The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Now don't you agree with my epistle a few weeks ago on the glories and grandeur of Fall? These days just make us want to do things and I think most of us are finding no trouble in keeping busy one way or another. Many are selecting this time of the year for a belated vacation, and I must say I am sorry mine is over, for with little persuasion I would tuck myself in anyone's rumble seat and be on my way. As I said last week, Williamsburg, Va., seems to be THE destination of all who have any trip in mind and a regular pilgrimage is almost in progress to that land mark. Leaving today in two cars, eight of our residents will scour that part of the country with the restored Colonial City as their termination. This group will include Mr. and Mrs. Alan A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott, Miss Grace Wilkins and Miss Anne Smith.

But let's stop and see who was off on a visit last week end. Quite a few come to my mind. Senator and Mrs. S. Scott Beck and Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines motored up to Short Hills that lovely suburb in New Jersey and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Skinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend and son, Rolph, Jr., were week end guests of relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Jesse Medders also went to Baltimore and was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Rebecca R. Wilkins.

But however, there were quite a few guests here over the week end too. Miss Helen Norris was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell, Mr. Paige G. Young, of Lansdowne, Pa., visited friends in town, Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkinson, of Baltimore, was the guest of her father, Mr. John W. Barnes, Mrs. C. A. Harkins, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. James L. Crouch, of Baltimore, were guests of Mrs. Rosa O. Howard. Major and Mrs. Ernest Harmon, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mr. Herbert Hartman and sisters, Miss Fannie Hartman and Mrs. Ives Leonard, and Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Clark, of Pocomoke City, were week end guests of Miss Ida Crow.

On Monday, Miss Rebecca Wickes of Baltimore, came to spend a few days with her sister in law, Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes.

Mrs. Walter B. Strong returned to her home here Sunday after a period of observation and treatment at the Church Home and Infirmary, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Guion and their daughter, Miss Sue Guion, of Staten Island, New York, have been guests this week at the home of Mrs. R. H Collins, Sr.

Capt. and Mrs. Edward H. Bowers who spent part of this week with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee, returned to their home at West Point, and were accompanied by Mrs. McKee who will visit them there.

Now for those who at the moment are on visits or trips other than the Williamsburg tour.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cushing and son Ray, Jr., and Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson are touring the New England States and before returning will go to Nova Scotia where they will visit Mr. Cushing's mother and brothers.

Dr. R. G. Beachley is attending the Medical Institute at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, while Mrs. Beachley, during his visit there, is visiting in Waverly Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers are on a ten day motor trip making points of interest in South Carolina their destination.

Mr. Polk T. Bramble, proprietor of the Bramble Poultry Farm is in Florida visiting the hatcheries in that State at the same time having a little pleasure worked in.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. French are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Vansant in Chatham, Va.

Mrs. Eben F. Perkins returns tomorrow from a visit to her sister, Mrs Brooke Bond at Port Republic, Calvert County.

Miss Mary Hines, of Baltimore, will be the guest this week end of her brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs Dorsey Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. William Darlington, of Tarsdale, Pa., and Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon will entertain together, today, at a large picnic at the home of Mrs. Dixon on Green Point Farm. It promises to be a lot of fun, and like all picnics one will consume more than their diet allows. An open-fire place has been built in the hill side for the occasion and so it behooves all those who expect to attend, to go light on breakfast, as the affair is scheduled for the middle of the day.

Before I close, I must not let pass our congratulations to Scott Beck, Jr. who, as I told you before, is studying law at the University of Maryland in Baltimore, and has been made at an election this week, the Vice President of his class. Louis Goldstein well known here, was elected Treasurer.

So with a hand-shake and a pat on the back, I'm on my way.

Yours rambling,
THE WANDERER.
