CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING
'SECRETS OF SERVICE'
BY REV. C. M. GRIFFETH
Pastor Calvery M. E. Church, Sudlersville

What startling events that had crowded in upon Peter that morning! All the night previous they had fished but caught nothing. And then in the morning came that marvelous haul when the Stranger on the beach had called out to them to cast the net on the other side of the ship. Then followed the revelation, that this Stranger was the Risen Christ! And it was He who had prepared for them with His own hands that wonderful breakfast!

But now the Christ had again entered behind the curtains of invisibility. But before doing so, He had placed into the hand of Peter the commission of Apostleship. The heavy responsibility of the task was upon him. How was he to accomplish his task in the face of an antagonistic and hostile world?

And then somehow there came to Peter's mind the remembrance of that net bursting with fish. In that miraculous haul came the solution of his problem. What so few of us have seen was now very plain to him. He was to accomplish his impossible task by divine power. His success would be God-given!

Ours to cast the net on the right side of the will of God. His to fill the net to the breaking point with fish. Ours to implicitly obey, His to give success.

But what about his daily sustenance? How was Peter to be provided for, as he gave himself fully to his task? That breakfast was the answer, and the promise! Christ would providentially sustain his every need as Peter gave himself unreservedly to the task of Apostleship.

To us no less than to Peter has been given the commission, 'Ye shall be my witnesses.' Our task, too, is well nigh impossible. But we also have the promise of divine aid and of divine sustenance along the way. Therefore go labor on, thou workman of God, Christ shall supply thy every need to do His will and work.

And was the motor boilin'!
The car slowed down and Jack did frown;
He still had summer oil in!

Mary had a little car,
She left it in the snow;
She hadn't changed to winter oil,
And now the car won't go!
