AT THE MOVIES NEXT WEEK

Jack Benny, Ted Healy, Grant Mitchell in "It's In The Air"

'It's in the Air' is coming to the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, November 18 and 19 and the audience will laugh so hard that they will miss half the lines!

Jack Benny, as the star, smashed through with a performance that delighted the enthusiastic audience and established him as the comedy ruler of two kingdoms, the screen and the air.

Ted Healy, Una Merkel, Nat Pendleton, Mary Carlisle, Harvey Stephens and Grant Mitchell divide acting honors with their respective performances.

An Exciting Plot

The thrilling plot concerns Benny, a 'confidence man,' and his side-kick Healy, who are on the run from a 'G-Man,' Pendleton, because they have failed to turn in an income tax report, acting on the advice of a shyster lawyer.

Healy hides at a desert resort and Benny follows later by plane, getting a free ride by pretending to be a prospective buyer of a stratosphere balloon. At the resort he meets his estranged wife, Miss Merkel, who left him five years ago because of his 'shady' business dealings. He attempts to win her back, but she refuses to have anything to do with him.

In the meantime, an airplane manufacturer who has an idle balloon that he built for an unsuccessful expedition, talks Benny into using it. Several business men at the resort back the flight for the publicity attached to it. Benny plans to get the money and flee, but he changes his mind when he sees a chance to win back his wife by going straight.

Healy Takes the Funds

But Healy takes the money and leaves. Benny catches him and forces him to accompany him on the flight. Then the fun begins.

Charles F. Riesner, of 'Reducing' and 'Caught Short' fame, directed the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production.

Edmund Lowe is the G-man of the firefighters—matching clues and kisses with a blonde baby who knows more about arson than love! That's the exciting romantic theme of Columbia's 'Grand Exit,' a thrilling comedy-drama coming on Wednesday and Thursday, November 20 and 21 to the New Lyceum Theatre. Lovely, beauteous Ann Sothern is seen as the golden-tressed will-o'-the-wisp who gagged her sleuthing suitor with his own wisecracks. When he picked her up—she threw him down ... making trouble for him even when he threw her into jail!

Suspecting Miss Sothern's complicity in a series of mysterious fires, Lowe, chief detective of the fire insurance company, plans a strategic move to trap the real criminal and clear the name of the girl he has learned to love.

Others in the large cast include Onslow Stevens, Robert Middlemass, Selmer Jackson, Miki Morita, Guy Usher and Wyrley Birch. Erle Kenton directed from a story by Gene Towne and Graham Baker.

William Boyd heads a stellar cast of players in the filmization of Clarence E. Mulford's new story for Paramount 'The Eagle's Brood' coming on Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23 to the New Lyceum.

Portraying 'Hopalong Cassidy,' Mulford's famous western fiction character, Boyd impersonates one of the old west's fearless gunfighters.

In the 'Eagle's Brood' 'Hopalong' has become a man of the law, a peace officer in the great Southwest who can use his head as well as his hands. Jimmy Ellison, new western star, is seen in the ro le of 'Johnny Nelson,' youthful 'pal' of 'Hoppy,' who idolizes him and for whom 'Hoppy' is continually trying to keep out of scrapes. Together they ferret out a band of 'badmen' who have held the town of Hell Center in a reign of terror and through strategy they succeed in wiping them out and restoring law and order to the community.

Others in the cast include William Farnum, veteran star of stage and screen, Addison Richards, George Hayes, Joan Woodbury, Frank Shannon, Paul Fix,Al Lydell and Dorothy Revier. Directed by Howard Bretherton and produced by Harry Sherman, Clarence E. Mulford's 'The Eagle's Brood' is the second of a series featuring the Mulford character 'Hopalong Cassidy.'

DAIRYMEN HOLD ANNUAL CONFERENCE

INTER-STATE ASSOCIATION MEETS AT PHILADELPHIA—LOCAL DAIRYMEN TO ATTEND

Milk producers from all parts of the Philadelphia milk shed are meeting at Philadelphia next Wednesday and Thursday, November 20 and 21 at which time the Inter-State Milk Producers' Association holds its nineteeth annual convention. About 15 local farmers who plan to attend including four delegates representing Chestertown, Kennedyville and Massey locals.

These delegates were to be elected on Friday, County Agents McVean and Sutton will also attend the convention.

