Urges All To Take Pneumonia Serum

Dr. A. F. Whitsitt, Kent County Health Director, urges everyone to get the one-shot immunizing pneumonia antigen from his family physician, especially if subject to severe colds, sore throats, sinusitis, or ear infections. It is variously estimated that thirty to forty percent of the most severe attacks of the above are due to the pneumonia organism, while ninety-eight to ninety-nine percent of all Lobar Pneumonia cases are due to the pneumococcus. This so-called pneumonia serum immunizes one against the pneumococcus only, and thus, is not a cure-all for all respiratory diseases. It is, however, the best preventative that is available to date.

In the Kent County Health Department study of the past three years, Dr. Whitsitt states that these are the results:

In 1940, there were 2,095 individuals immunized with no cases of Lobar Pneumonia developing in this group. However, of the 11,250 not immunized, there were fifty-five cases of Lobar Pneumonia. In 1941, there were 2450 immunized, with no cases of Lobar Pneumonia, but thirty-six cases developed in the 10,890 not immunized. In 1942, there were 2970 immunized with no cases in this group but of the 10,030 not immunized there were thirty-four cases of Lobar Pneumonia.

The greatest over-all benefit from the serum seems to be in the reduction of the number of severe respiratory conditions, thus keeping our war workers on the job.

Dr. Lloyd D. Felton, of the National Institute of Health, United States Public Health Service, has spent most of his life in developing this pneumonia prophylaxis material. The Kent County Health Department feels honored to have been selected as one of the few counties in the United States to receive Dr. Felton's serum, which will not be available to the general public until after the war.

The Kent County Health Department has just received the Certificate of Merit for Achievement in the annual observance of National Negro Health Week, and for participation in the Year-Round Program of the National Negro Health Movement, sponsored by the United States Public Health Service.

The Millington School of Kent County has been designated winner of the Third Award in the 1943 National Negro Health Week Poster Contest. This is an outstanding honor for Miss Irene D. Stryckning, teacher, and the pupils of the Milington School, as their poster, which placed first in the County-wide contest, was judged third best in the United States.

Garnett Elementary School received Special Mention. This is sixth from the highest award in the National Contest.

The following Kent County Schools received a Certificate of Commendation for submitting posters in the same contest:

Worton Point School
Olivet Hill School
Edesville School
Butlertown School
Garnet High School

Easton—Canie Warner, of Windy Hill, brought to this town last week two hills of peanuts which he grew at his home. He stated that he has 400 hills, and will harvest five or six bushels. He plans to eat peanuts and apples winter evenings while sitting by the fireside.

One thing he pointed out. That is, that at the roots of the plants are found quite a few black widow spiders. Last year, he said, a large bottle was filled with these spiders which he trapped from the roots of the peanut vines. Just why they congregate at the roots of these plants he did not know. These spiders are as deadly as a rattlesnake.

Howard S. Leaverton, member of Kent County A.A.A. Committee announces the dairy feed payment rates for Maryland are for sale of whole milk 40c per cwt. Payments will also be made on butter and cream for sale as cream.

It is important that immediate steps be taken in order to get the dairy feed payments started as soon as possible after the October month's sales of dairy products are completed; however it is necessary to have your complete recorde for the entire month of October before any payment can be determined. Watch the papers for further details.
