The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Come day, go day, and rarely the routine changes. The Ides of August, following Friday the 13th, having passed, bring the eighth month toward the close. No one is sorry! August, this year has held no charms—hot, dusty, and unexciting. Happily and longingly we watch the calendar for that happy day—September 1. The powers that be hope to raise the Pleasure Ban thereon. Thence once again, we may live a semi-normal life. Perhaps a few new themes may be introduced into this small epistle. So till then, let us read, let us write, of visitors to and fro, of vacationists on their tours, and hold in mind, if this becomes monotonous, that these are days of war.

Miss Mattie Whitaker, left on Wednesday of this week to spend her vacation with Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Frank Goodwin, in Lewiston, Maine and with friends in Wilmngton, Del.

Miss Harriett Skirven also selected this week to begin her vacation and is now in Ocean City, Md., where she will remain for two weeks.

Mrs. Howard Pennington, Miss Elizabeth Starkey and Miss Margaret Quinn left on Tuesday for Atlantic City, N. J., where they will remain for a week.

Lt. Commander and Mrs. John Harrison spent a few days this week at their summer home "Broadfield" on Lankford Bay. Commander Harrison is stationed at Cape May, N. J.

Major L. Rhoderick Blackhurst is spending a week at King's Grant, with his wife and parents, their home in Quaker Neck.

Miss Florence Smith, of Madison, Conn., is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. B. Watson, at Comegys Bight Farm, in Quaker Neck.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, now residing in Riverton, N. J., came last Friday to spend two weeks at her apartment here in the Wickes Apartments.

Mrs. Richard F. Welton III came on Tuesday, enroute from St. Augustine, Fla., to New York, to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck. Lt. Welton, who has been in the southern city for the past three weeks, on a mission, will join Mrs. Welton in New York, and from there they will return to New London, Conn., where they are making their home.

Mr. Walter Hawkins joined his wife last Wednesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry H. Derringer. Remaining until Sunday, both Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins left then to return to their home in Jacksonville, Fla.

Among the out-of-town guests here last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Benj. W. LeSueur, of Baltimore, who visited Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, at Brampton. On Wednesday, Mrs. Douglas Curry, of New York, who has been visiting in Rehobeth, came to visit her brother and sister-in-law at Brampton.

Stll other guests last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarman and Miss Ruth White of Baltimore, who visited Mrs. Elizabeth Trew Russell; Lt. and Mrs. Beverly Hazel who were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. J. Kennard Aldridge; and Mr. and Mrs. Eliot P. Hurd who visited Mrs. Edward A. Hurd at the Reward Farm.

Visitors due this weekk-end inclulde Lt. and Mrs. Arthur Charles Nisula of Washington, D. C., who will visit Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines at Riverside. Mrs. Nisula, formerly Miss Alice Stewart, who has frequently been a guest of Mrs. Hines, is now an Ensign in the WAVES.

Mr. William T. Dixon, will come to-day to spend a month at Green Point Farm, the home of his mother, Mrs. William T. Dixon. Mr. Dixon is taking vacation from the Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he is studying medicne. Mrs. Hurst Purnell returned to Baltmore Saturday, following a visit of several days with her mother.

Mr. George Maxwell, of White Plains, N. Y., will come this week-end to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell, and his three children, who are living with their grand-parents, at Worton Manor.

Lt. Col. Wm. S. Paca, U. S. M., who has been stationed in the Virgin Islands, has joined his wife and son at the home of his sister, Miss Dorothy Paca, on a fifteen day leave, before going to his new post.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks Rasin joined the house-party at the Roe Cottage in Rehobeth last week-end, remaining there throughout the week for a vacation.

The younger set continue to have fun, with their parties here and there for getting around on their bikes is as easy to them, as for us to step in a car. Last week, a number of this set who sail a lot, and who have organized a Pirates' Club held a Dutch Treat supper in the yard in the rear of the homes of Anne Wilmer and Jane Kibler. Following supper, the club and their guests, proceeded to David Massey's and continued the evening with dancing and games. On Monday evening, Charlie Weaver and David entertained at a farewell party the farewell being given for Charlie who with his mother, Mrs. Virginia Weaver, returned to their home in Richmond, Va., on Wednesday, following several weeks stay with Mrs. Thomas Massey.

Mr and Mrs. John G. Schauber of Wilmington, Del., formerly of Chestertown, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born on Monday, August 16th at St. Francis Hospital.

Mrs. Omar D. Crothers and her young son, of Elkton, are guests this week of Mrs. Harry Jefferson.

Miss May Ireland has returned from a visit with relatives in Wilmington, Del., and Haddon Heights, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow will leave on Tuesday for New York where they will spend several days while Mr. Truslow attend sa meeting there.

Miss Martha Bowling of Hughsville, Md., is a guest of Miss Carrie Schreiber, who has returned to her home here following a six weeks course of Summer School at the University of Maryland. Miss Schreiber has accepted a position at the Kensington Junior High School, Montgomery Co., for the coming year.

Mrs. Leonard C. Needles and her son, Leonard, Jr., have returned from a visit of several days in Baltimore.

And now "Day is done and shadows fall"—but time has lost all meaning. Night is day and day is night for many. Until this war is won and there shall be the dawn of Peace, with no night there, we press on in work that we may soon say—

Yours in Victory,

The Wanderer
