3:00 P. M.—Divine Worship. Sermon by the Pastor: "The Rich Fool."
"The Children of this World are wiser in this generation than the children of Light"—so said the Master. Yet they are the greatest fools as long as they neglect the "one thing needful"—the teaching of God's Word for the salvation of their souls. It will be too late to repent of such folly when once the summons comes to them: "This night thy soul shall be required of thee!"
We invite you to hear the preaching of Christ the Crucified, whom to know is life eternal.
Note.—The Mission Festival services at Dover, Del., in which Missionary W. H. McLaughlin, of China, will preach, begin at 10:30 A. M. (German) and 2:45 P. M. (English).

SAILING PARTY CAUSES ALARM

Failing to return from a sailing trip on Chester River Monday evening following a storm, neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Whatey became alarmed and notified Chestertown yachtsmen and Sheriff Bennett. A searching party was being organized when at 9.30 p. m. they arrived home by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Whaley were sailing in front of their home in Quaker Neck which was formerly the Kratzer home at 5.30 p. m. when a storm came up. At 9 p. m. they had not returned and the searching party was organized.

According to Mrs. Whaley they had a very disagreeable experienced. When the storm struck they were compelled to drop sail and be blown across the river in rough water and a downpour of rain. They landed at Bookers Wharf and were taken home by Mr. Larrimore. Aside from getting soaking wet they were suffered no ill effects from their experience.

Built the Doctor's Way

MANY physicians, who specialize in the care of children, endorse and prescribe Simplex Flexies. In these dainty, long-wearing little shoes the feet develop as Nature intended. Flexies let the child's feet rest squarely on their natural three points—no rocking sidewise to bow the pliant legs in or out. Flexible soles—glove-smooth lining. No rough seams nor wrinkles to torture the tender feet. And, Flexies are as long-lived as they are healthful.
