TUBERCULOSIS SEAL SALE STARTS THANKSGIVING

70 PER CENT OF FUNDS USED IN THIS COUNTY

To the Public:

The 1935 Christmas Seal Sale will open on Thanksgiving Day and continue until Christmas. This annual sale is conducted for the purpose of obtaining funds with which to protect individuals in particular and society in general from one of the most malignant diseases, tuberculosis.

Seventy cents of each dollar contributed through the purchase of the double bar red cross seals in Kent County are available for use in the county for waging the fight againts tuberculosis. The county is also benefited greatly by the twenty-five cents that go to the Maryland Tuberculosis Association and the five cents that go to the National Tuberculosis Association. Out of this part of the money, the National and State Associations supply free to the county the seals, display cards, etc., for use in the county.

The seventy per cent of the total receipts, representing that part of the proceeds that is under the direct control of the Kent County Tuberculosis Association helps in carrying on such activities as public health nurse while discharging such duties as:

1. Visiting by the public health nurses the homes of active tuberculosis cases and giving instructions regarding their proper care.
2. Providing transportation for needy active T. B. cases when it is possible to have them admitted to one of the State sanatoria.
3. Providing ways, when necessary, for contact cases to attend the free tuberculosis clinics held from time to time throughout the year at the Health Center in Chestertown.
4. Visiting the homes to check on the sanitary conditions in the homes of contact cases and the progress of the patients.
5. Visiting the homes and schools in this county helping with the general health program throughout the county.

For this purpose a minimum of five hundred dollars is needed. To make that amount available for use in the county, a minimum of seven hundred fifteen dollars must be received from the sale of Christmas seals.

Everyone is urged to do his bit and contribute what he can to this good cause. If you do not receive any of the double bar read cross Christmas Seals through the mail within a day or two after Thanksgiving Day, you can obtain any number you wish by calling or writing me. Let's all contribute liberally and promptly after receiving our seals.

Furthermore, let's use the seals on our mail and Christmas packages as we send them out. These little messengers may remind other people of their responsibility in the fight against tuberculosis. If each one does his part, we shall exceed the minimum goal set above and make it possible to carry the T. B. work in the county beyond the programs of recent years.

LOUIS C. ROBINSON.
Kent County Chairman.

'MAY WINE' AT FORDS NEXT WEEK

Laurence Schwab's production of the musical play 'May Wine,' which comes to Ford's Theatre, Baltmore, Thanksgiving week November 25th, represents the combined efforts of four men who, individually, have contributed to Broadway and the American stage some of the most successful and famous musical comedies of theatrical history.

These four are Frank Mandel, Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein II, and Jose Ruben. Under Mr. Schwab's supervision they have created a completely new type of musical comedy which is based on a novel by Wallace Smith and Eric Von Stroheim, two gentlemen who for many years have been associated with the talking pictures.

Mr. Mandel, who wrote the libretto for the newest Schwab production was for years the partner of Mr. Schwab in the production of such successes as 'The Gingham Girl,' 'The Desert Song,' 'Good' News,' 'Follow Through,' 'New Moon,' 'The Firebrand,' 'East Wind,' 'Queen High and others. A librettist before he turned producer, Mr. Mandel rejoins Lawrence Schwab with 'May Wine.'

Sigmund Romberg, who has written the music for the new musical, will be remembered by theatregoers for his sentimental and stirring compositions in 'The Student Prince', 'Blossom Time,' 'New Moon,' 'My Maryland' and other long-lived and popular musicals.

As for Oscar Hammerstein II, it was ths young man who furnished both the book and the lyrics for the Ziegfeld production of 'Show Boat.' He is also to be credited for the lyrics of 'Music In the Ar,' 'Rose Marie' and 'Sweet Adeline,' among others.

Jose Ruben has staged 'May Wine,' adding the Schwab musical to a list of successes which include Max Gordon's 'The Cat and The Fiddle.'

'May Wine is the story of a Vienna psychologist who finally succumbs to romance during the colorful, musical and sentimental May festival. It differs from the average musical in that it has no chorus and alternates the musical and spoken word.

ANDELOT CATTLE RATE HIGH

Andelot Stock Farms, of Worton, Kent county, and George K. Bailey, of Earleville, this county, walked off with the principal prizes at the Maryland Aberdeen-Angus Show held at the Belair Fair Grounds on Saturday, November 2nd. This show, held each year by the Maryland Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association, brought out almost one hundred head of young Aberdeen-Angus cattle from the herds of Maryland. The quality of the cattle exhibited was a real object lesson of what can be accomplished by good breeding and feeding in Maryland.

Mr. George K. Bailey, of Earleville, exhibited six head, all but one of which were bred by himself. His winnings were second for two-year old bull; first, second and third on senior heifer calves; first and fifth on junior heifer calves. Queen Mab of Wickwire was Reserve Grand Champion female. Mr. Baley's crowning victory was the winning of the Maryland Aberdeen-Angus trophy on three animals all sired by his herd bull, Evilesco of Page.

Andelot Stock Farms of Worton, exhibited eight animals. They had the Grand Champion bull on Andelot Pride Lad and Grand Champon female on Andelot Queen 3d, who afterwards won the Sweepstakes trophy for the best animal in the show. Andelot also won first on senior bull calf; second in junior bull calf; first for group of three bulls; first on yearling heifer; second on junior heifer calf; second for group of three females; first on pair of yearlings; and first on pair of calves.

It is interestng to note that every first prize winner, together with every Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion were either bred by Andelot Stock Farms, or from animals sold by Andelot to other breeders.

BETTERTON

The Men of Betterton held their first supper of the fall in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening. The service at the church tomorrow evening will be 'Men's Night.' Rev. W. V. Moore will have charge of this service to which everyone is cordially invited.

The Sunday School held a very successful bazaar last Friday evening. Each Sunday school class had a booth and each class had a part in the evenings program. The Tom Thumb Wedding was put on by the primary department. The 'Wanted A Wife,' pantomine was given and also 'Dr. Cure-all.'

The Still Pond play 'Six Wives on a Rampage' will be given on Friday evening November 22nd, at the Betterton school house for the benefit of the new furnace in the Methodist Church.

Captain and Mrs. Smith and little daughter, Peggy, left for Florida on Monday where they will be for the winter months. They have been at the Betterton House with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Flora Crew for the summer.

Rev. George Turner and family, of Cambridge, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. William Turner.

Mrs. James Sutton, who has been ill is improving at her home here. Her sister from Annapolis is spending some time with her.

Rev. E. C. Collins was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price and enjoyed several days gunning.
