The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

The week-end promises to be rather gay with parties here and there scattered over the calendar. To-night, Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell will entertain at supper in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell.

Then on Saturday, there will be a dance at the Country Club, before which Mrs. G. Howard Dana will entertain at dinner, and still another dinner party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Brown Roe in Sudlersville.

In the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins will entertain at the Club in honor of Judge and Mrs. Stephen R. Collins. Judge and Mrs. Collins will have as their week-end guests Col. and Mrs. Augusto Miceli, of New Orleans, La. Col. Miceli has recently returned from three years service overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Embert held open house Tuesday evening in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.

With the war's end, a gradual regression is taking place in all communities. Within the next week there will have been at least three families that Peace has effceted their return. On Monday, Mrs. Robert W. Farr and her infant daughter returned to their apartment in the Dwyer Apartments, after having spent the past winter in Baltimore with Mrs. Farr's mother. Captain Farr of the U. S. A. Medical Corps has been transferred from the European Theatre to the Pacific, and no word as to when he may receive his discharge has been received. His sister, Lt. Mary Farr, who served with the Johns Hopkins Medical Corps, overseas, has received her discharge and has been spending several days with her sister-in-law, and with her aunt, Mrs. W. P. Roberts. She is a graduate of Washington College and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Farr of Centreville.

Lt. and Mrs. Frank Goodwin will return to Chestertown this week-end and have taken an apartment in the house owned by Mrs. Ronald Wilson, formerly occupied by Major and Mrs. Richard Norris. Lt. Goodwin, formerly a member of the Washington College faculty, will only remain over the week-end, as he has not as yet received his discharge from the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ridgely Baker, will come this week-end to visit the latter's mother, Mrs. Fred Westcott. Next week they will move from Baltimore to Kent County, where they will make their home in Quaker Neck.

Guests over the week-end of Mrs. Hynson Beck were Miss Virginia Beeler of Towson, Md., and Mrs. A. Skirven Townshend, of Easton, Md.

Mrs. A. E. Dryden, accompanied by Miss Sue Ermintinger and Miss Marjorie Kramer of New York City were guests of Mrs. Dryden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bonwill Dukes.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon T. Chaires of Washington, spent last week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chaires.

Mrs. Ella P. Robinson is visiting her son, Mr. W. Allan Robinson, in Coraopolis, Pa., this week.

Mrs. George Pennington, Mrs. Howard Pennington and Mrs. Urie Jones will leave to-day for Wooster, Ohio, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. George Pennington, Jr., for a week.

Looking toward next week's activities the first bridge party of the Fall season will be held at 7:30 P. M. on Monday night at the Country Club and one every Monday night following. This year it will not be duplicate but regular bridge, with appropriate prizes given each night.

On Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6th, Mrs. Ernest H. Strong will be hostess at a tea to be given at her home on Riverside Terrace, from 4 to 6 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory M. Bonwill, Jr., have announced the birth of a daughter born at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital on Monday evening, Sept. 24. Mrs. Bonwill was formerly Miss Emily Brice of Betterton.

Mrs. and Mrs. Richard George are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter born on Saturday, at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. Incidentally, the baby's birthday, was the 17th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George.

Time's up now, and no time to say good-bye other than the shortest way, which after all, sometimes is the best way.

Yours in haste,

The Wanderer

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Our town has heroes, too

Over at Thistle Ridge they're always boasting about their local heroes—ancestors in the Revolutionary War, congressmen, and an artist with pictures in the Metropolitan Museum.

Well, we've got our local heroes, too ...

There was old Doc Turner, who fought for years against the intolerance and bigotry that kept children from being vaccinated in our county.

And Deacon Follensby, who fought for free pews in the churches; Jess Hackney, who campaigned for teaching honest history in schools; Wedd Towers, who fought the encroachment of Prohibition in our county and persuaded folks they wanted tolerance and moderation in place of a return to lawlessness.

You won't find monuments to these folks. But from where I sit, they're heroes in a cause that's pretty sacred in our town: the cause of freedom, tolerance, and human dignity.
