The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Come ye thankful people, come! Raise the song of Harvest Home, for 'tis Thanksgiving.

This little note to-day might be called Guest List, for having told you of the parties scheduled last week, we have to-day practically no other news than the number of visitors arriving, or among those here over last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Andrews, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Harry B. Cannon, arrived at Maiden Lot, last Sunday after two years in a Japanese concentration camp. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, whose home was in Shanghai, China, previous to the war, will remain here for an indefinte period of time.

General Walter Baker, U. S. Army Retired, and Mrs. Baker, of Washington, were guests last week-end of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown at Godlington Manor. Gen. Baker was former chief of chemical warfare.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mead of Stamford, Conn., were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead. While here they attended the Navy-Wisconsin game in Baltimore, Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Hodson of East Orange, N. J., was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Mead on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, of Ingleside, Md., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers, of Washington Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Spaulding of Baltimore, were guests last week-end of Mrs. James G. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown.

Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Old, arrived in Chestertown Monday from Blacksstone, Va., and has reopened her home on Water St.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Welton III, of Virginia Beach, Va., will come on Friday to remain as guests over the week-end of Mrs. S. Scott Beck.

Miss Peggy Truslow, a student at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Va., and Bill Wilmer, a student at McDonogh School, are among the few who will return here for the Thanksgiving holidays, as many of the colleges and schools are having a longer Christmas holiday.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Paff and their two young sons, of Solomon's Island, Md., and Mr. William P. Atwater of Baltimore, arrived this week to spend Thanksgiving and the holiday week-end as guests of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Atwater at the Rectory.

Mrs. Ella P. Robinson spent last week-end in Wilmington, Del., as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lloyd, Jr., who will soon locate in their recently purchased home at Mt. Lebanon, in the Pittsburgh district.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Watson, of Comegys Bight Farm, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter born last Saturday evening at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Mrs. F. D. Lamb was the honor guest at a birthday dinner last Sunday in celebration of her 89th birthday. On Monday she received a "card shower" which extended the congratulations of her many friends.

And now let us hope all is safely gathered in, 'ere the winter's storms begin—

Yours giving thanks,

Olives With Fish

Here is a new and quite different garnish and accompaniment for fish: place ripe olives in a shallow pan. Cover with french dressing and bake in a moderate oven for five minutes. Serve hot with lemon slices on fish.

Mexico Growing

The population of Mexico has risen to more than 21,600,000, according to the Mexican statistical office. This means that Mexico is the second most populous country in Latin America. Brazil stands first, with 46,000,000 inhabitants. Since the last national census in 1940, Mexico's population has increased nearly 2,000,000.

4-H CLUB NEWS

What do you do in your spare time? Do you really have a good time at a party? If you do, it's because the leader really knows how to conduct Group Recreation. This winter another school will be conducted on Leadership in Group Recreation. If you would like to attend this school—would really like to learn how to conduct recreation yourself—tell your local leader or club president before December 1. They will let you know later when and where the school is to be held.

Senior 4-H

The Senior 4-H Club held its first meeting in two months at the Kennedyville School on November 6. Martha Lumpkin led the group in a 4-H song, and Julia Wharton flolowed this with a report on activities at State Club Day at College Park.

The Progressive Hike to be held November 11 was brought up for discussion. Anna Ruth Wagner was in charge of the Vesper Service. Martha Lumpkin was appointed as chairman of a committee to rewrite the constitution for our club.

A Christmas party is to be held at the next meeting. The program committee includes Jack Davidson, Walter Hadaway, Mary Lou Burris, and Margaret Hatcherson. We were reminded of our pledge at College Park to help in the sale of Victory Bonds.

Rock Hall

The 4-H Club of Rock Hall held a meeting on November 14. We had received a letter from Miss Emerson encouraging us all to help in the sale of Victory Bonds. We therefore decided to see how many bonds each individual could sell before the next meeting.

Miss Schellinger gave a demonstration on Meat Canning. Dorothy Jones and Phyllis Newnam showed the club a few toys, tablecloths, and pot holders which they had made.

One of our club goals is to enlarge the enrollment of our club. This month we took in three new members Myra Kendall, Nila Kay Stevens, and Susan Ann Carter.

Galena

The Galena 4-H Club met on November 13 at the Galena Fire House. Opening numbers of the program were "Anchors Aweigh" and "Old Black Joe". After this we played a new game, "Going to New York."

Miss Schellinger showed a movie on 4-H work. Some of the main points brought out were Good Posture and What We Can Do For the 4-H Club. Plans were then made for the next meeting.

Kingston Club Has Flag Raising

On Sunday Armistice Day, the Kingstown Community Club commemorated the day by raising a flag on the county park in nearby Kingstown in Queen Anne's.

