The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Although the week has been quiet, activities over the week end are going to make up for the dull moments. Three events at Washington College will be celebrated today, namely Homecoming Day, Founder's Day, and Governor's Day, with a perfectly fine football game between Washington and Hopkins thrown into the bargain, tc say nothing of the two dances in the evening. One will be held in the gymnasium—a Varsity Club dance and the other, an Alumni Dance, to be held at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. Following the morning ceremonies at the College, Governor Nice and other visiting dignitaries will be entertained at a luncheon in their honor by Col. Hiram S. Brown, at his home, Godlington Manor. So you see it looks as if about three week's doings are jammed into one day.

While we are talking about college entertainments, I might mention here that Miss Freida Dorf entertained the girls in the Freshman Class at a bridge party Tuesday evening at her home on High St.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe Roe on the birth of a fine son born on Monday at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. Father Bus Roe is about the proudest dad I've seen lately and shortly I will wend my way to see this most 'unusual' baby.

Williamsburg is still holding a lure for those in Kent County. Recent visitors to the historic spot were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller. Still others who have been there this week were: Mrs. John C. Davis and her daughters, Misser Rebecca and Cornelia Davis, although they continued their motor trip to Troy, North Carolina and Richmond.

Guests here last week end included Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarman, of Baltimore, Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Hitchcock and son, of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins Trew and daughters, of Gettysburg, all of whom were visitors at the home of Mr. Thomas W. Trew.

Mr. Walter Derr, of California, was the guest last week at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Strong, while Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Green and daughter, of Greenwood, Del., have been guests of Mrs. Green's father, Mr. George W. McWhorter.

Mr. Walter Miller, of Caldwell, New Jersey, has been the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory. Mr. Miller attended the stag dinner given by his brother, Mr. Severn Miller, who entertained a number of his New York friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Brice, near Lankford.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown left Monday for Baltimore where she has visited her sister, Mrs. Ollie Gilpin this week at her residence in Guilford. Before returning to Chestertown the first of the week, she will visit relatives in Philadelphia.

Last week end, Mrs. Roland Corey and son, Reese went to Baltimore where they visited Mrs. Corey's sister in law, Mrs. Elliott Hudgins. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper went to Washington and were week end guests of their daughter.

Mrs. Howard Strong, who spent ten days at the Chalfonte in Atlantic City returned to her home Sunday with Mr. Strong and 'Junny' who joined her over the week end. Mr. Bradford Copper, Miss Palmer Carroll and Mr. Raymond Wilkins were also week end visitors at Atlantic City and were a party with the Strongs.

Alack a day, where is all the news? My space is not filled, so get busy and send me some notes, do some traveling or give a party so that I can write a long letter next week. Please.

Yours pleading,
THE WANDERER.

Word was received in the county this week of the birth of a baby girl Frances Carroll, to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stewart, of Dalas Texas. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Fannie Beckam, public health nurse for Kent County.

WILLIAM S. COLLINS

Mr. Vernon Kirby, riding on the eve of prosperity has purchased the cabin boat Hobby from Mr. Massey Hines This boat is well know on Chester River. She was built by Mr. Duyer for Dr. Edward Clark, now of Pocomoke and the late Mr. P. A. M. Brooks She bore the name of Suebert. Mr. Thomas Massey owned her for a number of years selling her to Mr. Massey Hines, who changed the name to Hobby.

Traffic on the Quaker Neck road was blocked last Sunday night for about an hour and cars were forced to use the Airey-Hill road. The blocking was caused by an accident on Radcliffe Bridge. A Ford roadster bound for Quaker Neck hit the water in the road caused by high tide. It skidded the car around and it crashed into the railing of the bridge, the front wheels going over the side. An iron brace on the railing kept the car from going into the stream. It took an hour to get it off the bridge so traffic could get by.

This water over the road at that spot on every high tide is something that should have been remedied long ago. At times the water is so deep that cars can not go through it.

