Grows Mammoth Melons

Easton—George Hogopian, of Royal Oak, brought to this office the past week several very large Honey Dew melons which he grew on his place. He also brought a very large radish which was larger than most cantaloupes seen this season. It was on display in the window of the Star-Democrat and attracted considerable attention.

Mr. Hagopian raises what he terms Persian melons. These proved to be very sweet and palatable. His Honey Dew melons were exceptionally large. Some of the seed were imported from Europe, and proved once more that Talbot County is adapted to growing most anything.

Kills Exceptionally Large Chicken Hawk

Bel Air—While sitting on his porch Monday, Mr. Cecil F. Holbrook, of Rocks, had his attention attracted by an exceptionally large hawk which flew close by and alighted. While Mr. Holbrook was procuring his gun, the hawk floated over to a woods where it was soon sighted by the eager marksman and brought down with a single shot.

A tape measure disclosed that the hawk had a surprising wing spread of 50 inches, and showed every evidence of being able to take care of itself in the liveliest sort of free-for-all.

Police Are Checking The Loss Of $1,100

Havre de Grace—Local and State police are investigating the mysterious disappearance on Monday of approximately $1,100 in checks and cash from the office of the Coca-Cola Bottling Works on Juniata street.

Mr. J. C. Hebditch, president had prepared the money for deposit and was called out to check the contents of a truck, supposedly leaving the money on the desk. When he rteurned the money was gone. He saw no one enter the office.

The possibility that Mr. Hebditch may have taken the money outside with him and laid it on the running board or seat of the truck was thoroughly checked, but brought no results.

Apples Rate High

An abundant crop of apples is expected this fall, according to fruit specialists. They call attention to the fact that for years the apple has been the popular home-grown fruit. It has so many uses that the homemaker would be lost without apples to serve in feeding her family.
