IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Jennie LeSage, who passed away just one year ago April 8th, 1943.

April brings sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest;
But she will always be remembered
By the ones who loved her best.

Some where back of the Sunset,
Where the loveliness never dies,
She lives in the land of glory,
With the blue and gold of the skies.

We who have known and loved her,
Whose passing has brought sad tears;
Will cherish her memory always,
To brighten the passing years,
Sadly missed by her Daughter, Reba.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Joseph Clifton Everett. Who departed this life 14 years ago today, April 4, 1930.

A broken circle a vacant chair
We seem to miss you everywhere
But in our lonely hour of thinking
Thoughts of you are ever near.

The face we loved is now laid low
His loving voice is still
The hand so often clasped in mine
Lies now in deaths cold still.

I often sit and think of him
When I am all alone
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Loving Mother.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear Mother and Wife Jennie LeSage who left us one year ago on April 8 1943.

As we look back through the years, our thoughts recall the many friends who have shared the pathway of our lives, who have shed our proclivities a Beneficient Influence, and instilled within our hearts, the love and appreciation which wil be a fount of cherished memories.

Today on April 8 we bow to the enevitable verdict of our dear mother and wife, and mingle our tears with each other and herein record the admirable impression she created upon us and her many friends. A perfect woman, nobly planned, to warm, comfort and command.

She was to all her acquaintances a cherished friend, cheerful and just, devoted to all, unselfish to the highest degree, liberal in views, loving and attentive to her family, always happy and cheerful.

In her home she enjoyed a social life in which tranquility and refinement ruled, guided by a conscientious and a right example.

When the celestial Emissary came to guide her way in the mysterious migration through the shadows she waited, radiant, triumphant with a smile, that remained even after her soul had winged its flight to the untroubled zone of new existence.

Having enjoyed the esteem of the entire community she will be long remembered. A beautiful life is ended. A dear one laid to rest. The flower we lovingly cherished was lost to us at its best, But in the heart of this flower I see her in a bit of the sky so blue. On the edge of the river gleaming, In the sunsets vivid hue. On the hilltop where the breeze is blowing, There I linger for a while, etched in the clouds above me is the shadow of her smile.

Sadly missed,
HUSBAND and CHILDREN
