Dear Roamer

Although I will be scribbling a bit of chatter a day earlier next week, really before Thanksgiving, what news I have now better be told. Why put off for to-morrow, what I can do today? As I said last week, it appears that the coming week will be quite festive and gay.

On Tuesday, a large dessert-bridge will be given in the afternoon at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club by Mrs. William H. Moyer and Mrs. Bonwill Dukes.

Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Myers will entertain at a cocktail party in the late afternoon at their home in Kennedyville. The same evening, the big cabaret dance will be given at the Country Club, before which, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvell will be hosts at a dinner party.

Invitaiton have been received for Saturday, Nov. 24, when Mr. and Mrs. Morton Coale will entertain in the late afternoon at their home South East Farm, in Queen Anne's.

So all in all, even this far ahead, with all the last minute impromptus that crop up, the coming week will hardly be dull.

Returning to the present, however, this week-end has on its schedule two parties. One will be given on Friday, to-day, when Mrs. Roland Corey will entertain at a luncheon-bridge at her home, Columbia Manor in compliment to two recent brides Mrs. Bergen Brown and Mrs. R. Wroth Stavely.

Saturday evening, Mrs. Allan B. Harris will entertain a number of friends at dinner.

Sgt. and Mrs. Horace V. Needles whose marriage took place recently were recipients of a miscellaneous shower given at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman who live near Sudlersville. Mrs. Needles was before her marriage, Miss Elizabeth Holden of Church Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bramwell Geddes, Jr., of Baltimore, have announced the birth of a son, born Nov. 8 at the Hospital for the Women of Maryland. The child will be named Frank Bramwell Geddes 3d. Mrs. Geddes was Miss Cornelia Burton Machen, of Baltimore. Mr. Geddes is the older son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Bramwell Geddes of Manor Shores Farm.

Sgt. and Mrs. Douglas Moore are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Williamson, born Nov. 6th. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Elizabeth Woodburn of Franklin, Pa., and has frequently visited here as the guest of her aunt, Miss Dorothy Paca, at Kentfields in Quaker Neck.

Travel-talk: Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewin Burris of Queen St. are spending a few days in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown spent last week-end in Baltimore as guests of Misses Miriam and Virginia Jones, and while there attended the Navy-Michigan game.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Covey are guests of their daughter in Upper Darby, Pa.

Mrs. W. B. Miles, Mrs. Edward Jacoby and Mrs. John Ray Patterson of Philadelphia came on Wednesday to remain over the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Tull. They will be joined on Saturday by Mr. Miles and Mr. Jacoby.

Lt. Commander Vernon Kirby and Mrs. Kirby with their young daughter, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Kirby last week. Commander Kirby who has rceently returned from the Pacific will report to Norfolk in the near future.

Mrs. J. E. Cross, Jr., and her young daughter, of Baltimore are guests this week of Mrs. J. Philip Skipp. They will be joined over the week-end by Mr. Cross, before returning to Baltimore.

Misses Miriam and Virginia Jones and Mr. Wardale McAllister will be guests this week-end of Mrs. J. S. Wm. Jones.

Mrs. Wade Atkinson, of Washington, sister of Mr. Charles Eshman, and Miss Adah Bennett, of New York, were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Eshman at the Voshell House.

Lt. and Mrs. Paul R. Comegys will arrive the first of next week from California. Lt. Comegys will have received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Naval Reserves by then.

Did you know that the first national Thanksgiving Proclamation was issued in 1863 by President Lincoln? Only 82 years have we had this national holiday.

Yours for its continuation,

The Wanderer

What's missing in this Picture?

It's only a small part of the big Thanksgiving meal . . . but a good glass of beer certainly rounds out the flavor and goodness of everything on the holiday table.

If you put Arrow in the picture, here's what you can look forward to with pleasure:

Your Thanksgiving beer will be bright and light with a sunniness that words cannot tell about. There will be a special goodness . . . a special flavor and tang that definitely proves that when you make it Arrow . . . you'll make it a bright Thanksgiving.
