December 27 at 8:00 a Festival of Christmas music will be given at Betterton and the offering will go to the fund for the new organ. Dr. H. W. Followfield and Mrs. F. Campbell are co-chairmen.

The Homemakers Club held their annual Christmas Party in the social room of the Methodist Church last Tuesday night. About thirty-three members with their husbands and friends attended and enjoyed the fine turkey supper with other tasty dishes on the menu. Mrs. Fred Campbell the newly elected President had charge of arrangements and she was ably assisted by Mrs. Nellie Crew in charge of decorations, and Mrs. Monica Myers and several others. The large decorated tree with presents beneath it was surrounded by tables decorated in red, white and blue at which the guests were seated. Colored lights and wreathes, and lighted candles added to the feature occasion. Carols were sung, and a short program of songs, jokes and sketches, was very much enjoyed after which the gifts were distributed and club sisters were drawn for the coming year. Rev. and Mrs.H. H. Conner and Miss Helen Schellinger were among the guests who attended.

Home canned grape or other fruit juice, watermelon rind pickle, and other home preserved fruits, juices, and nutmeats can be used to flavor the Christmas fruit cake.

GALENA HI-LIGHTS

Editor, Mildred Durham

Our attendance for December will be much lower than usual for quite a number of students have been ill with colds and grippe.

On December 11th students and some of the faculty received their pictures which were taken several weeks ago. Many students are delighted with them.

Since last Tuesday week, Miss Walters, a popular member of the facutly has been absent from school due to a severe case of the grippe. We all miss her. So get well, Miss Walters!

Prospective acreage of strawberries in Maryland for 1946 is 2800 acres, about 300 more than the acreage that was harvested in 1945.

Polishing of tinned pans may remove the tin covering from the iron and cause the metal to rust.

