky, of Baltimore, according to the ancient Jewish rites, Mr. Shepherd Fox, grandfather of the bride, acting as Cantor, and intoning the marriage chants.

The wedding party stood under a canopy of white gladiolas and hydrangea, during th ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of ivory satin and a veil of tulle, while the groom, and his best man, Dr. Harold Orris and the father of the groom, Mr. Leo Steiner all wore white double breasted suits.

Miss Shirley Fox sister of the bride was maid of honor, and Esther Fox, flower girl.

There were a large number of guests present among them the following from Chestertown and vicinity:

Besides members of the Fox family those from Chestertown in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Wroth Stavely, Miss Margar-Stavely, Miss Anna Gardner, Miss Rose Gordon, Mrs. John Speicher, Miss Martha Speicher, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lee Gill and Mr. W. Belt Townshend. Guests were also present from Baltimore, Washington, Bayonne, N. J., Hagerstown, Hurlock, Federalsburg, Rock Hall and New York.

Mrs. Steiner was a graduate of the Chestertown High School and has been a student of the George Washington University, while Mr. Steiner is an employee of the Department of Justice.

The young couple after the dinner reception and dance which followed the ceremony, left for a wedding trip to the Adirondacks and will later reside in Washington, D. C.

Messrs. Rollison Baxter, Earl Pinder, Clarence Hurd, Maurice Crouch and William McGinnis, employees of the Holt Oil Company, spent Sunday at Atlantic City.

Mr. H. E. Rook, of Oakland, Md., who succeeded Mr. Bates Chairs as maintenance road engineer for this district, arrived in Chestertown this week. Mr. Chairs has taken over his new duties at Oakland.

Miss Margaret White daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank White of Chestertown M. E. Church is very ill at Rehobeth where she has been vacationing with her parents. She was taken ill on Wednesday after coming from a swim in the ocean and it is understood that an operation may be necessary.

Arthur Brown, son of Mr. Leon Brown, is recuperating at his home near Chestertown from a fall from his horse last Sunday in which he received a broken leg. He fell when the horse he was riding stumbled in a field on his father's farm.

Mr. W. W. Hubbard received cuts ad bruises about the head and face when his automobile hit a tree on High street while avoiding collision with another car. Mr. A. J. Leonard who was rding with him received similar injuries.

SHORE HIGHWAY PROPOSED

The proposed boulevard down the Eastern Shore has been included in the State Roads Commission three-year building program and funds for 45 per cent. of its cost are being sought from the Public Work Administration, it was reported from Baltimore Wednesday.

The project was listed along with six others on the Western Shore for which the state will seek more than two million dollars from the government with the total cost of the entire program figured at $4,921,500.

The section of the boulevard listed indicated it would start from near the Sassafras River and extend to a point near Cordova. This coincides with the route of the dual highway down the Eastern Shore as outlined in Queen Anne's Record August 1 ahead of any other State or county newspaper.

No estimate of the cost of this particular project was indicated, all seven proposals being lumped as the State's program under the Federal Bureau of Public Roads appropriation.
