The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

The traditional bad penny always turns up, and so after wandering away, forgetting all cares attendant a newspaper, I'm back on the job again. From all reports regarding my substitute last week, I might as well stay away—but you can't get rid of me so easily, so here goes on another three year round.

Returning in time to attend the dinner and dance at the Country Club Saturday night, was a real pleasure, for the evening was a howling success and much credit and gratitude is due to the committee in charge.

Most attractive invitations were also issued, to a dessert bridge at the Country Club, which was given on Wednesday of this week by Mrs.Robert Farr and Mrs. A. F. Whitsitt.

The party was attractive as the invitations and followed the Thanksgiving motif. Each table, held as a centerpiece, a small wooden bowl,filled with fruit, beside which was a small turkey made of a pine comb and pipe cleaners. All very clever. At the conclusion, the bowls of fruit ad turkeys were given to the high and low at each table, beside the regular prizes.

On Saturday, November 27, Mrs. Phiip V. Kratzer, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon - bridge to be given by Mrs. John Stokes at her home in Sudlersville.

Mrs. Clifton Miller entertained at luncheon -bridge last Satudrey afternoon, at her home, Hinchingham, in honor of Mrs. Charles Wood, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was her house guest.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Duncan Deringer entertained at the second in a series of dessert-bridge parties, having been hostess last Thursday at the first.

Also on Thursday, Mrs. R. N. Whaley entertained at the first of two teas on Thursday afternoon in the Wickes apartments, where she and Mr. Whaley are living for the fall months. The second tea will be given on Tuesday afternoon, while on Friday, Mrs. Whaley will be hostess at a luncheon bridge.

Still another party on Thursday evening was a dessert-bridge given by Mrs. Claude Truslow who entertained at the second in series of these parties at her home, Chester Side.

An interesting engagement is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lamb, of Chestertown, which is of Mrs. Lamb's daughter, Mary Louise Smith, to Mr. Franklin L. Cronshaw, sonof Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Cronshaw, of Barclay, Md. No date has been set for the wedding.

And still another engagement has just come in: Mr. and Mrs. William Bramble announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna Elizabeth to Harold Hodge Coleman, of Kennedyville, Md. Miss Bramble is a graduate of Galena High School, class of 1943, and now has a position in Chestertown. With U. S. Forces

Annapolis, Maryland, November 17 Flight Surgeon Joseph H. George, of Sudlersville, son of Senator Joseph H. George of Queen Anne's County, was the receipient of congratulations today from Governor Herbert R. O'Conor upon his selection by United States Army authorities in Great Britain to accompany the first group of wounded repatriated prisoners to America.

Captain George, recently promoted from First Lieutenant, delivered his fourteen charges to the Walter Reed General Hospital, in Washington by plane, and returned overseas by the same plane the following day.

"It is certainly a signal honor that your son was selected by the United States Army in Great Britian," Governor O'Conor wrote Senator George "to be Flight Surgeon to accompany the first group of repatriated soldiers to America."

The repatriated Americans who were taken from German Prison camps in Sweden, included several Baltimoreans, among them Second Lieutenant Glenn H. Harrington and Sergeant Frank Bartnicki.
