The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Already, Christmas parties are lining up, to start the season off in good order. Next Tuesday, Mrs. John R. Speicher will be hostess at a luncheon bridge at her home on Campus Ave. This will be followed by another party on Saturday evening, Dec. 22nd, at which time, Mrs. Speicher, her daughter, Miss Martha Speicher and Misses Hallie and Mabel Toulson will be hostesses. Clever invitations were issued to this one, with drawing and verse reading:

Peace! Good Friends and Christmas Cheer
Together once again are here!
Come sing the carols of long ago
And let good fellowship overflow!

Then on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19, comes a tea at the Country Club, invitations for which, were issued by Mrs. Alexander Colclough Dick and Mrs. William Dorsey Hines.

In the meantime, some who like a "White Christmas", other than with snow have gone to warmer climes.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Copeland left on Saturday for Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew, of Betterton are on their way to California, spending this week with friends in Pennsylvania, and from there will motor to Denver, Col., where they will visit their son, before attaining their final destination.

Next week, all of the school crowd will be returning for the holidays, but meanwhile, Hannah More, having closed a week earlier, due to a flu epidemic we find Miss Marian Grieb, a member of the faculty, Mackey Metcalfe, Genifer Kingsley and Page Wilmer are already home.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Skipp have been spending several days this week in New York.

Last week-end, Miss Mary Rogers Hynson, of Wilmington, was a guest of Mrs. Allan B. Harris.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C., spent last week-end in Chestertown as guests of Mrs. Simpson's father, Mr. Samuel E. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Pennington have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Anna Verma to Mr. Billie B. Bell, of Philadelphia, son of Mrs. Mary B. Bell, of Baltimore.

Mrs. H. A. Kratzer will return to her home here Saturday, accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy, who will be her guests throughout the holidays. Mrs. Kratzer has been vistiing them at their home in Emmitsburg, Md., for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Frank Hines, Jr., an army nurse, who has been stationed overseas, has arrived in this country, and is expected to reach Chestertown this week-end. Joined by her husband, she and Mr. Hines will be guests at Brampton, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines. Dr. Hines who has been a patient at the local hospital is hoping to return to his home by that time.

Crowded for space this week, I'm told, and I am crowded for time. Where upon, to make everyone happy, let's call it a day and say

Yours to cooperate,

The Wanderer

EVELAND—RODNEY

St. James Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Marian Rodney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodney, became the bride of Mr. Donald Eveland of Greensboro. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ella Wright, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid and Miss Audrey Rodney, sister of the bride, as Maid of Honor. Mr. Randall Swann was best man.

The bride was very becomingly attired in royal blue velvet trimmed in white with black and white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in black with a pink carnation corsage. The Maid of Honor was dressed in blue and black with a pink carnation corsage.

Rev. Melvin Kay officiated at the ceremony.

They will make their home near Worton.

New Fur Styles Shown In Catalog

Mitchell's Furs of Baltimore have just completed the mailing of their new Fall and Winter catalog to their many customers and friends in this county and the surrounding area.

Natural Mink, Persian Lamb, Sheared Beaver, Squirrel, Muskrat, Mouton Lamb, and a host of other fur coats, scarfs and jackets are shown from actual photographs of the garments in their present fur collection.

The most outstanding impression that the catalog leaves is that in every case the values are really excellent.

If you haven't received one of these booklets, you may write directly to Mitchell's at 224 West Lexington Street. They will gladly send you one and you will undoubtedly find it as interesting as we did.

Earl S. Hollinger
ANNOUNCES

his candidacy for the office of Mayor of Chestertown subject to the Town Elections to be held on Monday December 17, 1945.

With thirty years' successful experience in the building and contracting business, I am qualified to give to the town the leadership that it requires in these post-war construction and improvement years.

There are certain essential public services which the citizens of Chestertown rightfully should expect to receive from the Mayor and Council. These proper services can be had at an economical, reasonable and proper expenditure of the taxpayers' money.

IF ELECTED

I promise (1) To inaugurate and promote an adequate street-paving program for Chestertown which will eliminate the inconvenience and expense of annually spreading dust-laying oil on the public streets;

(2) To modernize the street-lighting system;

(3) To increase the present police force where necessary;

(4) To make an annual report to the taxpayers on the financial standing of the town;

(5) To revise the registration and voting regulations so as to eliminate confusion; and

(6) To receive all critical and constructive suggestions for the benefit of the town.

IF YOU FAVOR

Economy in Government together with adequate services that the taxpayer has a right to expect as a return for his money, I respectfully solicit your vote,

Because That Is My Platform
