The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Socially speaking, it's been rather a dull week, with nothing in the form of entertainment going on, and one has had to depend upon the good movies which have been here, or else the prize fight at the Armory on Wednesday night for a means of diversion. However, foot ball season is at hand, and everyone is looking forward to attending the first game of the year at the College this afternoon. All of the feminine sex will don their newest sport outfits and lend the background of color to the field, which is always so attractive at any game. During the week, many of our residents and nearby friends are enjoying a race over the fields after that sly old fox, and for those who can ride, nothing is so alluring as fox-hunting. To hear them tell of it, it must be too exciting for words.

Williamsburg, Va., has become a popular mecca for those in Chestertown. More and more are going, are there, or have been. Coming under the latter class, I can vouch a treat in store for those who yet have the trip to anticipate, and a most happy instructive and interesting time for those who are there, and a never to be forgotten memory for those who have been. To be carried back to days of old, to learn of the beauty as well as the hardships that surrounded our forefathers, other than by merely reading from a book, but to actually see things accurately as they once were can not make any slight impression on one's mind. This week, a merry group consisting of Mrs. Sam Emory, Mrs. C Beck Jones, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, III, took a motor trip to that historic spot, where they will remain until today. Next week, I hear of eight more who are going, but I'll save that till later. (I might be short of news then.)

Mrs. Hiram Brown, who has been visiting members of her family in New York and vicinity has returned to Godlington Manor after a two week's sojourn.

Others returning after a visit include Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. T Herbert Skipper who visited friends in Fort Du Pont, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hendershot who have been visiting in New York State for two weeks have returned accompanied by Mrs. Willis A. Goodfellow of Newark Valley, N. Y., who will be their guest for awhile.

October 2nd, was the birthday of little Rolph Townshend, Jr. His score was 6 years and to celebrate, nine of his little friends enjoyed a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs Rolph Townshend, in honor of the day

Mrs. W. D. Hines, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her sisters the Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkens this week, but has now returned to the city.

Mr. Raymond Moody who has spent nearly two months in Baltimore, has reopened his home on Washington Avenue.

Miss Clara Usilton is spending sometime with Dr. and Mrs. Ralph McRalph McFeely in Bogata, New York.

Mr. Paul W. Pippin returned home on Friday on the S. S. American Legion from a six weeks tour to South America.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Franklin, of Cumberland, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell at Wortor Manor. A joint birthday celebration o Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell and Mr. Charles Jessup was held.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Nora Maxwell, Mr Jesse Maxwell and George Maxwell will motor to Indiana where they will remain for two weeks visiting relatives and Mrs. Maxwell's old home place.

An engagement of interest here, announced in Baltimore this week, was that of Miss Harriet Durand Pine to Mr. Morton Dukehart, Jr.. Miss Pine who is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Woodworth Pine and the late Mr. Pine made her debut at the first Bachelor's Cotillion several seasons ago, is a member of the Junior League and a graduate of Smith College. Mr. Dukehart, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs Morton McIlvain Dukehart, and attended the John's Hopkins University. Mr and Mrs. Dukehart and their sons frequently visit here at the home of Mrs. Dukehart's aunt, Mrs. Alice Derringer.

Now I must run along and get my throat in condition to give some loud rah-rahs at the game.

Yours cheering,
THE WANDERER

Behen—McKee

Invitations have been received in the county to the marriage of Miss Mary Gertrudee Behen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James John Behen, of Dover, and Mr. William Daniel McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee, of Chestertown.

The wedding will take place at Holy Cross Church in Dover on Wednesday October 9th at 6 p. m., after which a reception will be held at the Maple Dale Country Club.

Mr. McKee is employed by the Gulf Refining Company in the Dover District.

BENEFIT BALL GAME NEXT THURSDAY

JIMMY FOXX AND OTHER PROS TO PLAY EXHIBITION GAME

Jimmy Foxx, of the Philadelphia Athletics, and a number of his professional base ball friends will play in Chestertown next Thursday afternoon in an exhibition game for the benefit of the Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital.

Efforts are being made to have Frank Baker, former star of the Athletics, play with the Chestertown outfit of which Foxx will be captain.

The Federalsburg nine will be the visitors and an interesting game is expected. The game will start at 1.30 p. m. and will be played on the Washington College field.

EDWARD MYERS DIES FOLLOWING STROKE

William E. Myers, Sr., aged 70 years, died at his late home at Hainesville Thursday morning following a stroke of paralysis.

He followed the shoemking trade and has been in poor health for several months.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Myers and the following children: Mrs. Margaret Glenn, of Still Pond, and Messrs. Tilon and Allie Myers of New York and Edward Clifton of Betterton, also brothers and sisters John Myers, of Betterton, Charles Myers and Mrs. Louise Solloway, of Worton Point and Mrs. Lenora Crew, of Wilmington.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon, Saturday, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ruth Myers Cullis at Worton Point, Rev. R. Lee Marker to officiate. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Mr. Vernon Kirby cashed in on reporting last week's tragedy to the extent of fifty dollars by being the first to send in the news tip to the Baltimore News. Harry Russell is running a close second by furnishing a photograph of the accused and other reporting he did for the dailies.

Elsewhere in the paper is an account of ceremonies to be held at Mt. St. Mary's College. It would have been more interesting to some of us if they had also given the dope on the football team. Reports are that it is plenty tough.

Using 'Elsewhere in this paper,' one more time. Elsewhere in this paper I think some nasty answers have been given to the Queen Anne's Record for the way they treated the Kent County Road program.

BUT, I have to pat them on the back for speaking the truth about our Congressman. Congratulations, you have been in business but a couple of years and have wised up to the Congressman already. Life long Eastern Shoremen seem never to learn.

Half the population of the Eastern Shore are hopefully awaiting his promises which he renews and renews and they never seem to grow disgusted.

The dope is that the fighters put up some good scraps at the local armory Wednesday night. To the wise the wrestling bout was a complete flop Brockman a rather poor wrestler in a lightweight class was matched against the heavyweight Tracy. If the bout had been on the level Tracy could have attended to Brockman in a few minutes

When President Roosevelt wrote his letters to the reverend gentlemen of the country he omitted me, the chaplin of th local branch of U. S. Power Squadrons. Never the less he will receive my advice just the same next week.

Just the Man

Clarence—How is your brother Rudolph getting along this summer?

Katherine—Just fine! He has a new job, with good pay.

Clarence—But I thought he was a victim of St. Vitus' dance?

Katherine—He is, but he got a chance to play the saxophone in a jazz band and the leader said Rudolph was just the man he had been looking for for some time.—Chelsea Record.

Jolt

Hotdog—What's the matter with your wife? She looks all broken up.

Soybean—She got a terrible shock.

Hotdog—How was it?

Soybean—She was assisting at a rummage sale at the church and she took off her new $2 hat and somebody sold it for 30 cents.—Pathfinder Magazine.
