Dear Roamer

Two weddings of interest took place in Kent County last Saturday afternoon. One was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Jr., in Kennedyville where their daughter, Anna Rebecca, became the bride of Mr. Eugene V. Holahan, son of Mrs. Joseph Holahan, of Flushing, N. Y.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and net with a finger tip veil. Her sister, Miss E. Marie Miller, attired in blue chiffon, acted as Maid of Honor.

Pfc. J. Robert Chenu of Flushing, N. Y., served as the groom's best man.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lester E. Loder, pastor of the Kennedyville Methodist Church, while Miss Lillian A. Matthews, of Baltimore, played the wedding music.

Mrs. Holahan is a graduate of the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Wilmington, and until her marriage was a technician at Fort DuPont. Mr. Holahan was recently discharged from the Army Air Force after serving 30 months in the European Theatre of Operations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and the couple left for a motor trip north. They will make their future home in Flushing, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scotten announce the marriage of their daughter, Sara Elizabeth, to Franklin M. Dill, G. M. 1-c, of the U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hope Dill of Worton, Md., Saturday, September 29. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Lester E. Loder at the Methodist Parsonage, Kennedyville, Md. The couple was attended by Miss Merva Scotten, sister of the bride, and M. Robert Sutton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geipe, twin sister and brother-in-law, of the groom were also present. The bride wore a suit of blue gabardine with black acces sories and a corsage of white pompoms. The Maid of Honor wore a suit of brown gabardine with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow pompoms. Mrs. Dill is associated with the U. S. Employment Service in Chestertown. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Dill will live near Chestertown.

Two other weddings which have just recently been announced are the Bramble-Connolley and the McClure-Tucker nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Bramble announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Irma Bramble and Mr. Harrison Connolley, son of Mrs. Carroll Connolley and the late Mr. Connolley of Millington. The double ring ceremony took place on Saturday evening, Sept. 22, at the rectory of St. Dennis Catholic Church in Galena with the Rev. Edward M. Leinheiser officiating. The bridegroom's sister, Cadet Nurse Ellen Connolley of Baltimore was maid of honor. Mr. Gordon Lee Connolley was his brother's best man.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will live near Millington.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Lee McClure of Seattle, Wash., and Pfc. Samuel Robert Tucker, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tucker of Rock Hall. The ceremony took place Saturday afternoon, Sept. 8, in the post chapel at Camp Chaffee, Ark., with Army Chaplain George Stobs, who had served with the bridegroom in the European campaigns, officiating.

Miss Nellie Truslow who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. E. Clyde Fox for the past week will go to Annapolis this week-end to attend the Naval Academy hop on Saturday evening. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow are patients at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore.

The October meeting of the Chestertown Garden Club will be held on Tuesday, October 9th. This month, members will assemble at the home of Mrs. John E. Speicher, and from there, go to Camp Tockwogh, beautifully located on the Chesapeake Bay. This camp owned by the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. has offered to Kent Countains many privileges, and the Garden Club is taking an advantage of holding one of its Fall meetings at this attractive spot.

Among the out-of-town guests here last week-end included Miss Anna Avers and Miss Ruth McVean, members of the faculty of the Ellicott City High School, who visited Mr. and Mrs. James D. McVean.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, of New York, visited their aunt, Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb over the week-end and were accompanied on their return to New York, by Mrs. Newcomb and Mrs. Herzberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lancaster, of Chester, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lancaster, last week-end.

Mrs. A. G. Peacock, of Jamaica, N. Y., is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. H. Sides for a few days.

Miss Louise Schreiber of Catonsville, Md., was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Schreiber.

News of encouragement comes to us from those who are ill. Mrs. Allan A. Harris and Mrs. H. Clay Brown both of whom are patients at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital are improving, while Mrs. James G. Beck who became ill last Sunday morning is convalescing at her home on Queen St.

Mrs. S. P. Townshend sustained a broken collar bone in a fall in her home on Washington Ave., on Tuesday and is now under treatment at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Mr. R. N. Whaley is a patient at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital with a badly lacerated finger.

