IT'S TRUE! By Wiley Padan

"IT'S TRUE! that Frances Langford's career took its first forward swing five years ago when, after a throat illness, she discovered that her soprano voice had changed to contralto," says artist Wiley Padan. "It was this 'new' voice that brought her success on the air and earned her the title of 'contralto crooner'. The petite, raven-haired singer of the 'Broadway Melody of 1936' made her professional debut on Rudy Vallee's radio hour."

So packed with entertainment is 'Broadway Melody of 1936' which comes to the New Lyceum on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 21, 22 and 23, that it at once registers its right to acclain as the greatest extravaganza yet to be made by Hollywood. Stars, story, music, dancing, all are present in satisfying and often thrilling form, so splendidly elaborate is the picture and so skilfully is it fashioned.

There is glorious comedy, and the story takes dramatic turns which set it above the usual vehicle of its type. The plot is superbly woven amid the gorgeously spectacular specialties, and the many song hits all fall naturally out of the streaming action of the production.

Stage and Radio Star

For players the cast has as its top personality the gifted, Jack Benny now lending to the screen the brilliant talents that have made him a star of stage and the outstanding genius of radio brodcasting. He handles a grand role perfectly, and he has the most ample and able support from noted performers like Una Merkel, who rings the bell as a wisecracking secretary; Robert Taylor, a grand romantic male lead, and others.

Eleanor Powell wins triple honors in this picture for she is not only seen as the 'world's greatest feminine tap dancer,' but handles the ballerina demands finely, and in addition proves she is a fine dramatic actress.

It is practically an all-star cast. Among other triumphant players in the cast are Sid Silvers, 'king of stooges,' June Knight, Vilma and Buddy Ebsen, Nick Long, Jr., Frances Langford(Harry Stockwell, Robert Wildhack and a great many more.

Musical Highlights

The spectacles are done with unprecedented charm. Among the musical highlights are five great songs by Nacio Herb Brown and Arthu 'Broadway Rhythm,' 'I've Got a Feelin' You're Foolin',' 'On a Sunday Afternoon,' 'Sing Before Breakfast' and 'You Are My Lucky Star.' The elaborate ballet by Albertina Rasch for the last named is one of the outstanding sequences in all musical pictures.

The dances were staged by Dave Gould, creator, of the 'Carioca' and 'Continental,' and Gould's new creations and further glory to his record.

Roy Del Ruth directed with that skill for which he is famous and this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture boasts an all-around splendor in which he has a large share of credit.

With John W. Considine, Jr., as the producer for M-G-M, 'Broadway Melody of 1936' may be set down as a film that every lover of good entertainment should see.

The story was an original by Moss Hart, famous on Broadway. The screen play was prepared by Jack McGowan Sid Silvers and Harry Conn.

Galena Leads In High School Division

Attendance averages in all Kent schools were high for September but the perfect record of the Sassafras school, taught by Miss Helen E. Caulk, led all other schools for the month. Only three schools in the entire county dropped below the 90 per cent. mark in the opening month.

Galena High, which took top honors for attendance in the high school division last year, began the new school term where it had left off in June. The 98.1 average of Galena High, Miss Lelia N. Ware, principal, was the best in that division.

TO ORGANIZE WOMEN'S PEACE LEAGUE

MEETING TO BE HELD AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The women of Kent and Queen Annes counties who are interested in International peace are cordially invited to the auditorium of William Smith Hall at Washington College on Wednesday, October 23rd at 2.30 to hear two able women speakers from the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom who will make brief addresses on the topic 'Why Work For Peace.'

Mrs. Edward F. Buchner who is chairman of the Education Committee of the League and also chairman of the International relations committee of the Baltimore Women's city club will be the first speaker. Mrs. Emil Crockin, first vice chairman of the League and President of the Baltimore League of women voters will also talk. At this meeting the county branch chapter will be organized. Dr. Esther M. Dole, acting chairman.

The Women's International League has 50,000 members working in 45 different countries. It unites ctiizens of practically all nations . . . with their vastly different customs, beliefs and experiences . . . in the common cause of peace. Its international headquarters are at Geneva. Jane Addams was International President.

The Maryland Branch, which has nearly 400 members, endeavors to educate directly and indirectly for peace through twelve active committees. All workers are volunteers. Individual members aid the work by speaking and by publishing leaflets, articles, and books on various topics, such as Latin-American relations and literature that encourages peace. Monthly meetings are addressed by distinguished speakers.

In the past few years the Women's International League has played a large part in the withdrawal of the marines from Haiti ...in abrogating the old treaty with Cuba, with its unfortunate Platt Amendment...in the embargo on arms in the Chaco dispute; and is directly responsible for launching the Nye investigation of the munitions makers. These accomplishments have not been 'lucky' nor have they been easy. They have come as the result of years of patient and unremitting toil.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
