NOW AND THEN

Sunbeams

Shafts of golden sunshine,
Creeping through the clouds,
Bring sparkling little diamonds
On leaves which dew enshrouds.

A rose whose head was drooping,
Lifts its scarlet petaled face
To golden dancing sunbeams,
Creeping through clouds of lace.

I love to sit in the garden
In the midst of this jeweled bower,
Watching each dancing sunbeam
Greeting a beautiful flower.

George Loeholm Strong

October has surely spread her golden light around as she paints the trees and bushes in her own bright colors. The water reflecting the intense blue of the sky, reflect, too, the colors of bush and tree on its bosom. In the flower gardens , asters, zinnias, cosmos all try to outrival the trees. Yes, the world is very beautiful now.

The airplane and the automobile have both been working havoc with our comedians. Only a short time ago Will Rogers was killed in an airplane accident and last week Sydney Smith, the creator of the Gumps, met his death in an automobile collision, just as he had signed a contract with the newspapers, for a large sum of money.

The comic is still going on, for he had many associated with him in planning the various adventures. But, his ready wit, and initiative will be hard to replace.

Do you know your English?

Have you ever thought how blest those are, who are brought up to speak the English language. So many foreigners spend their lives in trying to learn it, for English is the spoken language of the world. Wherever one goes in whatsoever country, there are always those who can speak the English language for in spite of the various meanings for the same word, and the different ways of pronouncing the same, English is the easiest to write and to learn.

'Greek's a harp we love to hear,
Latin is a triumpet clear.

Spanish like an organ swells,
Italian rings its silvery bells
France with many a frolic mien,
Tunes her sprightly violin;
Loud the German rolls his drum.
When Russia's clashing cymbals come;
But Britains sone may well rejoice,
For English is the human' voice.

That Prior to the 1793, the Colonial method of mail delivery was by post, horseback and coach. In 1695, mail matter was sent by Annapolis to Kent Island, and forwarded by Stage Coach or horseback. Act of Assembly of 1713 provided that the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county go over to Kent Island and deliver letters and 'packquettes' to the sheriff of Queen Anne's County who was required to forward it either North or South as the case might be.

In the year 1727, mail from Philadelphia to Annapolis was delivered once a fortnight in summer and once a month in winter.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Farewell has been sung to October's bright blue weather, and here hath we November, with thoughts of turkey and Thanksgiving in the offing. Aside from the weekly foot ball treks here and there, people are gradually settling down, and the numerous tours to hither and yon that lured us in the early fall, are becoming less frequent. En lieu of such, entertainments at home are furnishing the required excitement and aiding to divert us from the routine of daily chores. This past week is proof of the pudding as most every day has held some treat in store. So, let us start with last Monday and breeze quickly over the week's social calendar.

Monday night, was Ladies Night at the Inter-city meeting of the Rotary Club which held its meeting at the parish house of Emmanuel Church. Aside from the delicious dinner served, the ensemble, which was a goodly number, enjoyed a delightful after dinner talk from Governor Bruff, of Arkansas. The Governor, who was most flattering to the Eastern Shore, and Mrs. Bruff, who was present, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard at Wide Hall.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, was hostess at a lovely bridge party in the afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Eva Murray, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Barroll this week, at Byford Court. The house, as always, was beautifully decorated with flowers, and after bridge, tea, sandwiches and cake were served.

The second of a series of attractive luncheons was held on Wednesday, by Miss Julia Emory at Piney Grove, after which, bridge was played.

On Wednesday evening, Messrs. John and Gilbert Mead entertained 24 friends informally at a buffet supper at the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mead, after which the young people danced and made merry.

Hallowe'en, Thursday, was marked by the appetizing supper which was given at the Lotus Inn, by the ladies of Old St. Paul's Church. The Lotus Inn, is most fascinating, and a perfect place for a party.

During the day, Mr. W. W. Hubbard entertained at luncheon in honor of the board of Directors of the Continental American Life Insurance Company, of which, he has been a member ever since the company was founded Captain and Mrs. Peach are guesst at the home of Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Skipper, and Captain Peach was among the guests present at the stag luncheon party.