Over the week-end, probably the largest party scheduled, will be the tea to be given by Mrs. Ernest Strong on Saturday afternoon.

Well, here's to October with its clear blue skies, leaves of gold and frost on the pumpkin—our favorite month!

Yours for its glory,

The Wanderer

O'CONOR STARTS MOVE TO LOWER INCOME TAX

Annapolis, October 3—In a move looking toward possible reduction of State taxes, and the income tax in particular, Governor Herbert R. O'Conor has asked the Board of Public Works to give first consideration to such tax reduction in deciding upon the disposition of expected surplus fnds likely to accrue to the State during the remainder of the fiscal year of 1945.

Legal authority is vested in the Board of Public Works, Governor O'Conor pointed out, to utilize any surplus in the State's general funds, in excess of the working fund of $2,000,000 prescribed by law, for any of the following purposes:

(1) Reduction in income tax.
(2) Reduction in property tax.
(3) Allocation of surplus to post-war construction purposes.

While expressing a sympathetic interest in all three possible uses of any surplus funds, Governor O'Conor declared that he felt strongly that the utmost consideration was due the tax payers who helped create any surplus that may accrue. He pointed to the recent transfer of $6,200,000 from surplus to the post-war construction fund as indication of the desirability for programming a great part of this new construction from funds in hand. At the same time, he called attention to the fact that much of this construction cannot be undertaken immediately because of existing conditions.

The Governor has asked the Board of Public Works to review present revenues and estimates of anticipated receipts in the hope that a further reduction may be made in taxes affecting 1945 calendar year incomes.

Such a move, Governor O'Conor asserted, is thoroughly in line with his belief that tax reductions should be attempted by all levels of government to stimulate business and private enterprise, and to relieve in some measure the heavy tax load ught about by the war.

Cheese Adds Flavor To Variety Of Dishes

One just can't say too much about cheese and it's ability to dress up such a variety of dishes—from meat right on through vegetables—Just take for example the lowly frankfurter (hot dog to most of us)—a bit of cheese turns it from something usually seen wrapped in a bun to a very suitable and tasty dinner dish. Then take a vegetable casserole—everyone has tried one type of the other, but the combination of summer squash with tomatoes and grated cheese is one that everyone should try.

CHEESE FRANKFURTERS

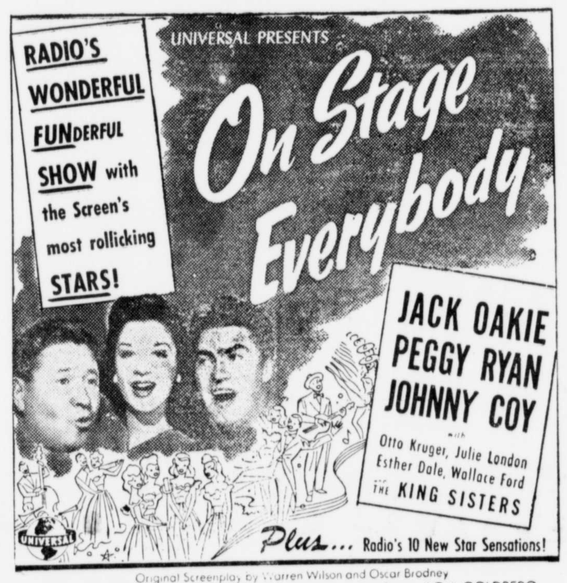

6 frankfuters
¼ pound American cheese
6 slices bacon

Cut a lengthwise slit in each frankfurter. Cut strips of American cheese the length of frankfurter and about ¼ inch thick. Fill slit with strip of cheese; wrap slice of bacon around each frankfurter and fasten ends with toothpicks. Broil frankfurters slowly, turning often until bacon and frankfurters are cooked through and browned. Serves 3.

SUMMER SQUASH-TOMATO CASSEROLE

1½ pounds summer squash
4 tomatoes, sliced
2 medium onions, sliced
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ cup dry bread crumbs
½ cup grated cheese
2 tablespoons butter
