Dear Roamer

News in the matrimonial trend attracts our interest to-day, as we learn of the announcement of two and read of an approaching wedding. In order of their occurrence, we are told that:

M. when T-5 Jeanette Mullikin Shallcross, WAC, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Shallcross of Rock Hall, Md., became the bride of Serg. Homer A. Hall, son of Mrs. Henry L. Hall and the late Mr. Hall, of Magnolia, Miss. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Ollie Matthews of the U. S. Army.

Her Maid of Honor, Corporal Evelyn Bowers, likewise in uniform, wore a corsage of dusty pink carnations.

The wedding music was played by Serg. Berg, while Serg. "Chris" Christenson sang two numbers "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

Following the ceremony the bridal party was entertained at the Gunter Hotel in San Antonio, after which the bride and groom left for New Orleans, La. At Magnolia, Miss., they visited Serg. Hall's mother, en route to Mrs. Hall's parents in Rock Hall, where they have spent several days. On Wednesday, they left for Fort Sill, Okla., where Serg. Hall is now stationed. College Receives Valuable Collection

Washington College has just placed on deposit in the George A. Bunting Library a collection of engraved portraits, political campaign cartoons, and photographs presented to the College in 1918 by the late Judge James A. Pearce. They have been previously in the collection of the late Dean J. S. W. Jones, where they have recently been found.

The political cartoons, some of them in color, are of the leading figures in the Presidential campaign of 1840, and all of them are unfavorable to VanBuren and in support of Harrison.

There is also a collection of sixteen engraved portraits of Justices of the Supreme Court in pre-Civil War days.

Most interesting is a portfolio of thirty engraved portraits of important governmental and literary leaders in England in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries. All are dated as having been engraved between 1738 and 1741, and are in excellent condition.

The collection will be preserved and later exhibited by Mr. H. L. Boisen, Director of the Library.

With the prospect of full farm production being needed in 1946, Dr. T. B. Symons, Dean and Director of Extension at the University of Maryland's College of Agriculture advises that we should continue to use war prisoners to help farmers and food processors until we are certain that other labor is available. Labor for the fall harvests is the urgent need in all farm sections of Maryland today.

At the Bittle home, the shade trees, the shrubbery and the colorful fall flowers made an effective setting for the tables scattered about the grounds where a bountiful picnic-style dinner was greatly enjoyed.

Afterwards, the guests assembled in the living room about the piano and sang many well-known hymns, led by the Rev. John Parker. Duets were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Parker, and by Virginia and Glenn Pippin. Miss Mary R. Downes entertained with instrumental solos.