For Friday, I have no party to relate. However, Mrs. C. Beck Jones, Mrs. Frank B. Hines, and Mr. Horace Beck left Chestertown and motored to New York for the week end, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown, who prolonged her trip, returned yesterday from Philadelphia, after a visit first to Baltimore and then to the former city, where she was the guest of her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown who will spend this week end in Chestertown.

Saturday, today, many in town are scheduled to attend a tea given this afternoon by Miss Harriette Welch who, with her sister, Miss Anne Welch will come down from New York and be guests for the week end of their aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper. The tea, I understand, is to hold an announcement for us, and wedding bells are destined to ring in the very near future for a certain young lady, whose first name is Anne. The lucky man is Stanley Giraitis, who now has a position in Florida.

Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell has had as her house guests this week, Mrs. John Colby, of White Plains, N. J., and Mrs. Esther Clarendon, of Pleasantville, New York.

Little Mary Anne Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr., is ill with typhoid fever at the home of her parents. We wish her a speedy recovery to the road of health.

So now I must go and take a turn at the stores.

Yours Shopping,
THE WANDERER.

CLINIC FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

ORTHOPEDIC EXAMINATION TO BE HELD AT HEALTH CENTER NEXT TUESDAY

An Orthopedic Clinic for crippled children will be held at the Health Center on Tuesday, November 5th from 10.30 to 4 p. m. Doctors Harry Rogers and I. M. Maseritz, assisted by Miss Mary E. Church, Executive Secretary of the Maryland League for Crippled Children, will be in charge.

As a result of these clinics a number of Kent county children have been taken to various hospitals in the State and had their limb ailments corrected thereby paying them from going through life as a cripple. It is one of the most outstanding and worthy public servic es rendered.

It is urged that parents bring their children who have limb ailments to these clinics where they will be thoroughly examined free of charge.

MOTHER GOOSE STEPS ON GAS

George Porgie, Little Boy Blue and Tom, and the Piper's Son have grown up to be oil salesmen. And the demure Queen of Hearts, once famous for her tasty tarts, now steps on the gas and makes quick starts in a series of modern Mother Goose jingles appearing in the Transcript every other day beginning the week of October 27.

Written by a whimsical copy writer in Gulf Refining Company's advertising department, the up-to-date nursery rhymes are aimed to remind motorists of the necessity for discarding last summer's motor oil and changing to new winter grade Gulflube.

The brief and breezy jingles with amusing illustrations avoid the technical details, the reasons why oil should be changed with the changing season. Evidently it is assumed that the average motorist knows that summer oils will not flow properly when cold; that bearings may be damaged; pistons and cylinder walls scored when oil is sluggish. In hard summer driving, crankcase oil has become more or less oxidized and dirty, full of carbon, road dust and grit, and is ready to sludge up when it gets a little moisture in winter operation. In any case, any crankcase, that is ,Mother Goose is warning motorists that Jack Frost is no playmate for summer oil.

Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville
Rev. C. M. Griffeth, Pastor

The Four Hundredth Anniversary of the printing of the complete Bible in the English language for the first time was celebrated at Calvary M. E. Church in Sudlersville last Sunday evening when a large congregation heard a special message for the occasion by their new pastor, the Rev. C. M. Griffeth. Two special musical numbers were rendered, a vocal and an instrumental duet which were well received. At the close of the service a souvenir of the occasion was given to all who attended. This souvenir was a copy of St. John's Gospel, on the cover of which was printed the name of the church and the anniversary celebrated. The pastor suggested that each one receiving this souvenir honor the occasion and the men who gave us the English Bible, namely, Tyndale and Coverdale, by reading a chapter of the Gospel each day, which a large number of those who attended are now doing.

A "Smiles Contest" was instituted last Friday by Rev. Griffeth among the children of the community which consists in collecting from newspapers, magazines, papers, etc., pictures of faces having smiles. To the boy or girl bringing in the greatest number of such clippings by Nov. 22nd, a prize will be given. Several thousand have already been collected. All the children of the town are on the hunt for smiles.

I FEEL FINE

Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.