THANKS

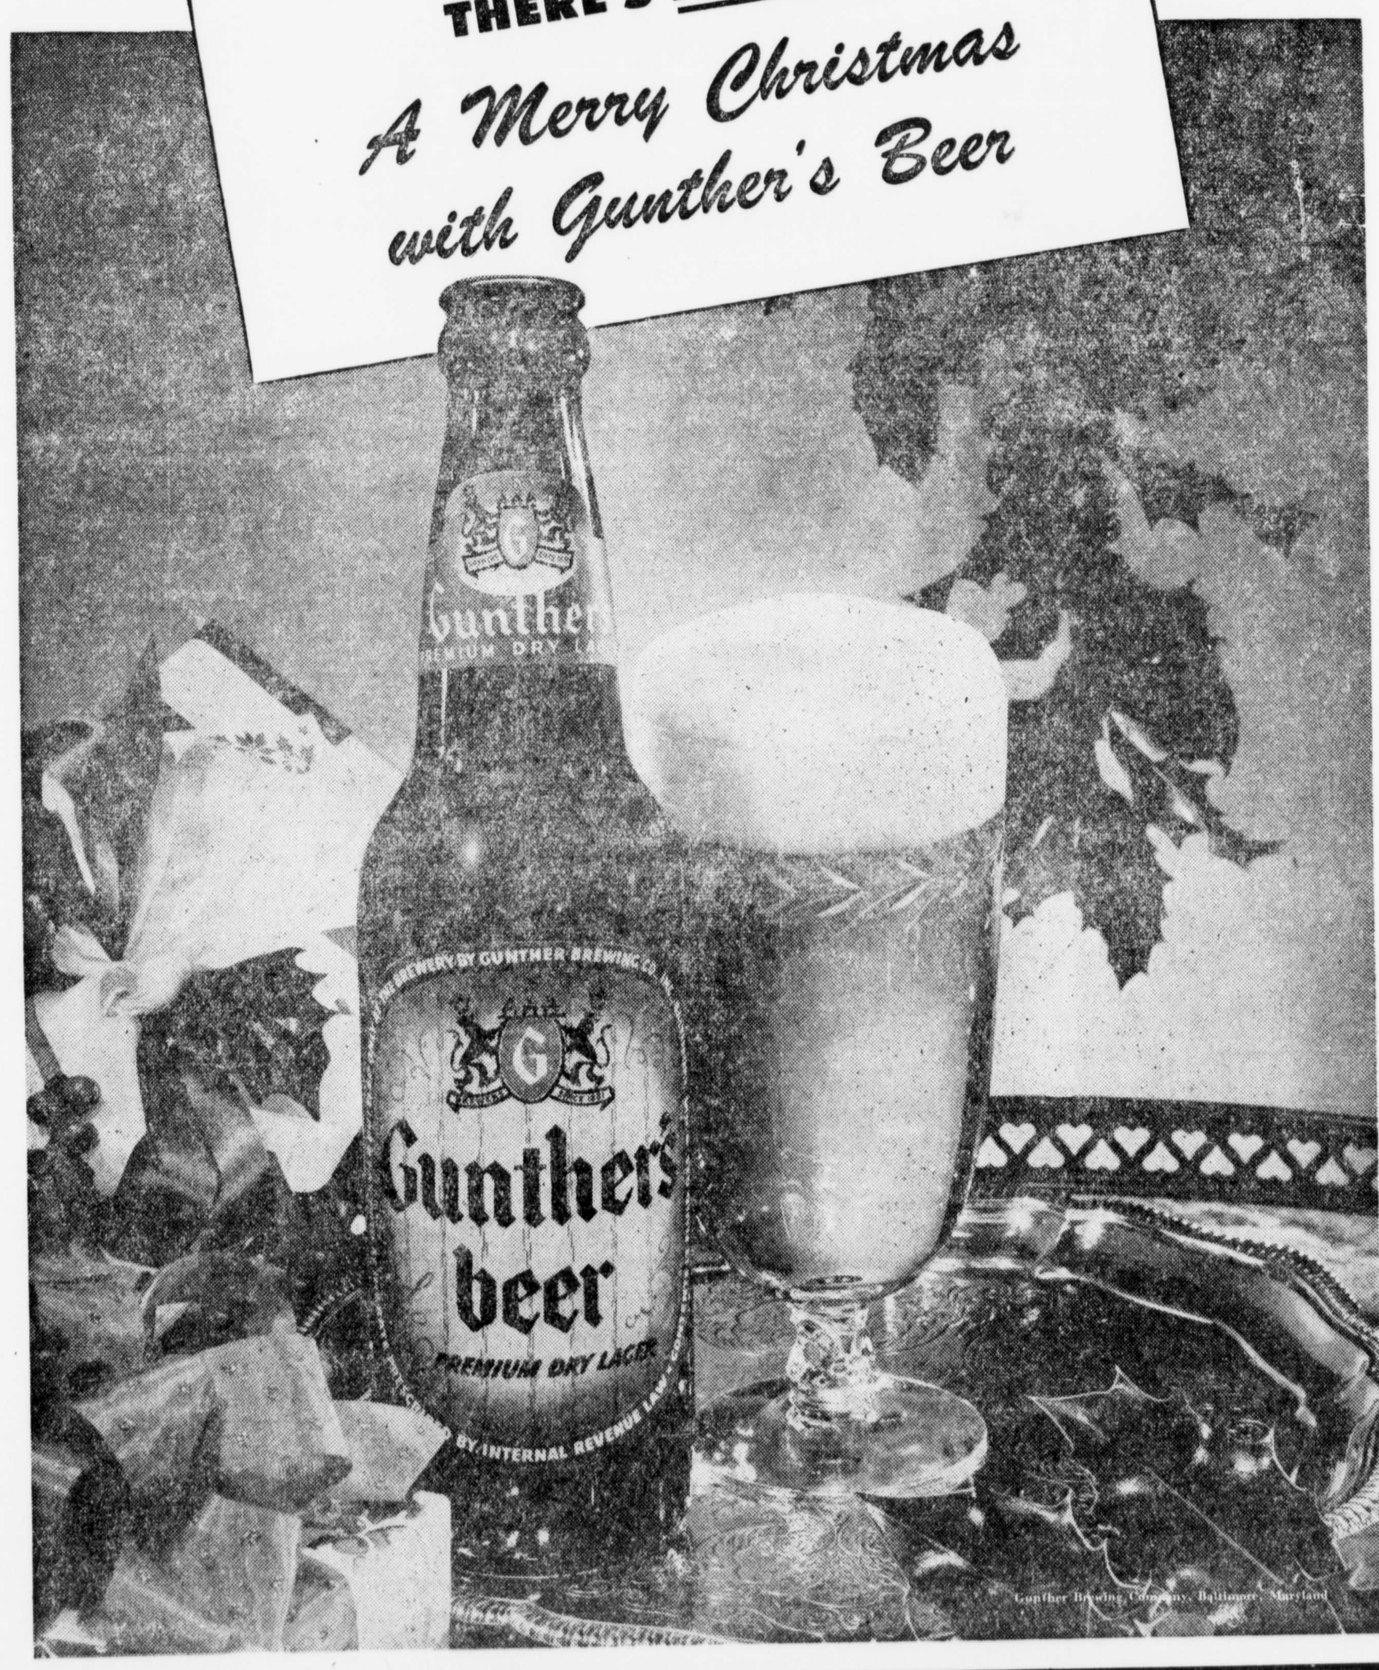

For Your Cooperation

We thank our many customers for their cooperation during 1945. This has been a year in which scarcity of supplies has prevented us from giving the service that we would like to give but your cooperation has enabled us to continue our pleasant relations.

We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous Year in 1946.