Outstanding among the issues to be discussed at the meeting is that of reorganizing the association in a manner which will take advantage of modern laws designed especially in a manner which will take advantage of modern laws designed especially for cooperative agricultural associations. It is understood that local dairymen are on any proposals leaiding toward reorganization. Such action is also endorsed by the association's officers who have discussed it with the association members at several score local and district meetings during recent weeks.

B. H. Welty, of Wayesboro, Pa., and president of the association, is chairman of the meeting.

A H. Lauterbach, who will make his first appearance before an Inter-State annual meeting as the association's Generl Manager, reports on the progress of the association and will outline future plans, including the proposed reorganization. Mr. Lauterbach spoke at the 1934 annual meeting at which time he was chief of the dairy section of the A A A at Washington.

Election of nine directors is to be held on the first day of the meeting. Nominations have been made by members living in each district where a director's term expires. The position of director is contested in district 2 where S. K. Andrews of Hurlock, Md., is opposed by R. Newell Stagg, Jr., of Snow Hill, Md.; in district 5 where IraJ. Book of Stasburg, Pa., is opposed by Horace K. Martin of Goodville, Pa.; and in district 14 where Howard W. Wickersham of Kelton, Pa., is opposed by Philip Price of West Chester, Pa.

Candidates for re-election to the board who are unopposed include H. D. Aliebach, of Trappe, Pa., E. H. Donovan, of Smyrna, Del.; Albert Sarig of Bowers, Pa.; B . H. Welty, of Waynesboro, Pa.; and F. P. Willits of Ward, Pa. J. D. Reynolds, of Middletown, Del., is a candidate to succeed H. W. Cook of New Castle County, Del. All candidates were nominated by petition of a group of members from their home districts.

Mr. John Carvel Sutton, Director from Kent County, is a hold over director and is not among those to be elected next week.

Speakers who are appearing on the program include F. W. Peck, cooperative bank commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington D. C., who will discuss 'Looking Ahead in Cooperative Effort.' Dr. F. F. Lininger, professor of agricultural economics at Pennsylanvia State College, is scheduled to discuss 'Sound Principles of Cooperative Organization.' Both these speakers will appear on the Wednesday afternoon program following which the meeting will be thrown open for a general discussion on the problems of and plans for reorganization.

A special program for women is arranged for the Wednesday morning session at which Willis Kerns, rural sociologist at Pennsylvania State College, will lead a discussion on the part that farm women may take in the cooperative movement.

Professor Gernalso speaks at the Thursday morning session on 'Educational and Social Growth of the Farm Family.' Appearing on the same program is Dr. Roger B. Corbett, senior extension economist of the United States Department of Agriculure whose address covers 'Dairy Market Problems.' Dr. Corbett has been in great demand as a speaker at meetings of dairymen and his comments cover not only normal dairy trends but also the effect that governmental control may have on future trends.

IF AND WHEN

"Does your husband play the game for money?"

"Yes, but I've given up hopes that he's ever going to get rich that way."

Almost!

"Brown likes athletic women. His first wife was a champion golfer, his second a champion swimmer, his third a tennis star, and—"

"The man had a wife in every sport."—Royal Arcanum Bulletin.

A Fair Imitation

Count—Oh, yes, we have wonderful estates on the continent, you know all my ancestors lived on bluffs.

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

WHAT'S THE USE?

The neighbor of a man noted for his extreme thrift saw him dressed in his best clothes.

"What's up, Jim?" he called out. "Why the glad rags?"

"Haven't you heard the news?"

"News? What news?"

"Triplets!"

"Oh, so that accounts for——" began the neighbor, when the frugal one interrupted him.

"Yes, that accounts for me wearing these clothes. What's the use of trying to be economical?"—Tit-Bits Magazine.

Outspoken

Agent—Is your mother in, little girl?

Joan—No, mother is out shoppin'.

Agent—When will she get back?

Joan (hollering)—What'll I say now, mother?

THE V-8 ENGINE IS ALWAYS IN Style

THE V-type engine is the kind you find in the cars of people to whom cost means little and style means much.

When the Ford Motor Company introduced this engine to the low-price field, it made one of its greatest contributions to modern, luxurious motoring with economy. But progress did not stop there. Styling, appointments and every other feature of the new Ford were made to match the quality of the V-8 engine.

Without Ford resources and experience this would not have been possible in a car at so low a price. But you can easily convince yourself that it has been done. You are urged to accept the cordial invitation of your nearest Ford dealer to see and drive the new Ford V-8 for 1936.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.
