MT. ST. MARY'S COLLEGE TO CELEBRATE

Emmitsburg, Md.—Thousands of students, clergy and laymen from various sections of the state of Maryland are expected to attend the pontifical military field mass to be held on the the athletic field of Mt. St. Mary's Collegeon Columbus Day morning, Saturday, October 12. The Most Rev. John M. McNamara, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Baltimore will be celebrant and will be assisted by members of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College and Seminary.

Sponsoring the colorful event is the Blue Ridge Conference of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade which embraces Catholic Colleges, Academies and parish schools in Western Maryland and which boasts of membership of over a thousand active workers. Every member of the Conference together with many members from other sections are expected to be in the procession which will be held previous to the mass.

A detachment of Cadets from St. Johns College in Washington in military cogalis will execute the various maneuvers of such a military ceremonial. Further adding to the color of the affair will be the following organizations in uniform, Knights of Columbus, Holy Name Society and Sodalities from the various parishes covered by the Conference. In addition to this many large delegations of altar boys in cassock and surplice will move over the route traversed by the procession.

Rev. William F. Culhane, a member of the faculty of the Mount will preach the sermon of the Mass. The band from St. Mary's Industrial School of Baltimore and that of Mt. St. Mary's will provide music for the procession.

Heading the committee arranging for the affair is Rev. Louis C. Vaoth Archdiocesan Director of the Crusade A public address system will carry the music of the Mass to the outermost limits of the crowd. A detail of Maryland State National Guard and a group of Maryland State Police will aid in moving traffic and in the parking of cars.
