Dear Roamer

Mr. and Mrs. Philip V. Kratzer, who will return to their home here Saturday, following their wedding trip, will be guests of honor, at a party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvell at their home on Water St., on Sunday at noon. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Kratzer took place last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents in Dover, Del.

A full description of the other wedding last Saturday runs thus:

The marriage of Florence Estelle Walls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Walls, and Ensign Joseph Wilbur Strong, U. S. N R., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Strong, took place at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 23rd., in Old Saint Paul's Episcopal Church near Fairlee Maryland. Rev. William Wyllie was the officiating minister.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin with a sweetheart neckline. The smart long waistline with pepleum effect was edged with a lace ruffle. The neck and long tight sleeves that pointed over her hands were also edged with lace. The wide skirt ended in a long flowing fanshaped court train. A dainty pearl embroidered halo held her fingertip tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of baby breath and bride's roses.

Mrs. J. Bates Walls, of Easton, Maryland, sister of the bride, wearing a gown of Nile green taffeta and carrying a bouquet of Talisman roses and baby breath, was Matron of Honor. Her gown with a tight bodice and very full skirt had a sweetheart neck, and three-quarter sleeves trimmed with crochet in the fabric of the dress. She wore a pearl trimmed bandeaux with shoulder length veil matching her gown.

Mrs. Robert H. Strong of Wildwood New Jersey, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Vannort Simpers of Chestertown, classmate of the bride, attired in Heaven blue taffeta gowns, carrying Pink roses with baby breath; and Mrs. Frank O. Sutton of Fairlee sister of the groom, and Miss Betty Burris of College Park, Maryland, cousin of the bride wearing gowns of Indian rose taffeta and carrying yellow roses with baby breath, were brides-maids. They wore pearl trimmed bandeaux to match the shade of their gowns.

Ensign Robert H. Strong, of Wildwood, New Jersey, was best man for his brother.

The ushers were Mr. J. Edgar Strong, Jr., of Washington, D. C., brother of the groom; Mr. Edger E. Walls, Jr., Easton, Maryland, brother of the bride; Mr. Frank O. Sutton, Fairlee, Maryland, brother-in-law of the groom; and Mr. Albert Miller Strong, Baltimore, Maryland, cousin of the groom.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Gibbs, organist at the church, while, Mrs. Howard Dana sang, "I Love You Truly" andd "Because" prior to the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Strong, mother of the bridegroom, wore black velvet with black accessories with a corsage of white gardenias.

Following the wedding a reception for the families and friends was held at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. After a wedding trip, Ensign Strong and his bride will reside at 115 East Fern Road, Wildwood, New Jersey.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding reception of Miss Miriam Patricia Morris daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Maurice Morris and Kenneth Todd Young, Jr., U. S. A. A. F. which will be held at "The Lindens," in Washington, D. C., the home of the bride's parents, on Saturday, Oct. 30, at 5.30 in the afternoon.

Miss Morris, a graduate of Vassar College made her ddebut in Washington and at the Bachelors' Cotillion in Baltimore. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown.

Mr. Young is a graduate of Harvard University and attended Lingnan University in Canton, China, and the Sorbonne in Paris. He is the son of Mrs. Hunt Young, of Cambridge, Mass., and Kenneth Todd Young, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Kellogg-Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Hathaway Kellogg-Smith, to Private Richard Walter Blohm of the United States Army Air Corps, stationed at Kerns Field, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Private Blohm is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Campbell Blohm, of Klamath Falls Oregon.

Miss Kellogg-Smith is now attending Reed College in Portland Oregon.

Congratulations are being received by Major and Mrs. Rhoderick Blackhurst on the birth of a daughter born on Tuesday, Oct. 26th at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

After a long absence from Chestertown, Mrs. C. Beck Jones, senior hostess at Camp Lee, Va., and her sister, Mrs. Emily Hamilton, of St. Louis, Mo., will come on Sunday to be guests of their aunt, Mrs. Allan A. Harris, next week.

One of the large fall parties will be held on Wednesday afternoon at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club when Mrs. Wm. H. Moyer will entertain at dessert-bridge.

Going to New York for a visit these days seems to be quite the fad. Any number of people seem to either have just returned, be on their way, or packing to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eshman and their son, Tommy have returned from a week's visit there; Mrs. James W. Chapman III, who upon receiving a telephone call from Lieut. (j. g.) Chapman, U. S. N. R., on Saturday evening, saying that he was "in", left on Sunday to join her husband there for a few days; and on Monday, Mrs. A. C. Dick, Mrs. Dorsey Hines and Miss Martha Speicher will leave for a week's visit to the Metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaughnessy of Emmitsburg, Md., are spending this week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer, having been among the out-of-town guests at the Kratzer-Vane wedding last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood who spent a few days in New York, since their arrival here, are also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kratzer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, of Germantown, Pa., were guests last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph F. Tull.

Other out-of-town guests over last week-end included Mr. and Mrs. Eliot P. Hurd, of Baltimore, who visited the former's mother, Mrs. Edward A. Hurd at "The Reward Farm." And by the way, stealing a little news from the "Armed Forces" column, we might insert here the fact that Mrs. Hurd, Sr. this week received a cable from her husband, Captain Hurd in England, saying that he and their eldest son, Lieut. Edward A. Hurd, Jr., had spent last week-end together.

Mrs. H. O. Werner, accompanied by her young daughter, and her mother, Mrs. Ward, will in the near future move to Montreal, Canada, where Lieut. Werner, former professor at Washington College, is now stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Nathaniel D. Sollers and her young daughter, Sally, spent last week-end in St. Michaels, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tull.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Covey are visiting in Upper Darby, Pa., as guests of their daughter.

Lieut. and Mrs. William Worth Geddes and Miss Ann Geddes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Bramwell Geddes, at Manor Shores last week-end.

Now comes Hallowe'en—the mystic night of the year. Perhaps we'll see some big black cats, or witches we may meet, while boys and girls in funny clothes will run about the street. But witches ride on Hallowe'en, their cloaks are black, their eyes are green. E-e-k!

Yours shuddering,

The Wanderer
