GOING TO THE DOGS

'There was a day,' said President Roosevelt in his radio address to the national convention of Young Democrats in Milwaukee, 'when political sages, or those who controlled them, took the attitude that anything new, or what they called 'new-fangled,' would lead to dire results. There is nothing new in those prophecies of gloom. I read these lines in a paper the other day—a little poem entitled 'Going to the Dogs':

'My grandpa notes the world's worn cogs,
'And says we're going to the dogs;
'His granddad, in his house of logs,
'Swore things were going to the dogs;
'His dad, among the Flemish bogs,
'Vowed things were going to the dogs;
'The caveman, in his queer skin togs,
'Said things were going to the dogs;
'But this is what I wish to state—
'The dogs have had an awful wait.'

Have you weeds growing around your premises? Then pull them up if you have any good feeling to the hay fever sufferers. The pollen from them flies around and those susceptible to that very uncomfortable disorder, breath in the air impregnated with it.
Weeds are flowers out of place they say.
They are certainly out of place when allowed to grew at this season of the year.

NOW AND THEN

THE DOVE

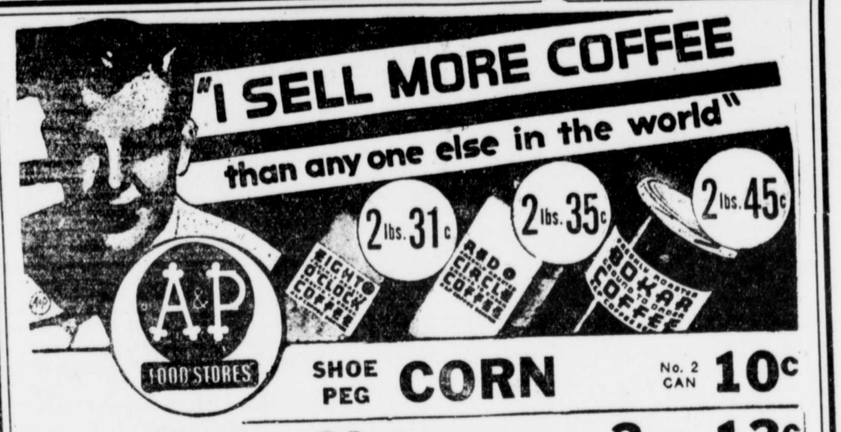

BY ALICE MATHEWS

O little feathered friend so fair,
'Tis sweet to hear your murmuring,
Somehow in swift retreat dull care
In watching you, from me doth wing
Away, away, to parts unseen,
And leaves me a contented heart,
A wanderer through Summer's green
Resolved upon a happier part
Because of you, O little love,
A soothing song I too would make,
And copy clear the cooing dove,
His winged peaceful way to take.
Surely a message pure and blessed
You bring us of Eternal rest.

The legal time for shooting of the doves was postponed by the state to the 21st of September, today. Now instead of hearing its gentle coo, coo we shall hear, Bang, Bang, Bang. It is true that a dove is a very toothsome bit, but such a small one that at seems a shame to sacrifice a life to obtain it.
Perhaps some day we shall learn to cook crows, harks and other birds of prey so they may make a tasty meal, and then let the little songsters alone.

The Flower and Fashion Show of last week was quite a success, both socially and financially. In spite of pouring rains the preceding week, the flowers showed up well. The luncheon was well patronized and the Fashion Show; well what is more interesting than a bevy of pretty girls and women; dressed in the newest fashions.
Every neck was craned over the heads of the crowd to see them as they walked by. The Kent and Queen Anne's hospital have reason to be thankful to the active women who get up these entertainments for its benefit.

The Boys Scouts were very much disappointed at not going to Washington as it was called off on account of infantile paralysis, The president gave them a very pleasing address over the radio.

WHAT EVERY WORK SHOE WEARER SHOULD KNOW
Read the amazing facts listed just below and you will have no trouble at all understanding why millions have found supreme foot comfort — money saving, longer wear in. . .
Wolverine Shell Horsehides

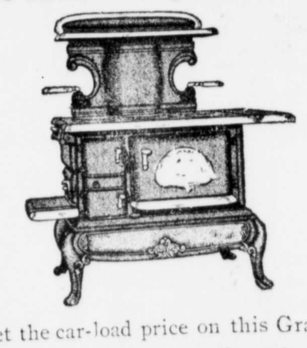

1 — Leather in Wolverine Shoes is Shell Horsehide, just that part taken from over a horse's hips and is tanned in the Wolverine Tanneries.
2 — Shell Horsehide is considered by authorities to be the longest wearing leather known. Wolverines often give from ⅓ to ½ longer wear than ordinary shoes.
3 — The shell section of a horse's hide is approximately 1/6 of the entire hide — enough to make only 1 6/10 pairs of Wolverine Shoes.
4 — Wolverine Shell Horsehide is tanned and re-tanned three times, so no matter how wet Wolverines get, they dry soft and stay soft, and are also as near barnyard and acid proof as leather can be made.
5 — The peculiar structure of Shell Horsehide makes Wolverine Shoes actually scuff-proof so they not only wear longer, but also keep their good looks longer.
6 — Wolverine shoes are the only Work Shoes with both soles and uppers made entirely of Shell Horsehide.

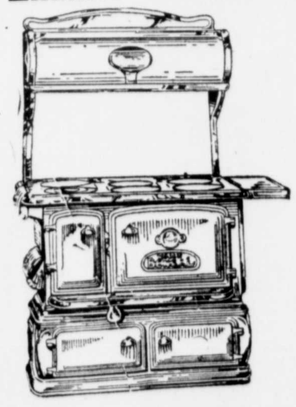

When tanned the secret WOLVERINE way, this tough reinforcing center layer found only in Shell horsehide accounts for the remarkable extra wear and greater comfort of WOLVERINE SHOES.
You can't go wrong on work shoes that have so many outstanding qualities as are listed above. Try one pair of WOLVERINES and it's 10 to 1 you'll wear WOLVERINES for life. See them — try them on the very first chance you get. We have a full range of sizes in all the popular work shoe styles.
