The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

A semblance of activity has raised its head, socially, within the last two weeks and more and more we hear of a party now and then.

Last Friday evening, Mr. Gerald Meyers entertained a number of friends at a stag party, at his home in Kennedyville.

Then on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Macdonald were hosts in the late afternoon at a cocktail party at their home in Quaker Neck. Mr. Macdonald has accepted a new position in California and will shortly leave for the West Coast.

On Tuesday, quite a large luncheon-bridge was given by Mrs. Frank Taylor at the Royal Swan Hotel in Betterton.

Thursday evening, Mrs. Perry Metcalfe entertained at her home on Water St. at a dessert bridge in honor of Miss Harriett Vane, whose approaching marriage to Mr. Philip V. Kratzer will take place on Saturday, October 23rd in Dover, Del.

On Sunday, Mrs. Simon W. Westcott entertained at a large family dinner, at Scotch Folly, her home near Locust Grove.

Old Shrewsbury Church was the scene last Saturday afternoon, Sept. 11th of a beautiful wedding, which took place at 5 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Ellen Bishop Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spry Ford, of Galena, became the bride of Lt. William Page Carter, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Page Carter, of Nutley, New Jersey. The candlelighted Church was decorated in white gladioli and clematis, and the wedding music furnished by Mrs. Edgar Lusby.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with long square cut train and tulle veil, over which, she wore a smaller lace wedding veil belonging to her great, great grandmother. She carried a white prayerbook and white orchids.

The Matron of Honor, Mrs. James Sydney Thompson, of Oklahoma City, a cousin of the bride, who was attired in a gown of turquoise blue, with tight-fitting jersey bodice and full net skirt, a shoulder length veil of matching tulle, carried a bouquet of red roses, tied with turquoise satin.

The bridesmaids, Misses Harriett and Kitty Ford, sisters of the bride, wore gowns of baby pink, matching the Matron of Honor's in style and material, with similar head-dress and bouquets.

Mr. William Page Carter was best man for his son, while Mr. Herbert S. Ford, brother of the bride, and Mr. Henry Layman, her cousin, of Wilmington, Del., served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of gray crepe, with a corsage of orchids, and a gray-blue crepe gown and orchid corsage was worn by the mother of the groom.

The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles L. Atwater, rector of the church, was followed by a reception at Mill Creek Farm, the home of the bride's parents.

After a short wedding trip, Lt. and Mrs. Carter will make their home in St. Petersburg, Florida, where the groom is serving as an army dentist.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thornton, of the marriage of their daughter, Marie to Mr. David Moreland, of Philadelphia, Pa. in Elkton, Md., on July 24, 1943. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. F. Hopkins.

Mrs. S. G. Caldwell and Mrs. Stewart Price attended the wedding on Saturday, Sept. 11 of Mrs. Caldwell's grand-daughter, Miss Emily Louise Jones to Ensign Valentine Winkleman USNR in Atlanta, Ga. The bride who has visited here many summers as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Price, was popular among the younger set of Chestertown.

Getting ready and getting off to school has been the principal occupation of the younger set for the past ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow accompanied their daughter, Betty to Averett College in Danville, Va., on Monday, while on Wednesday Mrs. Thomas Kibler and Mrs. Philip Wilmer motored with their daughters Jane and Anne, to St. Margaret's in Tappahannock, Va., and St. Katherine's in Richmond, Va. Before returning to Chestertown on Saturday, Mrs. Kibler and Mrs. Wilmer will visit Camp Pickett, Va., where Mrs. Kibler will jjoin Majjor Kibler this winter, at their new home there.

Miss Barabar Brittain of Tallahassee Fla., has been a guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. Harry H. Deringer, before entering Washington College, when she will live at Reid Hall.

Albert (Happy) Lieber and Billy Wilmer left this week for McDonough while Waldo Barroll will return to Gilman's, "Tech" Sease to Sewanee Military Academy on Monday, and Allan Reynolds to Pennington School for Boys, in Pennington, N. J.

Mrs. Richard Carvell, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy, of Emmittsburg, Md., spent several days this week in Clearfield, Pa.

Mrs. Rudulph Tull will leave on Monday for Avalon, N. J., where she will join a group of friends for the week.

An interesting experience might be attained, if passing the Sophie Fisher Inn, one dropped in to see the kindergarten which has been started this year by Miss Harriette Welch. Seventeen little youngsters who never before have left their Mother's sides, are learning habits, creativeness, music, response to rhythm and general knowledge of how to play.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollinger, who celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary on Tuesday, spent the past week-end in Washington, D. C. where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Iola Hollinger Bucher.

Another anniversary too, was quietly celebrated, by Dr. and Mrs. William R. Howell, who observed their 25th wedding anniversary on September 3rd.

Mrs. Paul R. Comegys arrived Wednesday evening from San Francisco, Cal., to remain here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Strong, while Ensign Comegys remains in active duty with the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Robert Tattersall is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter L. Churchman at her apartment on Water St.

Miss Vera Pennington, of Baltimore was a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennington.

Mrs. Walter Klein, with her two daughters, Miss Regina Miller and Mrs. Eileen Foran of Bloomington, Ill., are guests of Mrs. Klein's mother, Mrs. Thomas Willis.

Among the out-of-town guests here last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moorshead of Lansdowne, Pa., who visited Mrs. C. R. Humphreys; and Mrs. William A McGregor, of Silver Springs, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Allan McGregor.

BY the way, before saying good-BYE, remember the drive is on to BUY.

BUY WHAT? You and I know, so its.....Yours for a Bond.

QUARTER MILLION POULTRY THEFT ON PENINSULA

Nineteen men, all but two of them truck drivers, today pleaded guilty to stealing or receiving more than $250,000 worth of chickens being shipped by Delaware growers to markets in Pennsylvania or New York. The men had been arraigned before Judge Paul Leahy in the United States District Court here.

Not guilty pleas were entered by eleven other defendants, all of whom were rounded up by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and the State police. Five others are to be arraigned within a few days, according to Stewart Lynch, United States District Attorney.

Judge Leahy announced that sentences will be deferred pending investigation by the probation department of those convicted. Each of the nineteen faces of maximum penalty of ten years in a Federal penitentiary, a $5,000 fine, or both. On charges of stealing from inter-State shipments or receiving goods stolen from inter-State shipments.

State Police, checking the theft of a bicycle noted a large poultry truck stop and unload two crates of poultry at a butcher shop and then continue on its way. This lead to an investigation over a period of months which resulted in the discovery of the tremendous poultry racket.

It was stated that it was not unusual for drivers of the large trucks to dispose of from $50.00 to $100.00 worth of poultry each trip which take was in addition to wages and expenses. It was further stated that each driver arrested posted $2500 bond in cash.

The quarantine on dogs now in force in several sections of Maryland is the responsibility of the Maryland State Board of Agriculture, says Dr. Mark Welsh State Veterinarian. Maryland law specifically authorizes and instructs this agency to issue such quarantines and restrictions, he says, as are necessary to control and eradicate such diseases as rabies, anthrax, foot and mouth disease and others. The law further instructs all local law inforcement agencies to cooperate and assist in enforcing the quarantine restrictions.