Quite a while ago the State Roads Commission was supposed to have remedied this condition by building a dam, making a lake of the marsh. It was not done however. What the new commission plans is hard to say as their idea is to concentrate on big boulevards and let the lateral roads go. However the people of Quaker Neck should see to it that this bad condition is remedied.

This is not original it belongs to my brother.

The new ducking law reminds the duckers of the old verse:

'Mother, may I go out to swim?'
'Yes, my darling daughter.'
Hang your clothes on a hickory limb,
But don't near the water.'

In other words you can duck but the law says you can't.

To Saturday night, night lifers There is no dance at Centreville th Saturday night. The management has changed hands and the dances will again be on in full force Oct. 26th.

Brandolini is back in town and has organized another first class band He plays every Saturday night at the Hotel Chesapeake.

Also, we are advised to request the State Police to patrol the Quaker Neck road and some of the other nine foot roads and investigate why horses and other live stock are in the roads. Dangerous stuff at nights.

THREE MEN ON A HORSE AT FORDS NEXT WEEK

The big stage winner, 'Three Men on a Horse,' will gallop into Ford's Theatre, Baltimore, on Friday night, October 25th, for an unusual laugh engagement taking up eleven performances, with matinees Wednesday and Saturdays. The presentation here of Alex Yokel's hit is another milestone in the progress of a stage comedy that is fast becoming an industry. Not since the boom days of the nineteen-twenties has the legitimate theatre been able to claim a multiple hit like 'Three Men on a Horse,' which is now presenting four different companies. George Abbott and John Cecil Holm are the authors.

On New Year's Day last, 'Three men on a Horse' was just another show coming to Broadway. It opened, a smash hit. And it's still there, selling out nightly. In March, a second company opened in Chicago, where it continues in its 29th week. A third company has been one continual mirthquake on the Pacific Coast since last May, and now comes the Boston company with the best known cast of all. This piece, to be seen at Ford's Theatre, presents the pick of Broadway in such players as Hume Cronyn, Betty Field, Harry Davenport, Jean Casto, Henry Norrell, Grace Valentine, Clifford Dunstan, Jules Bennett, and others of name and reputation.

The Lost Chord

Harry—How come you stopped singing in the choir?

George—I wasn't there one Sunday and someone asked if they'd fixed the organ.

CORN AND HOG MEETINGS NEXT WEEK

We herein announce a series of meetings for the week of October 21st concerning the two subjects mentioned above. At a conference of Wheat and Corn-Hog Committeemen on Wednesday it was decided to use one series of meetings to discuss these two important subjects, and the schedule below was worked out.

I. The Corn-Hog situation will be discussed and a vote by secret ballot taken to decide the choice of Kent farmers relative to a Corn-Hog program for 1936. The ballots voted at these meetings will not be counted until after voting hours on Saturday October 26th. Those not attending these meetings may vote at the extension office, Saturday, October 26 between 8 a. m. and 9 p. m. Any farmer who grow corn and no hogs in 1935 is eligible to vote.

II. The new Wheat Adjustment Program will be discussed and applications for the new contract accepted Many new features are offered in the new contract. Attend these meetings and get your information first hand. The enclosed leaflet contains much valuable information.

Acreages of all crops grown in 1934 and 1935 together with a correct map of your farm will be needed. You can help greatly if you will bring this information to the meeting.

Meetings have been planned for:

Millington, Monday, Octo. 21, 9 a. m. Com. Hall.

Massey, Monday, October 21, 1 p. m. Redman's Hall.

Galena, Monday, October 21, 7 p. m. School.

Longer Lines in Ford V-8 for 1936

THE LONGER and more graceful lines of the Ford V-8 for 1936 are well illustrated in this view of the popular De Luxe Tudor Sedan. The new longer hood extends gracefully over the attractive new radiator grille. Wide streamlined front fenders, with an imposing flare, shroud the tires and house the horns behind chromium grilles. New design steel wheels with 12½-inch hub caps are handsome and easy to clean. Bucket-type front seats are exceptionally comfortable. This body type, of welded steel like all Ford V-8 bodies, is also available without de luxe appointments at lower cost.