The Firemen's Band played an opening number after which the president introduced the master of ceremonies, Mr. David Williamson, and the speaker, Sen. Joseph George. Senator George who is a charter member of the club emphasized the need for cooperation in the world today and the practice of the principles for which our republic stands.

While the Band played The Star Spangled Banner, Serg. Harry Tucker, with Capt. Louis Anthony and Scout Paul Starkey raised the flag, which had been given by Mr. Jack Bedwell.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag was given by all and the meeting closed.

CHESTERTOWN SCHOOL NEWS

This week is National Education Week, and also National Book Week. Tuesday November 13 was the day chosen to invite our parents to visit our school to see what the children are doing.

The Seventh grade made posters for Book Week to get people interested in books. Some of the posters show the correct way to take care of books, and others show a picture from a book that a pupil particularly liked.

We now have a bus to take the Seventh grade to high school for shop and Home Economics. The boys are making articles such as: electric lamps, corner shelves, book-ends, and letter holders. The girls are making towels and pin cushions.

Dr. Sterling has very kindly let us borrow a small show case, so now we can exhibit our hobbies in the library. This week Jack Baxter's hobby is being exhibited. He has a large collection of ribbons won by Flossie and Belle Fox at various horse shows. We plan to change the displays each week so that everyone will be able to show his hobby.

Muzzle-Loading

Muzzle-loading of firearms reigned from the 14th to the 19th century—500 years, more or less.

Rubber Gloves

If you wear rubber gloves to protect your hands and nails but find the nails pierce the finger end just turn the glove inside out and paste a piece of adhesive tape over each finger end.

HOT OFF THE GRIDDLE

To pack ice cream into a mold, tip the mold in cold water, shake to remove any drops. Line with heavy waxed paper. This is not necessary, but advisable. Pack the frozen mixture with a wooden spoon into the mold, filling full. Special care is needed with a brick mold to get the corners filled. Cover the filled mold with waxed paper, extending at least one inch beyond the edge, fit the cover on tight, and pack, using four parts of ice to one part of salt. This makes it easier to handle when taken out. The waxed paper may be omitted and a strip of cloth dipped in melted fat fastened around the joining of cover to mold, but the waxed paper is easier. If desired, the entire mold may be wrapped in waxed paper before packing.

To clean and freshen soiled parchment lamp shades, wipe them off with a cloth dampened with olive oil. This will remove all soil and it makes them look like new.

To prolong the life of a new fiber doormat, keep it damp for a week by sprinkling it every two or three days. This will prevent the fiber from breaking, which happens if the mat is allowed to get too dry.

It requires a lot of fat for frying doughnuts and fritters, but if you are careful you can use the same fat over and over again for deep-fat frying.

The liquid used in sauces or gravies for fish dishes may be water, milk, cream or stock from fish. Well-flavored Court bouillon is unexcelled as a base for a fish sauce.

Farm Roads

America has 2,400,000 miles of rural roads serving 6,000,000 farms, but only 45,000 miles have a high type pavement and 99,000 miles have a low-type bituminous surfacing. The rest of these country highways — 2,256,000 miles — have a non-treated surface, are merely graded and drained, or are simply trails.

Charles Heinefield, U. S. Army is home on a furlough with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjiman Long spent Sunday with the latter's parents at Price.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woolford are the parents of a baby boy.

Daniel Perry, U.S. Army, has his honorable discharge and is at his home here.

Mrs. Harry Wagner is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Chance at Price.

Mrs. Frank Parsons was a visitor in Baltimore several days this past week.

Miss Bernice Coleman of Baltimore spent the week-end with Mrs. Annie Coleman and family.

Rev. Alonza Travers passed away at his home here early Sunday morning after a lingering illness. We express to the family our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Homer Hall entertained on Tuesday evening The Daughters of Wesley Circle.

Cellophane on a new lampshade should be removed as soon as the lamp is used, else the heat from the bulb will shrink the cellophane and bend the frame of the lampshade.

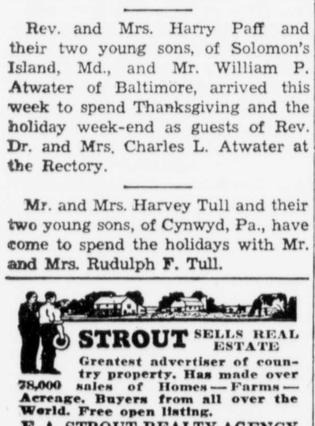

Good supplies of cranberries, as well as of turkey, are in prospect for 1945 Thanksgiving day dinners. The 63-million-pound cranberry crop is about double last year's small supply.
