COLOR-BLIND

She—They tell me, Mr. Stung, that your marriage was the result of love at first sight.

Mr. Stung (with a sigh)—That's true. Had I been gifted with second sight I'd still be in the bachelor class.

OW, OW, OW!

"What time did the clock say when you got home last night?"

"I don't remember what the clock said, but I'll never forget what my wife said."

UP TO DATE

"I see we have a new cook. Is she experienced?"

"I surmise so. She started the first day by coming late and then asking for the afternoon off."

LOST CHANCE

He—Won't you marry me? I have a million dollars and a fine house.

She—If you were about twenty years older I'd take a chance.

HORRORS!

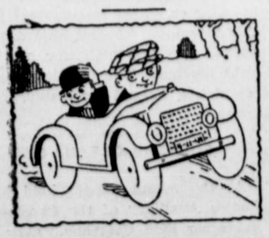

"Susan's bathing suit is creating quite a sensation."

"I should say so. Positively the most modest suit seen on the beach for years."

JOY AHEAD

A SAVING

"There's one thing I never cease to congratulate myself about."

"What is that?"

"You don't need tires for the steering wheel."

CURSE

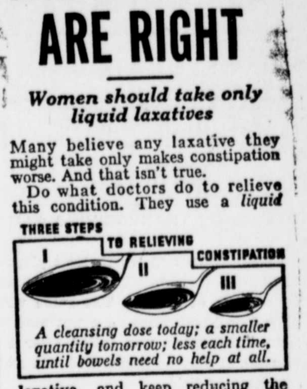

'Drink,' said the Irish preacher, 'is the greatest curse of the country. It makes yer quarrel with yer neighbors. It makes yer shoot yer landlord, and it makes yer miss him.'

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.
